

THE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY
TRAILBLAZER

50 YEARS OF

PANTHER PRIDE

Dear Lovable, sweet, attractive, cute & sexy:

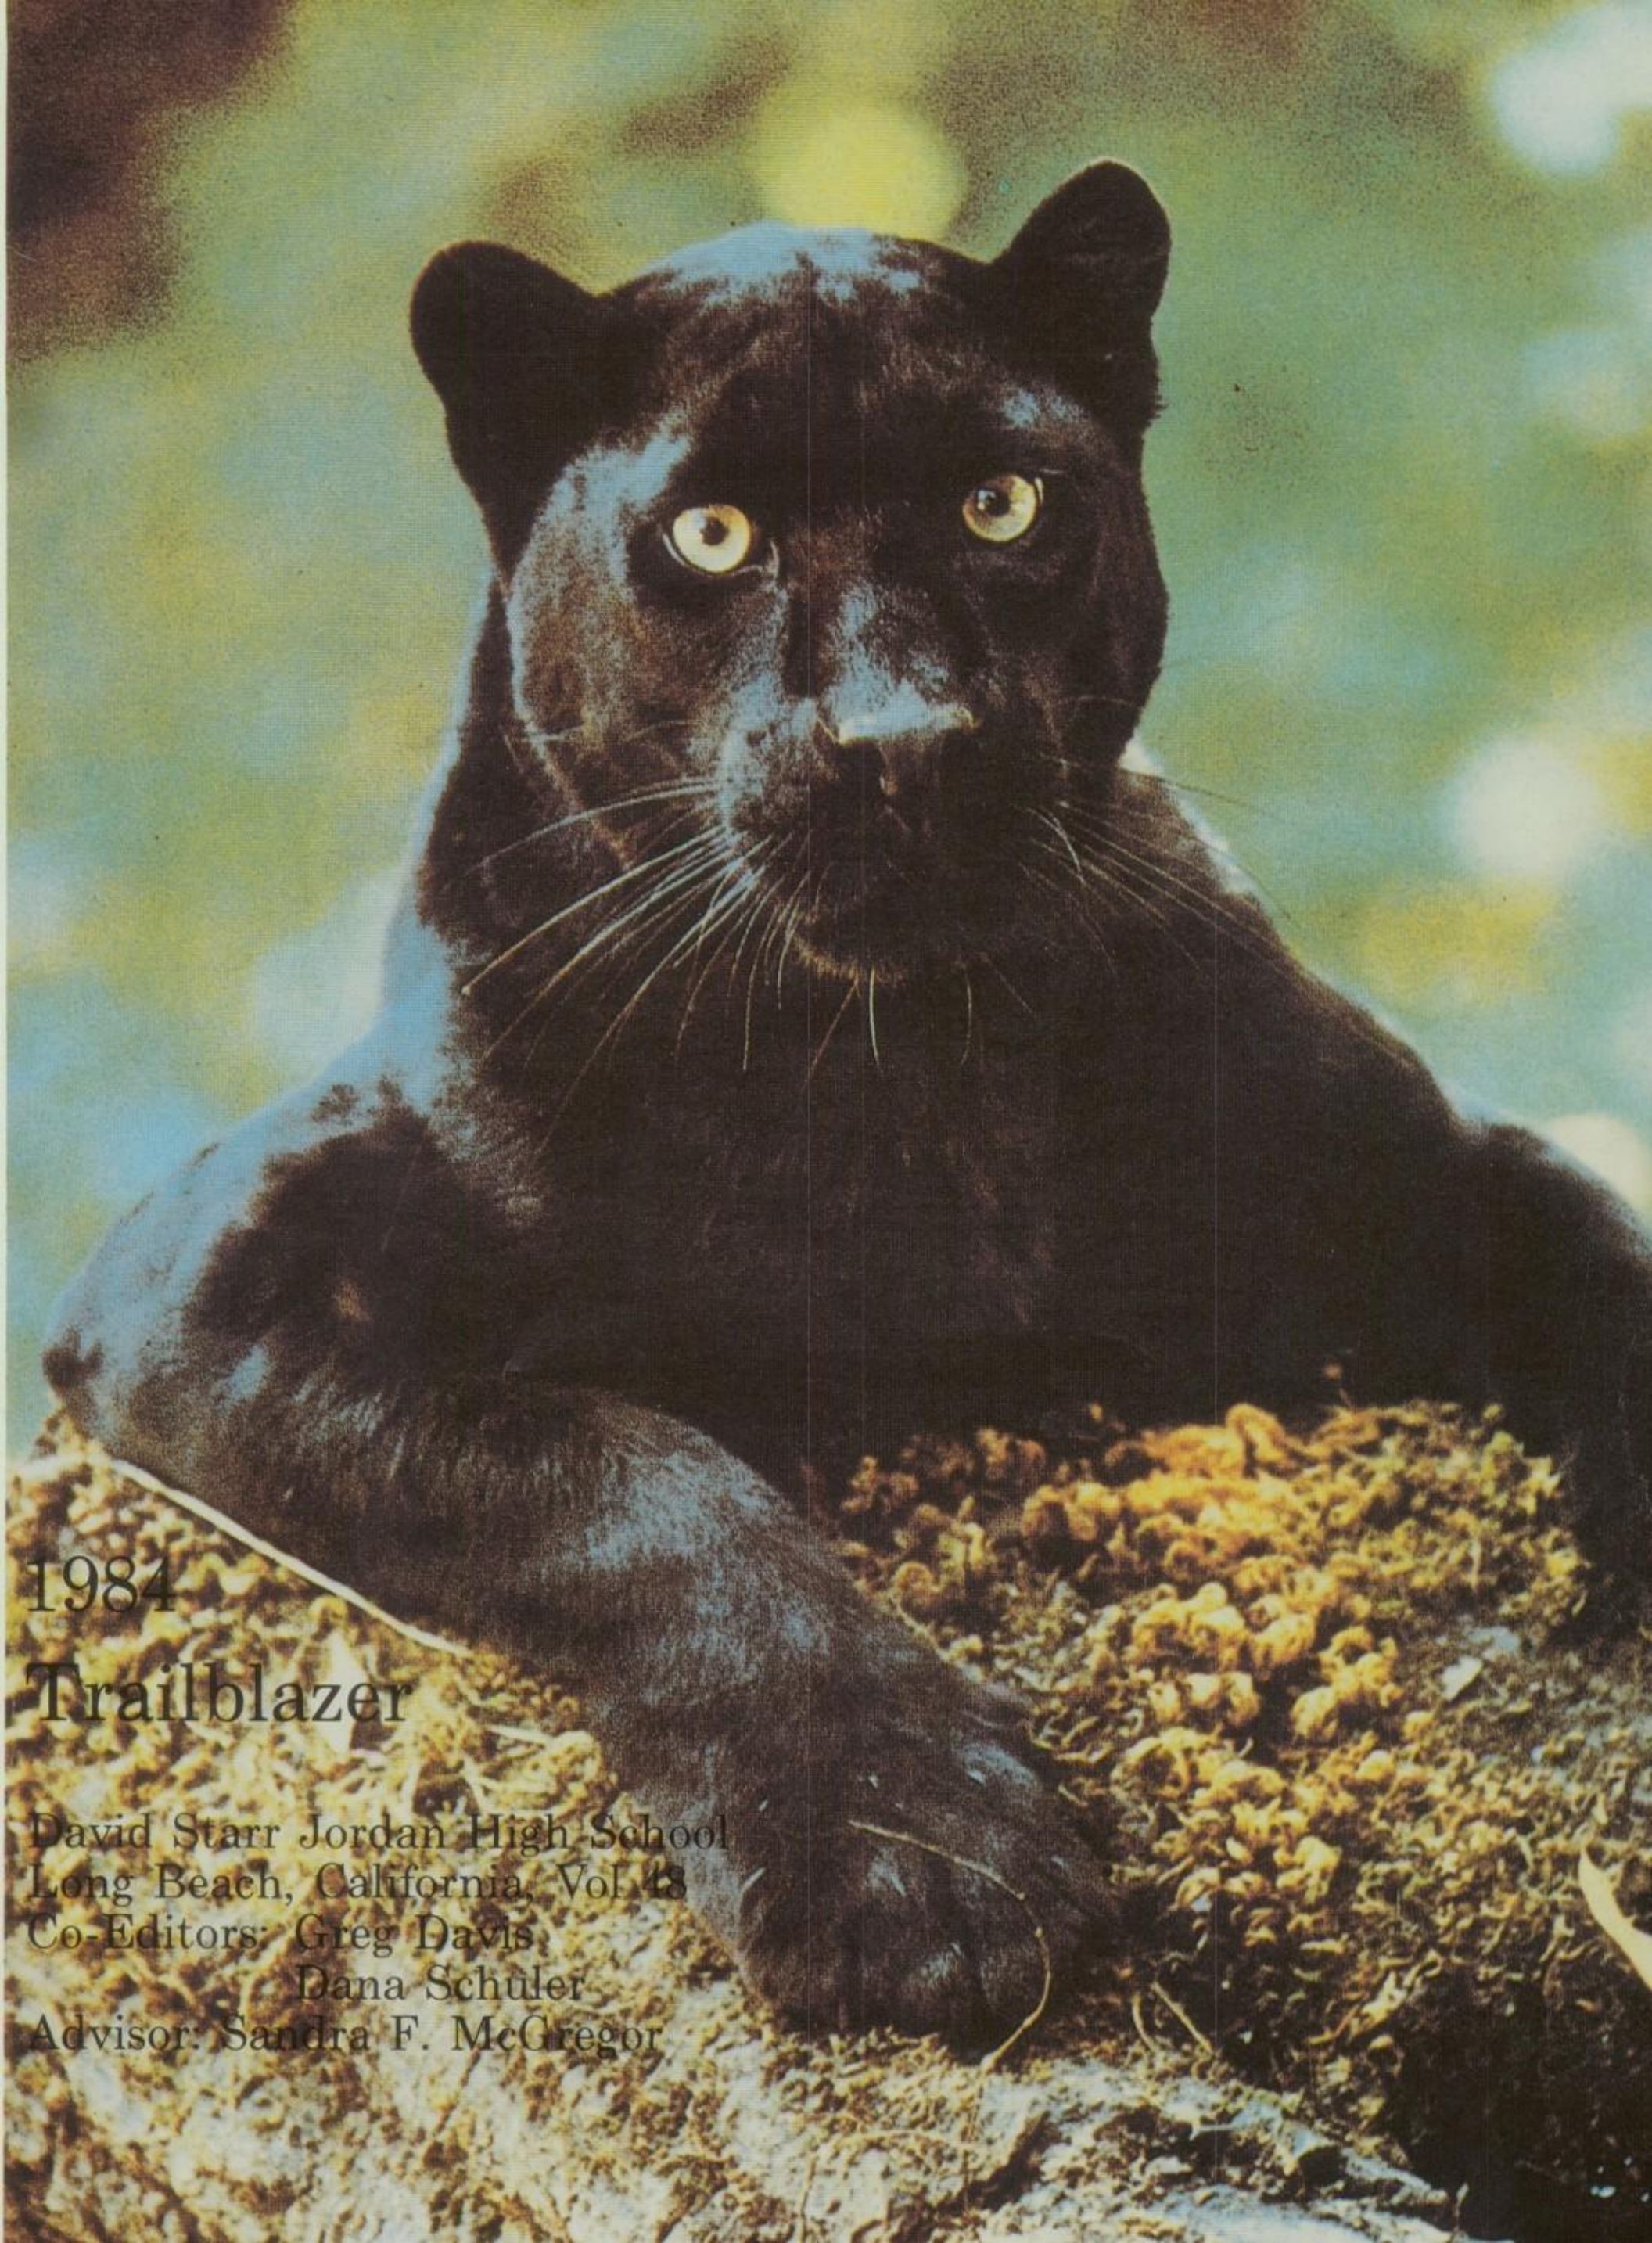

↑ You're probably wondering who that could be? Might be Jim! But no, I'm talkin' about you. Yes!! incredible, isn't it. These past three year with you has been fun. I'll miss you, not that you won't bring any more re-admit to school. But you're always the best dress, good looking, and nicest person I've ever know. (next to me, of course). I'll probably won't see you again (I'm being serious here (SOP!!)) but I'll wish you the best of luck in every direction that you're going. I hope to keep in touch with both you and young!!

Q
Jim

LIM IS TALKIN ABOUT ME.
HI UN KYONG.

Jordan Grows Up

Fifty years of continuous change have brought our school from a few temporary bungalows to the nearly 27 acres that serve over 2,000 students today. The original campus was the North Long Beach YMCA at the corner of Harding Street and Cherry Avenue. Classes slowly moved to the permanent Atlantic Avenue location. The facilities grew with the needs of its ever-increasing student body. New buildings sprouted up slowly. Older structures, such as the old library, which is now the Testing Center, were transformed.

Two major additions to the campus were the auditorium, built in 1950, and the new Media Center, which was opened in 1978. Each structure cost over one million dollars. Jordan's growth continues with small alterations, such as the newly planted grass on the football field.

Our student parking lot has seen lots of changes as the years have whizzed by. The Panthers' means of transportation has ranged from bicycles to mopeds to screeching cars now slowed by the bright yellow speed bumps.

Jordan has grown, but it hasn't finished changing yet. It will continue to change for the good of its future students.

After Hours

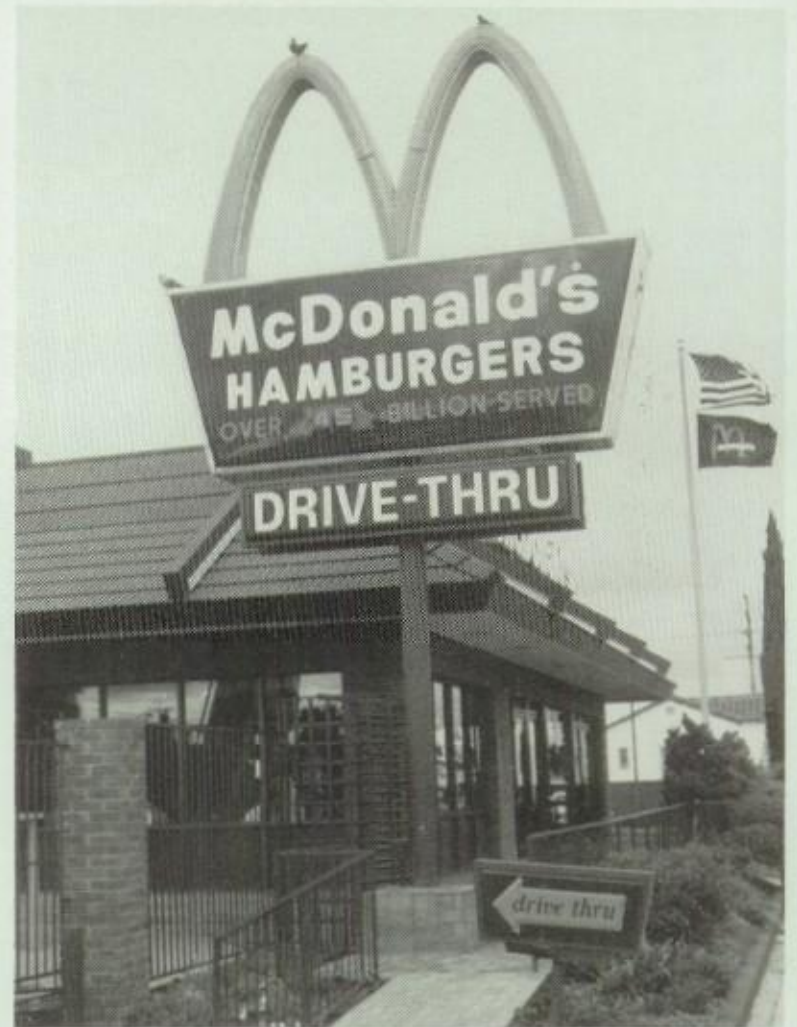

One aspect of Jordan life has endured the test of time: hanging out at the nearest malt shop or hamburger joint after school and on weekends. The names of the hang-outs and the delicacies they feature may have changed, but whether it's pizza, tacos, or banana splits, the result is the same: relief from school pressures and some special moments with friends.

Jordan Students Are Always In Step With Fashion

Throughout our 50 years, Jordan students have always kept up with the latest fads. Hairstyles and styles in clothing have reflected the changing fashions of half a century.

In the 1940's, zoot suits were in fashion; the '50's featured leather jackets, pedal pushers, and oxfords; in the '60's it was a mixture of "mod" styles and flower children; the '70's saw mini skirts and bouffant hair styles; jeans and granny dresses were big in the '70's; and the changes go on.

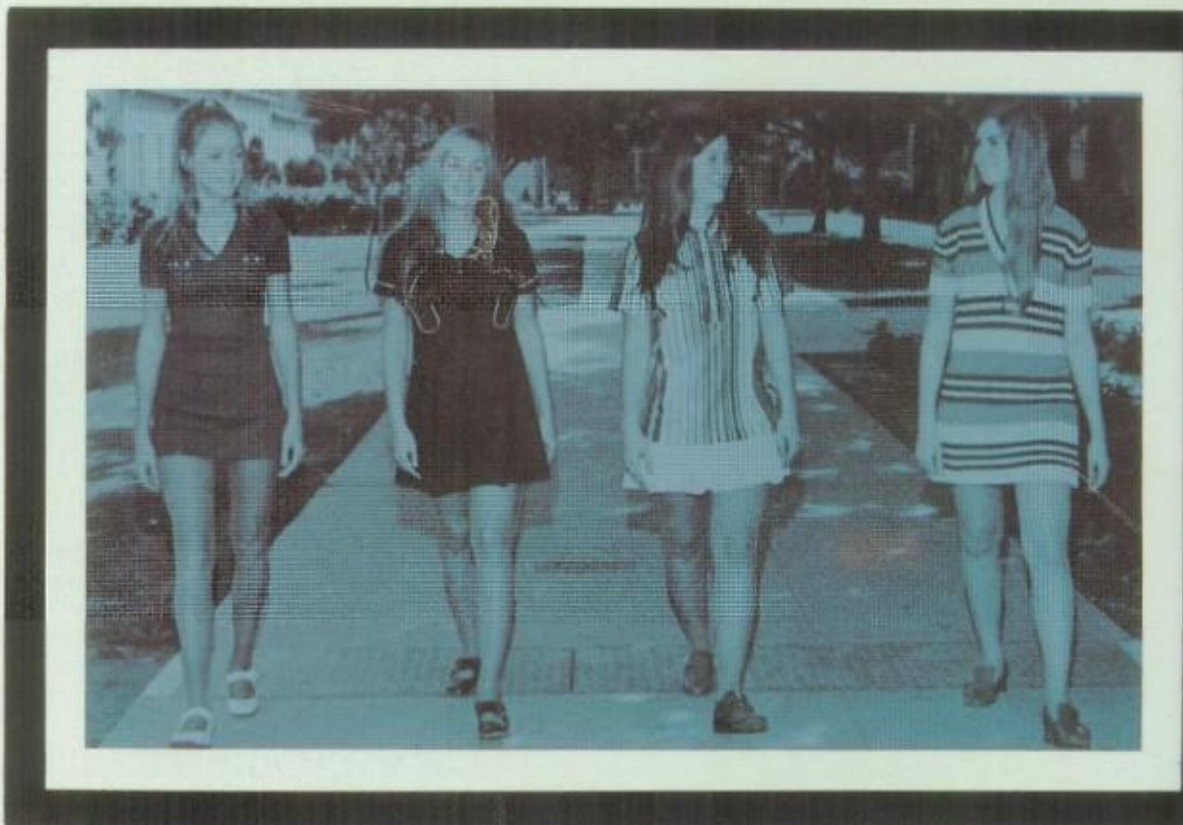

Now in the '80's, many of these fashions have returned, with up-dated variations. We have the 1984 version of mini skirts and pedal pushers, augmented by plastic shoes and purses, "Flashdance" sweats, hats, punk styles, and the list goes on and on.

These days students dress to suit their own tastes, some combining old styles with new. The freedom of the '80's makes it easy for everyone to express his/her individuality. We can only guess at what the future of fashion holds for Jordan students.

ACTIVITIES

The Hangout- Barro's; Milk Bowl Sends Spirits Soaring

Every high school has a hangout—a place to go and celebrate its victories and mourn its losses. Jordan is no exception. Friday nights after games, many Jordan football players, cheerleaders, and loyal fans frequented Barro's, a local pizza parlor. Many fond memories will remain from our times at Barro's.

The 1983 Milk Bowl, sponsored by the Long Beach PTA, proved to be one of the most fun and most exciting events of the year. The football players were fired up and showed their great abilities as they beat Lakewood 14-0 and tied Wilson 0-0. The cheerleaders generated great spirit and kept the fans enthusiastic all night.

1. Marus Turner and friends ham it up for the camera.
2. Laurie Robbins, Tommy Piarino, Ted Foth, and Brenda Vis wait for pizza.
3. Michelle Magsaysay, Christina Keehan, and Mary Smith had lots of fun at Barro's.

Pep Squads Cheer Our Fiftieth Year

This year's pep squads, Varsity Yell, Song, and Flag, kept very busy. Under the leadership of Ms. Kathy Lipold, their new advisor and a former Jordan pepster from 1974-75, the squads supported all sports events, performed at school rallies, and in general, promoted great school spirit throughout the year.

Much hard work went into the squads' performances. Varsity Yell, Song, and Flag members practiced for two hours almost every day during the summer, and they attended a spirit camp at U.C. Santa Barbara in July. While at camp, they learned many routines and cheers. Their hard work and effort were rewarded by a spirit award, a unity award, and ribbons which they won for their performances.

This year the squads had excellent leadership. Along with Ms. Lipold, Julie Sipos, Yell; Mona Mottin, Song; and Kristen Webber, Flag, headed the squads and gave great support to their groups and showed true dedication to Jordan.

The pep squads put forth a tremendous effort to make the Golden Anniversary Year both enjoyable and memorable.

Majorette Robyn Thomas also contributed hard work and dedication to her performances. Aside from performing with Song, Robyn also twirled during pre-game and half-time shows. Her great twirling ability took her to Notre Dame during the summer, where she competed in the National Majorette Competition and took three awards in various categories.

Cheer Councils Formed, Mascots Perform, Tall Flag Competes

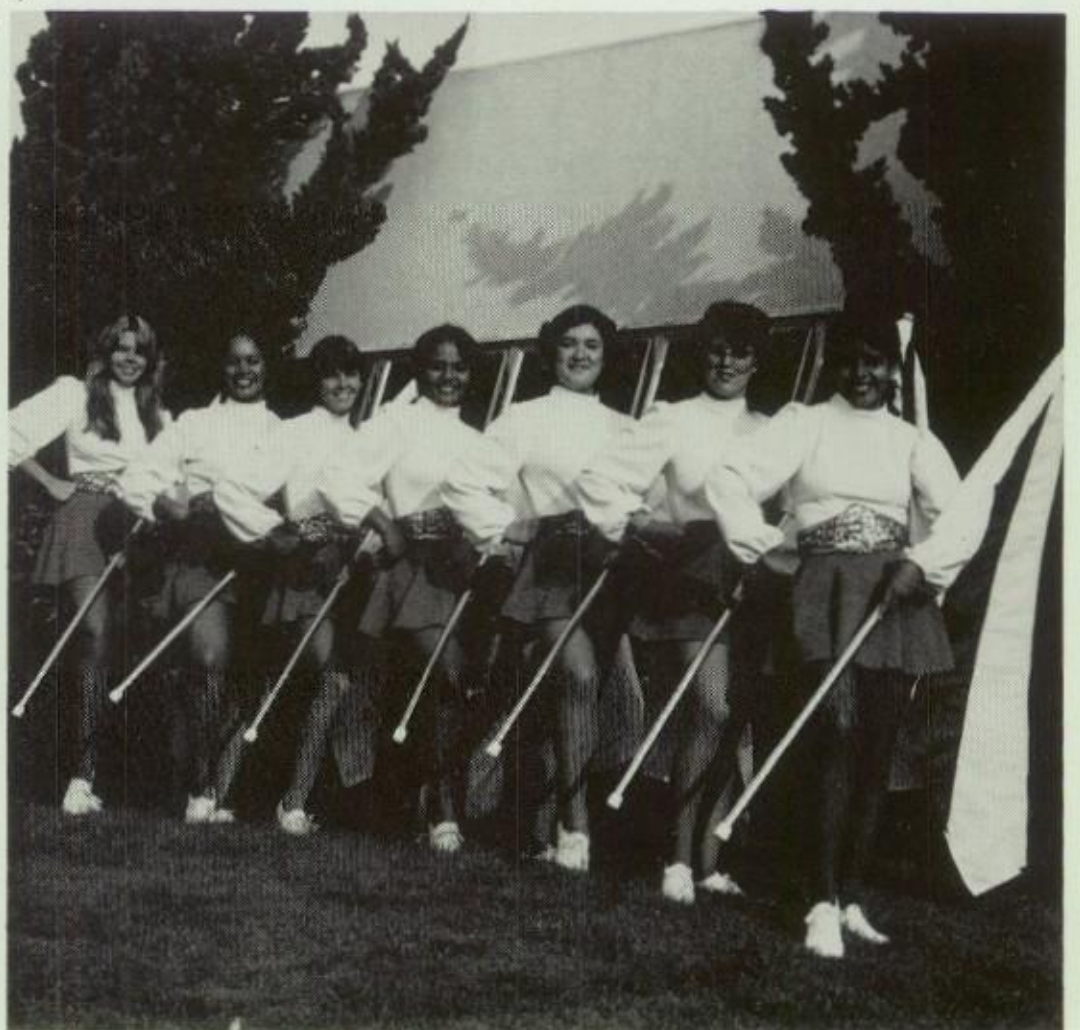

Cheer Council and Pantherette Council were formed this year to make rallies and performances run more smoothly. The councils also made decisions for the pep squads and Pantherettes. Julie Sipos was in charge of the Cheer Council, and Dana Cuartero and Crystal Lehner headed the Pantherette Council.

Mascots, James Earhart and Maria Pena, added fun and excitement to rallies, sports events, and assemblies. You could often see James at football games pretending to "shoot" cheerleaders from other schools. The mascots dedicated a lot of time and effort supporting the school by making posters for Cline Square.

Tall Flag contributed beautiful pageantry during half-time and pre-game shows. Headed by captain, Karen Baldwin, the girls put forth hours of time and tremendous dedication to make their performances memorable.

Pantherettes Begin Successful New Era

The 1983-84 Pantherettes established a new era for the Jordan Drill Team. Their new uniforms, blue unitards with gold accessories, provided a new look, and their first place trophy in a field show competition set a new standard of excellence. In addition, an emphasis on dance precision rather than just on military precision gave a totally different feeling to their performances.

This year's Pantherettes were a particularly cohesive unit under the leadership of Captains Dana Cuartero and Crystal Lehner. The entire drill team attended a camp in Santa Barbara last summer and achieved fantastic successes. Dana Cuartero was second in a field of 500 other girls in the Miss Super Sensational contest, and the other drill teams at the camp voted Jordan's Pantherettes the drill team they'd most like to be like.

In addition, to their school performances and competitions, the Pantherettes did shows at convalescent homes and at a Dodger game.

Miss Karen Kane inspires the Pantherettes, drawing on her own experience as a high school cheerleader and on her background in dance.

Thank you, Pantherettes, for helping to make our 50th year extra special.

Band Stirs Spirit During Fiftieth

The 1983-84 Panther Band made great strides since the beginning of the year—it was composed of about 70% sophomores. After many hours of preparation, the band went to two half-time competitions, one in LaHabra and one in Norwalk. This year's Drum Major was Dennis Rowley, and his Assistant Drum Major was Steve Ganioco. In addition, the band competed in a number of festivals.

In honor of Jordan's Golden Anniversary year, the band presented a terrific half-time show at Homecoming which included a wide range of numbers: a march by Tschaikovsky; a pop piece, "Only Time Will Tell;" "Maniac," from the film Flashdance; and "They Way We Were."

Jordan's band is under the able direction of Mr. Phil Wyatt.

Orchestra And Jazz Ensemble Tour Southland

The Jordan Orchestra had a busy year. They performed in the Evensong at Christmas and in several spring concerts. They also traveled to junior highs and to San Diego, where they entered a competition. This year's concertmaster was Paula Bennett. Sam Balimbin, violinist, and Donna McCann, violist won orchestra scholarships.

After football season, the wind section of the orchestra becomes the Jazz Ensemble, which plays everything from big band swing to rock to ballads. The jazz ensemble attended a clinic at Idyllwild and four jazz festivals. Billy Bolton and L.A. Melton are alto sax soloists for the group.

Mr. Phil Wyatt heads both of these talented groups.

J.V. Yell Supports Athletic Events

J.V. Yell supported all sophomore and junior varsity sports events this year. You could also find many J.V. Yell Leaders in the crowd at varsity games cheering on our teams.

The squad attended camp at U.C. Santa Barbara during the summer, where they learned cheers and routines to bring back to Jordan. They also held practices almost every day during the summer.

Some of the highlights of their year were carrying the banner at the Milk Bowl pre-game, cheering on the field with the Varsity squads at the Homecoming game, performing in rallies, and leading junior class competitions. Head Yell Lydia Sanchez gave great leadership and helped make J.V. Yell the terrific squad it was.

Homecoming Bursts With Panther Pride

This year's Golden Anniversary Homecoming was spectacular. Homecoming Week featured dress-ups every day, with Monday, October 31, a Halloween costume day; Tuesday was a 1940's dress-up featuring World War II uniforms and Joan Crawford-shoulder pads; Wednesday, "50's Day," saw girls in poodle skirts and pony tails and guys in leather jackets and greased down hair; on Thursday, hippies carried peace signs and a contingent of Viet Nam soldiers provided the opposite view. Friday was "Golden Day," with students and faculty dressed in gold. Ms. Fielding won for the best faculty costume; she was a big gold cake with fifty candles.

Following classes on Friday, Panthers from today and yesterday hurried to Cline Square, which turned into a bazaar featuring club-sponsored booths. Band won the award for the booth with the most gold. Past and present Panthers were tempted with such goodies as corn on the cob, chili fritos, miniature doughnuts, slushes, malts, hot dogs, nachos, and cotton candy.

Other booths offered services, such as a jail booth sponsored by Jr. Kababayan, a marriage booth, a booth offering a chance to throw a sponge in the face of a favorite (?) faculty member, a dunking booth which gave Mr. Ono a good soaking, a button booth, a kissing booth, a pillow fight, and many, many more.

The day ended with a spectacular rally in the stadium, attended by many alumni as well as the present Panther family. The rally gave cheerleaders, song girls, and flag girls from as far back as 1967 a chance to show that Panther spirit never dies.

Pre-Game Show Sets Homecoming Mood

A special pre-game show started the ball rolling at this year's Homecoming. Mr. Jim Keck, Activities Director, was the emcee for the festivities. Joe Powers and Lisa Guillen entertained the crowd with a skit showing the two digging through their attic finding memorable moments from Jordan's past.

Alumni cheerleaders from 1967-1982, who had performed at the day rally, led the cheers at the game.

Queen Helen Harris was pronounced the 1983 Homecoming Queen, and then the game began. Student Council had spent hours painting a giant panther head on the 50-yard line to make the field look extra special for the big game. Regardless of the outcome of the game, the day was one no Panther will ever forget.

Publication Clubs Bring Writers Together

Quill and Scroll and Panther Prints are clubs for students who work in the area of Journalism. Quill and Scroll membership is limited to students whose writing has appeared in The Cat's Purr. Panther Prints serves as a fund raiser for the Trailblazer so that special features, such as more color, can be provided at no additional cost to students. Panther Prints membership is open to anyone interested in getting involved in the future of the yearbook.

Mrs. Fran Anderson was advisor for Quill and Scroll. Under the leadership of President Dennis Brown, Vice President Rod Wright, and Treasurer Julie Teson, Quill and Scroll sold nachos and cheese at their Homecoming booth and cotton candy at Spring Fling.

Panther Prints was sponsored by Mrs. Sandra McGregor. Serving as officers were President Greg Davis, Vice President Chris LaRiviere, Secretary Laurie Robbins, and Treasurer Tommy Piarino. The club participated in Spring Fling activities and sold prints of pictures that appear in this year's Trailblazer.

El Circulo Espanol and Lasso Get Involved

El Circulo Espanol is a club dedicated to bringing students from Jordan's Spanish classes together. The club sponsor was Señora Nancy Gomez, with Sonia Woodard as president. El Circulo Espanol participated in the Golden Anniversary Homecoming this year with their pickle and bagel booth. In addition, El Circulo Espanol sponsored a booth at Spring Fling.

LASSO stands for Latin American Student Services. In its second year of existence, the club was sponsored by Mr. Ben Martinez. This year at Homecoming, LASSO sold tasty tostados and tacos. With the money they raised at Homecoming and other endeavors, LASSO bought gifts for the children who were in Memorial Hospital during Christmas. In addition, the club visited convalescent homes.

Kababayan, Fellowship Serve Others

The Junior Kababayan club is a group of friendly, helpful people who provide services for Jordan and the community. The club is open to people wishing to donate their time for special causes. This year their activities included a Homecoming jail booth and visits to nearby convalescent homes with the U.C. Irvine Kababayans, singing Christmas carols for senior citizens.

Leah Lazo led the Junior Kababayans as president; Ethel Valencia was vice president; Trissy Bui was secretary; and Venus Olaires served as treasurer.

This is the Fellowship Club's second year of existence at Jordan. The club was started last year with the purpose of bringing together students with spiritual ties. During their weekly meetings, club members discuss moral and political issues, and they have the chance to meet and join in fellowship with one another. Under the leadership of sponsors Mrs. Nancy Gomez and Mr. Glen Koons and president Chip Krolik, the club participated in many activities, such as running the marriage booth at Homecoming.

Fun & Learning For French-German Club And Pirouettes

The French-German Club consists of students from French and German classes. Mrs. Barbara Seals and Mr. Jim Mills sponsored the club, and officers were President Kim Jackson, Vice President Dina Lazo, Secretary Yin Diep, and Treasurer Gretchen Beavers. The club sold croissants at Homecoming and candy canes for Christmas.

Pirouettes is Jordan's dance club. Their main purpose this year was to raise money for the dance show, "Puttin' on the Ritz." They accomplished their goal by selling chili fritos at Homecoming. The group was sponsored by Mrs. Stephanie Breskovich, and led by officers Roxie Meyers, president; Julie Sipos, vice president; Julia Lopez, treasurer; and Alice Barlow, secretary.

Advisory Council, Thespians Serve Entire School

The Principal's Advisory Council is the main communication system between our principal, Mr. Jack DuBois, and Jordan students. The council met monthly, and the students' charge was to reflect problems they observed around campus to Mr. DuBois, who in turn tried out new ideas on the council and tried to help find solutions to the problems the students brought up. Students were chosen on the basis of leadership ability and school involvement.

Thespians is Jordan's drama club. This international society is in high schools all over the world. At Jordan, Thespians support drama productions and activities. They also give awards for outstanding performances and directing by students in plays. In addition, this year Thespians represented Jordan in drama competition at Cal State Long Beach. This year's officers were President Tara Gallogly, Vice President Eric Hadley, Secretary Michele Rizzo, Treasurer Zia Bruner, and Chairperson of Fund Raising Tracy Peoples. Mrs. Barbara Wheat served as the club's advisor.

Friends United, Production Services Work For Jordan

Friends United consists of students of all races and cultures. The purpose of the club is to bring students together in order to promote friendship and build understanding between and among all people. Mr. Neil VanSteenbergen served as the club's advisor, and the club's officers were President Vern Davis, Vice President Daphne Starling, Secretary Lisa Hunter, Treasurer Mary Senart, and Publicity Chairmen Frank Lopez and David Bernaderet.

This year Friends United participated in many school activities. They held a Thanksgiving turkey hunt, sent Christmas cards to every student and staff member at Jordan, led a multi-cultural assembly, co-sponsored a Saturday all-district human relations communications workshop in March, and participated in activities during Brotherhood-Sisterhood Week.

Production Services is made up of members of the Jordan Stage Crew. The club was advised by Mrs. Sandy Lucas, with assistance from Mr. Dave Barclift, technician, and Deana Veith, club president. Production Services played a major part in all school productions, such as rallies, assemblies, plays, music productions, and sports events. Some of their work included setting up lighting and sound, assigning positions, making cues and building sets. The club sold cotton candy during Homecoming. They also visited various television studios, and they held a barbeque at the end of the year.

C.S.F. And N.H.S. Attract Scholars

This year the National Honor Society was under the sponsorship of Mr. Robert Armstrong. This was Mr. Armstrong's first year at Jordan. Although the club got off to a slow start because of the switch in sponsors, the small but powerful group made up for it later in the year. The club's activities, including a booth during Spring Fling, all were aimed toward N.H.S.'s ultimate goal: giving a gift to Jordan to commemorate the 50th Anniversary. This year's officers were Dana Schuler, President; Sonia Woodard, vice president; Greg Davis, secretary; and Trissy Bui, treasurer.

Mr. Jim Keck took over the sponsorship of the California Scholarship Federation, C.S.F., this year. The club was also late in forming, but with the help of Chip Krolik and Kristen Webber, C.S.F. ended the year actively. The club went to C.S.F. Night at Disneyland, toured colleges, and participated in Spring Fling.

Football And Baseball Clubs Raise Funds

The Football Club is composed of varsity football players who want to help raise money for the team and to keep in shape during the off-season. The club was begun during the summer during passing league games when the team needed to earn money to buy scouting equipment, a computer that organizes information about opposing teams. The club started the year off on the right foot by holding a Lift-A-Thon to earn enough money to buy new uniforms.

The Jordan Baseball Club, nicknamed the Horsehiders, is comprised of members of both the varsity and junior varsity baseball teams. The club has been in existence for many years. The faculty advisor is Head Coach Richard Greene.

The club's most prominent activity was their Spring Fling booth where they earned money for game programs to let people know the names of the Panthers.

The Horsehider officers were President Chris LaRiviere, Vice President Lee Nuez, Secretary Raymond Easley, and Treasurer John Marshall.

Boosters Support Extracurricular Activities

The Jordan Booster Club was formed this year under the leadership of Principal Mr. Jack DuBois and President Dr. Merle Anderson to support the total extracurricular program at Jordan; from athletics to music to dance to drama, the Boosters were behind us.

The Boosters' year began with the Toyota/Booster Club Autumn Classic, a 5k/10k run held in El Dorado Park. The Toyota Corporation generously furnished two Toyota pick-up trucks to help lay out the running course, as well as furnishing twenty jogging suits and other prizes to award the winners in the various age categories. Toyota also permitted the Boosters to use the Toyota logo on all advertising for the event. Mr. Ben Martinez and Mr. Harzell Alpizar were instrumental in organizing the run, which included over 900 runners.

The Boosters' second event was the Garage Sale held on Dec. 4. Sale items came from students, faculty, and Boosters, and earned over $1000 to support Jordan's extracurricular activities.

Santa Claus Makes Special Trip For Snowflake Dance

Our annual Christmas activity, the Snowflake Dance was held in the Jordan gym on Saturday, December 10. This was only the second dance of the year, and it was very well attended. Couples danced for hours to music provided by senior, Tony Lopez. Refreshments were sold by the Jordan P.T.A.

For years Christmas dances have been held at Jordan, but over the years some traditions have changed. In the past, the dance was always formal, and a Snowflake Queen was elected, in contrast to the casual dress of recent years. However, one tradition will never change: the annual appearance of Santa Claus.

1. Panthers show off the latest fads while they dance to "Freakazoid."
2. Even Santa gets into the groove of things.
3. Dee Love and James Brandt pose with Santa Claus.
4. Two Panthers demonstrate their latest dance steps.

Hard Work And Dedication Pay Off For Pantherettes

Drill team competition is a time for exciting challenges, meeting new people, sharing ideas, and having fun. Placing or winning is just as extra bonus.

The Pantherettes practice many hours before a competition so they can give their very best performance. Each girl is aware that while she is performing as a Pantherette, she is also representing a very large student body here at Jordan. They give their all to show off Jordan spirit and pride wherever they travel.

Hard work and dedication have paid off as the Pantherettes made Jordan history by winning a first place at the LaHabra Field Show Tournament in October. They repeated their outstanding performance again on a rainy night in November at the Norwalk Field Show, and came away with another first place.

Once football season ends, the indoor competitions begin. The girls compete at least once a month in various competitions in the area, but the highlight of the season is the Miss Drill Team USA/International pageant held in Los Angeles in February. Teams from all over the world come to share ideas and compete. Dana Cuartero competed individually this year.

Caleb & Castaneda Reign Over Sweetheart Dance

Jordan's Annual Sweetheart Dance was a big success. It was held in the gym on Saturday, February 11, 1984. All the dancers' faces were filled with smiles as they danced to four hours of their favorite music, supplied by Ken McCullom, the DJ for the night.

The biggest event of the evening was the announcement of the Sweetheart King and Queen. Carina Castaneda and Kenny Caleb won the prestigious titles of King and Queen. The Senior Prince and Princess were Robert Willis and Kim Morrow, the Junior Prince and Princess were Robert Growth and Angie Richardson, and the Sophomore Prince and Princess were Jeff Davis and Kari Cuartero.

Rallies Encourage Victory And Pride

Rallies were an exciting and special part of the 1983-84 school year. They got everyone involved in the enthusiasm of our Golden Anniversary. With great performances by Flag, Song, and Yell squads, the rallies really boosted the spirit of Jordan's teams. Pantherettes and Competition Squad were also a major part of the excitement and entertainment, and of course, the Band provided the inspiring rhythm and music for all the groups.

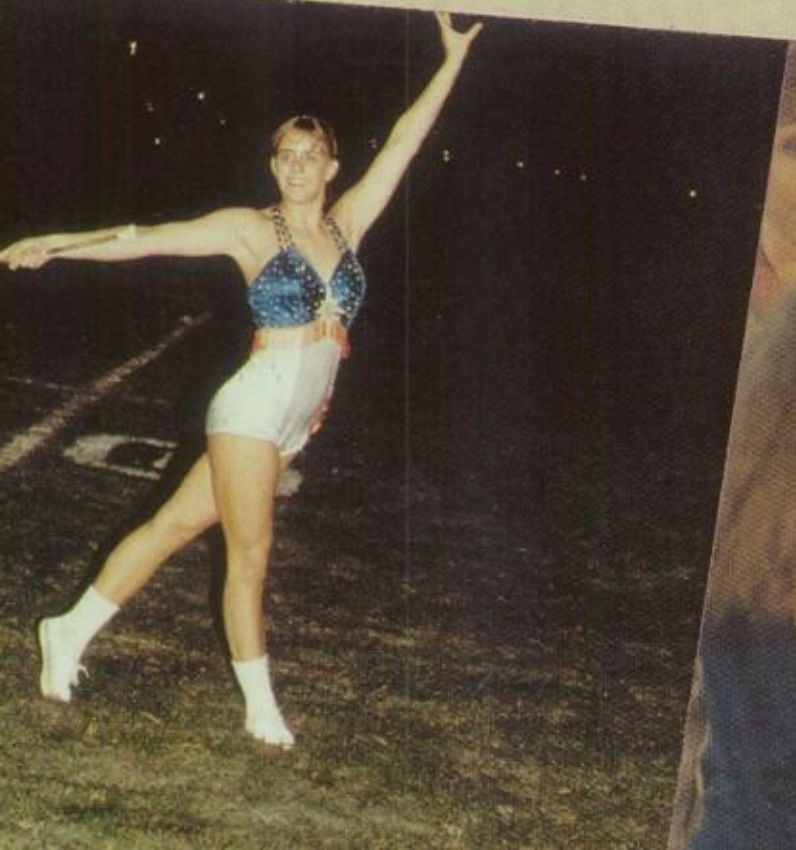

One of the most exciting parts of the rallies was the class competitions. Getting the whole school to cheer at one time isn't an easy job, but the pep squads did a terrific job of it. We are all proud of their efforts and thank them for building our Panther Pride.

Defense Leads The Way

Jordan's 1983 Varsity Football team had the best year of any Jordan football team since 1979, narrowly missing a C.I.F. playoff berth with a 6-0 loss to Compton in the season finale.

The most inspiring win of the season came against Millikan — 16-13. It marked the first time in 21 years that a Jordan football team has beaten Millikan. Most of the players were in tears, and Coach Hagey was in his glory.

The team named themselves "The Home Wreckers" when they ruined Millikan's and Wilson's homecomings with impressive victories.

Jordan's successes were sparked by superb performances by some outstanding athletes. Marcus Turner had an exceptional year. Whenever the big play was needed, Marcus was right there. Not only was he an outstanding receiver, he could also run with the ball. In the Rancho Alamitos game, he ran the ball two times for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Junior quarterback, John Marshall, also had a good year, finishing fourth in the league in passing. Leading the Panthers in rushing was junior fullback, Jock Thomas. Defensively Tony Lopez and Dennis Brown led the way, usually receiving 5 "Player of the Week" honors after each game.

Hopeful J.V.'s Find Disappointment

Jordan's 1983-84 Junior Varsity football team wound out the season with a 5-4-1 record. Head Coach Mike Ono said, "I had expected more victories, but the opponents played better than we did." The team took victories over Millikan, Bosco, Rancho Alamitos, Wilson, and Compton. The team placed fourth in the league. Assistant Coach Jim Mills and Manager Jon Faiello both stated that the team showed steady improvement throughout the season because of the continued determination of Andre Guidry, David Scoggins, Terrence Riely, Vendon Smith, Sammy Robledo, Art Ruiz, and Scott Parent. The coaches were very proud to be in charge of this year's J.V. team.

Sophomores Have A Great Season

Jordan's sophomore football team had a great season, placing second in the Moore League. Coach Fred Eden has been coaching for eight years and was very pleased with this year's team. With the help of M.V.P., Fred White, this year's sophomores were very strong. Sherman Moga was another powerful force on the team. The Sophomores finished the season with a 7-2 record with key wins over Culver City and Lakewood. Assistant coaches Ron Hamamoto and Doug Stewart completed the excellent coaching staff, and Manager Tim Hollins provided tremendous support.

Season In Balance For Volleyball

Although Jordan's Varsity Volleyball team had a somewhat disappointing season, they did have a number of high points. They were 9-7 overall with 5 wins and 5 losses in league play. Their most gratifying win was against Wilson, who up to that time had been undefeated and who ranked third in the entire southern section of the C.I.F.

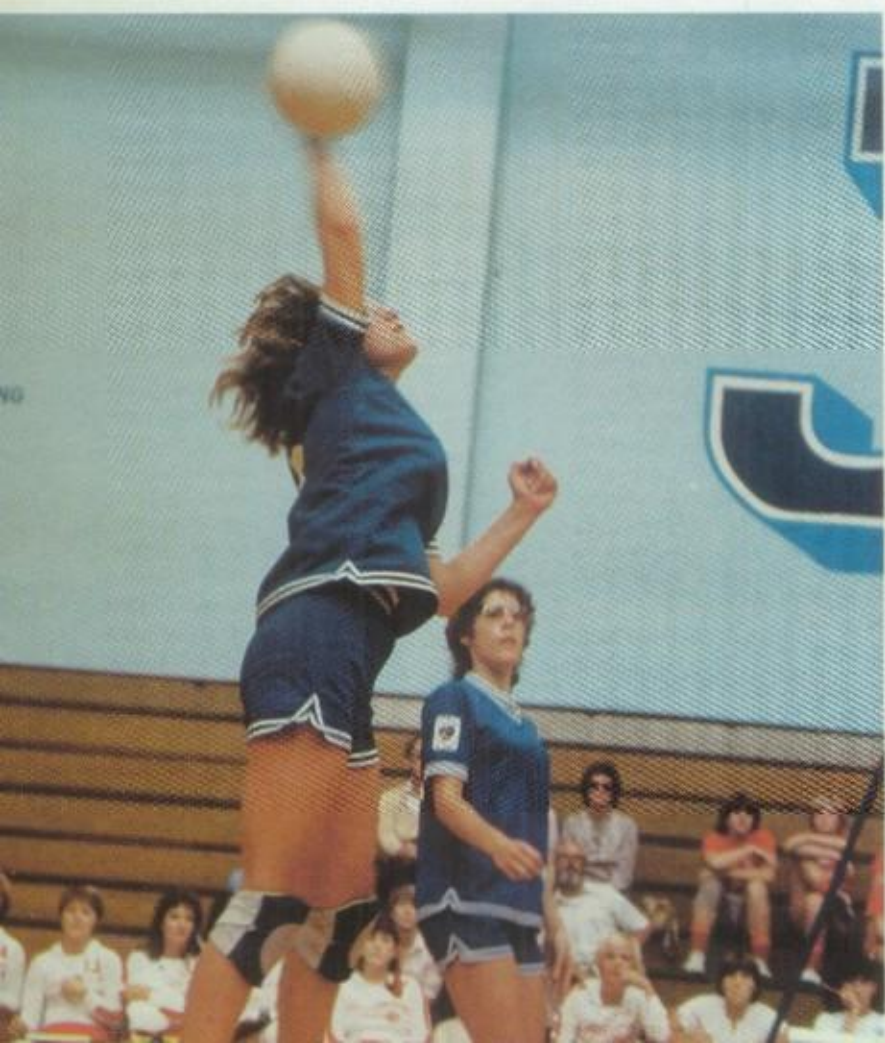

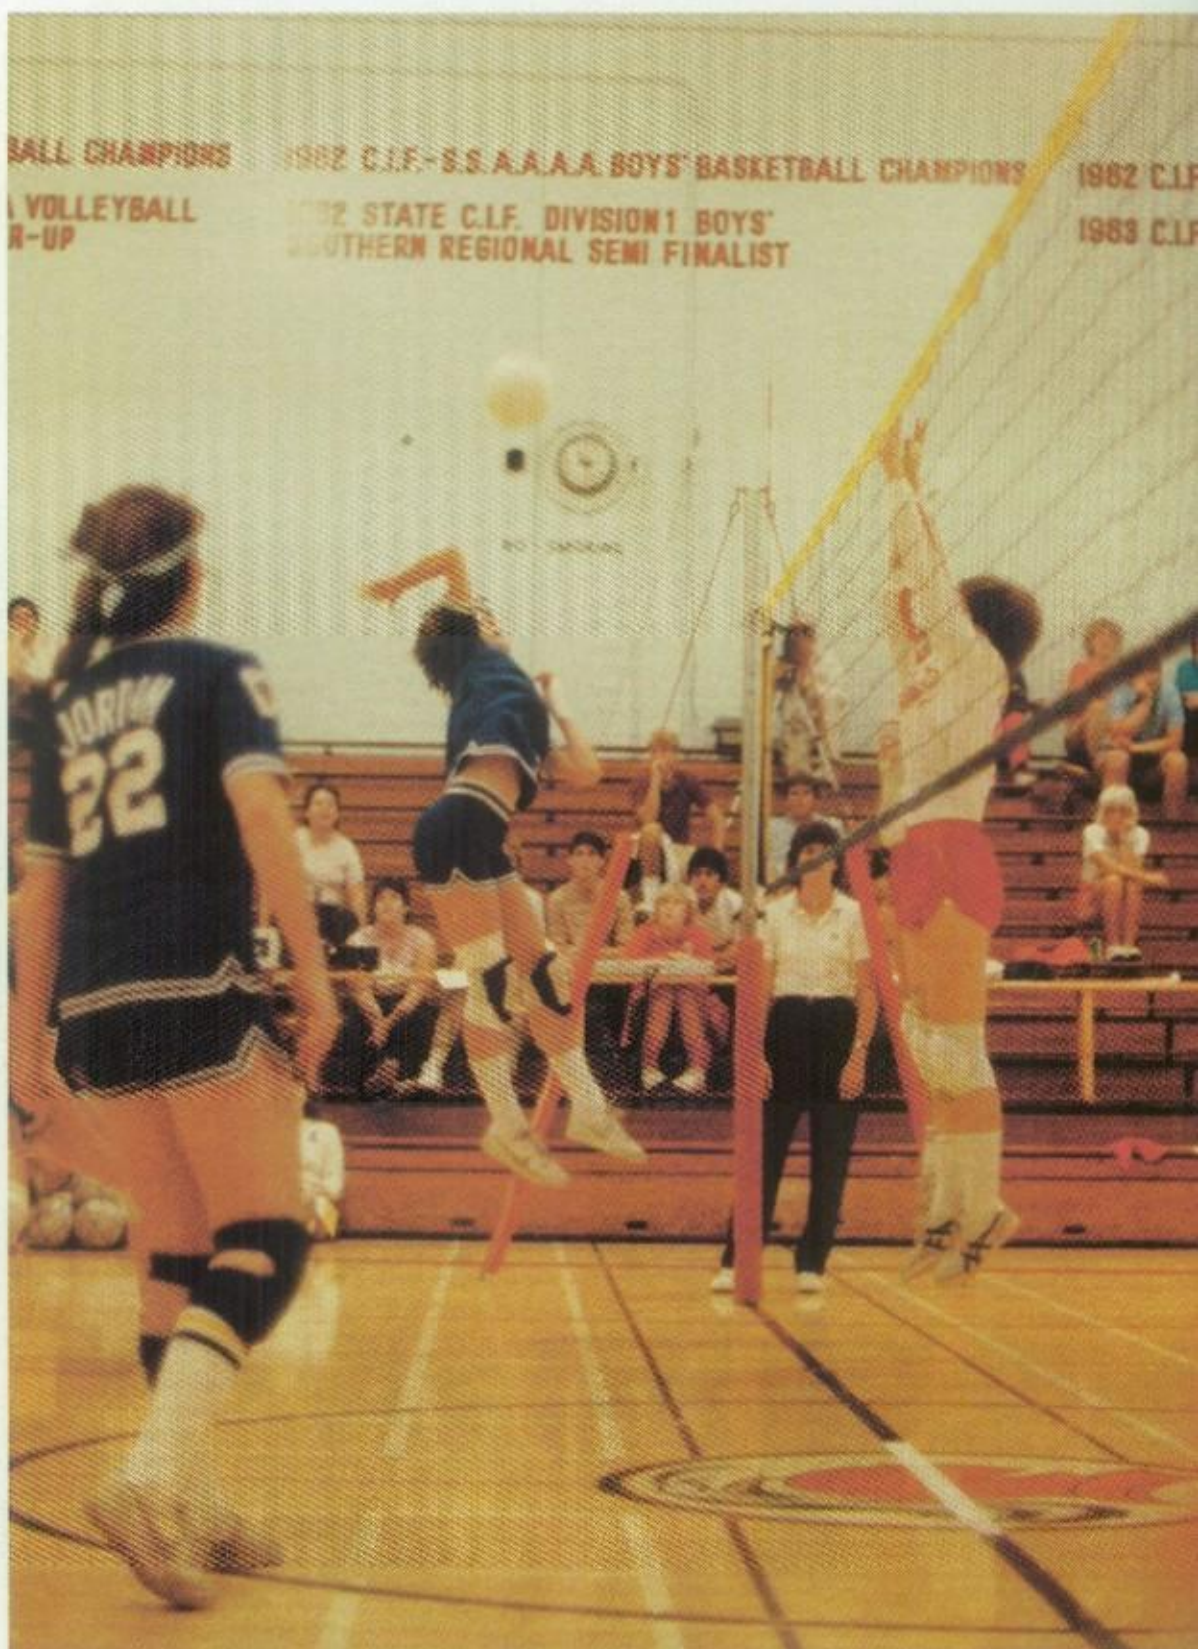

Jordan's Varsity Volleyball Team had five returning players this year but lacked spikers, according to Coach Joan White, who added, "One more spiker would have put Jordan in the playoffs." Mrs. White called Jordan's defense the best in the league. Debbie Valentovich and Colleen Hogue were named All-League Players, and Tina Castillo was an Honorable Mention.

The 1983-84 Panther J.V. Volleyball team finished their season third in the league, with a 6-4 record. This year's success was really a team effort, aided by five returning players. A highlight of the season was a third place in the El Camino Tournament.

Both teams were under the dedicated coaching of Mr. Lee Apel and Mrs. Joan White.

Cross Country Takes Speed & Endurance

A member of the Cross Country team must obviously be a good runner; in order to be a good runner, it takes the self-discipline to run many miles for conditioning, and it requires race experience. A cross country team consists of seven runners who run a 3-mile course. Although all seven members of the team run, only the top five finishers are scored.

This year's number one runners were Mike Haugen for Men's Varsity and Janice Quevedo for Women's Varsity. These two were also this year's most valuable runners. The most improved runners were Bill Bolton and Cynthia Devine, who were also the team's number two runners. Head Coach Barry Welch commented, "This year's runners were all very competitive." Since they were all juniors, the team shows promise for next fall.

Jordan Sends Six To League

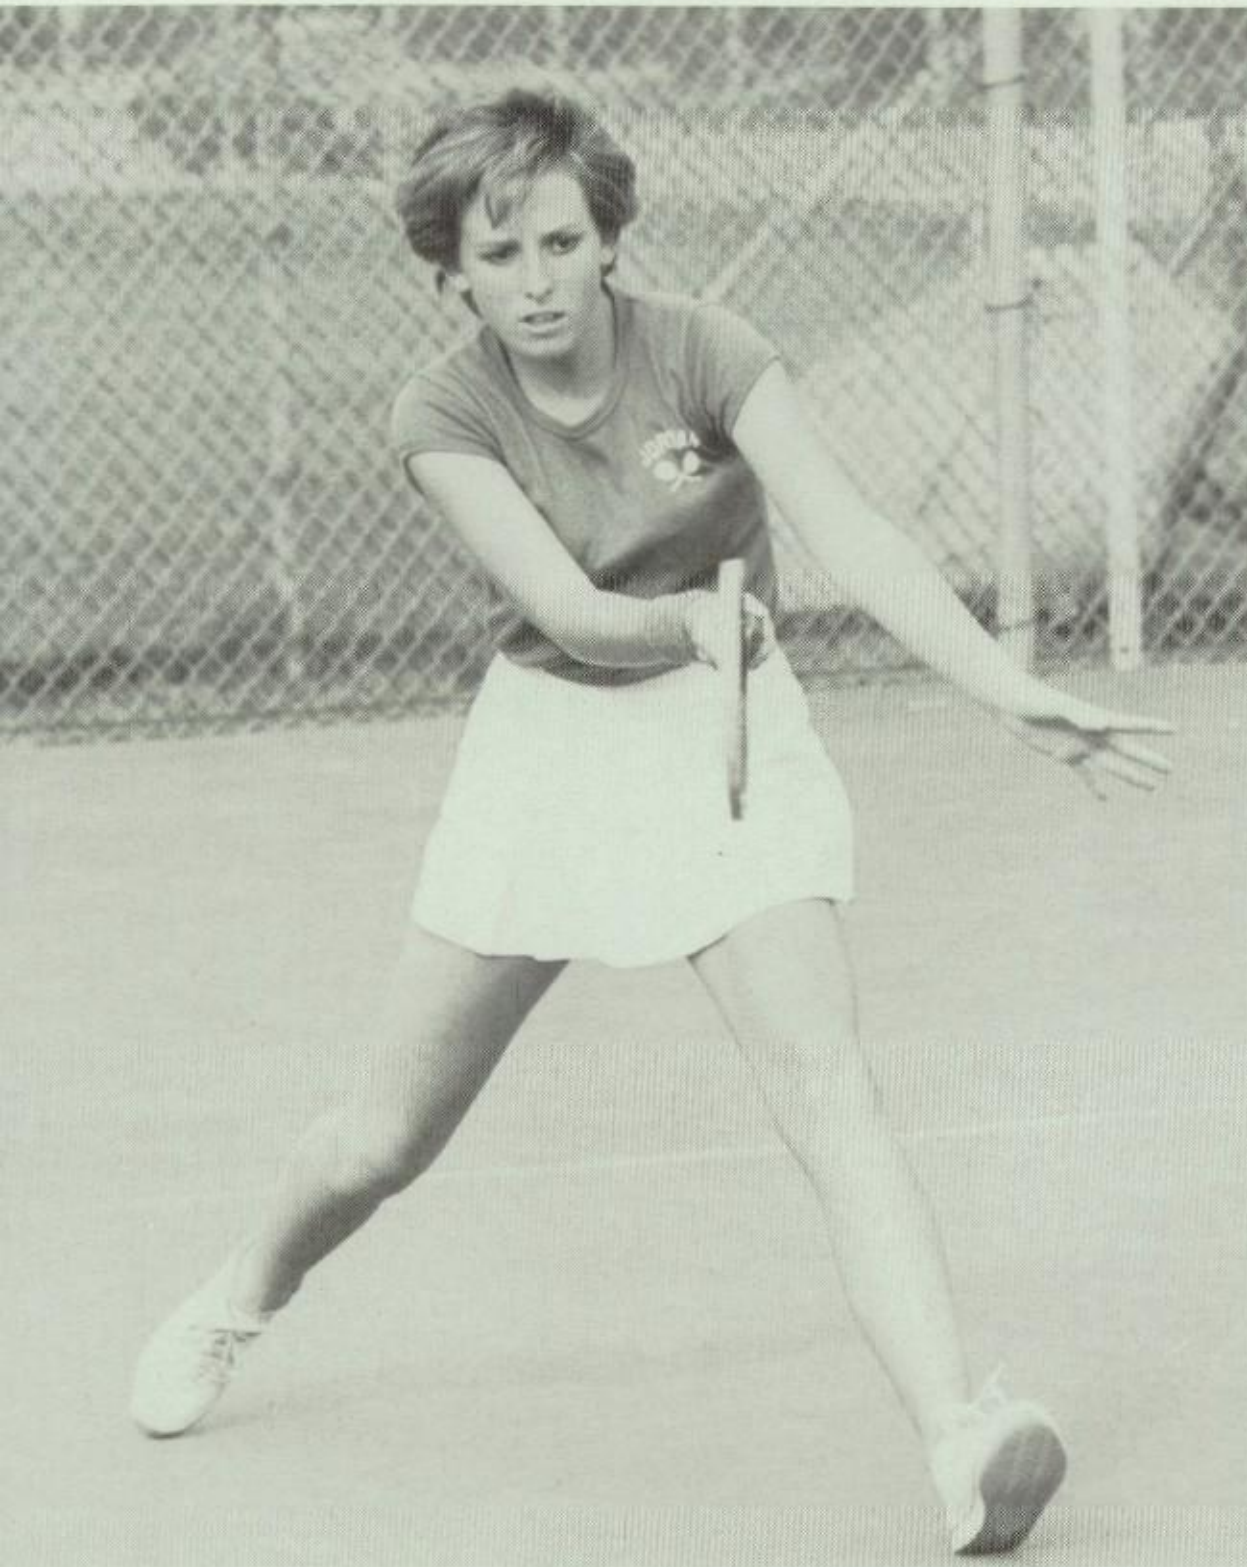

The Girls' Varsity Tennis team made a good showing this year. The team, with only four seniors and the rest sophomores, finished the season with a 4-6 record.

The Varsity was led by the all-league #3 seed, Buena Cayetano, who drew a tough Wilson opponent in the first round of the league tournament and was eliminated. Shaundra McMichael also drew a tough opponent and was eliminated in the first round.

Three doubles teams made it to the league tournament. McMichael and Cayetano teamed up in the most exciting match of the tournament only to lose to the number one team in the city. La Keisha Neal and Lisa Covington did well during the season, but drew a tough Wilson duo and lost in the first round. Martha Veyna and Jodie Harding also lost in the first round.

The J.V. Tennis team was also a predominantly sophomore team; however, their only two wins came by way of forfeits. Xoan Thai did very well in singles, and the doubles team of Diana Perez did exceptionally well.

Polo Players Experience The Thrill Of Victory And The Agony Of Defeat

Under the excellent coaching of Mr. Rich Peter, the varsity water polo team has improved vastly. The team finished the season with a 7-9 record. The coaching staff said, "The team has improved 500%." Jeff Witt and Sean Smith were very strong again this year. Mr. Greg Kautz also worked with the water polo players.

Grapplers Take It To Moore League Foes

This year Jordan's Varsity Wrestling team became a big threat in the Moore League. At the beginning of last year, the team was expected to be at the bottom; however, by the end of the season, they had placed an impressive third in league and third in the finals.

This year was also promising because of returning varsity lettermen Fernando Fuentes, John Ashby, Jim Chavez, Dave Jones, Victor Manley, Dave Scroggins, and John Foley. The team also improved a great deal with the able leadership of Head Coach Joe Zeller and assistant coaches Charles Gabarini and Mike Ono. Coach Zeller commented, "Wrestling is a sport of individuals. When you are out there on the mat by yourself, there is no one to help you but yourself." Leaders like David Jones and Dave Scroggins made this a great year for the wrestlers.

Boys' Soccer Loses Out To Grades

The boys' varsity soccer team started the year with wins at Mesrobian and Warren. However, the second half of the season didn't go as planned. Jordan's boys' soccer team was unable to finish the season because of grades.

"New state laws and a lack of dedication by some of our players forced the Moore League to drop us," said Coach Bruce Turner. Although the team had some good players left after the enforcement of the eligibility rules, there were not enough to continue the team. Team standouts were Richard Villaran, Fernando Murillo, and Juan Paier.

Girls' Soccer Plays Tough

The girls' soccer team had a very tough season. Because of their lack of experience, the team did not have very many victories. Most of the girls had not played together previously as had their opponents, who had participated in youth soccer together. Therefore, the Panthers did not know each other's strengths and weaknesses.

The girls' soccer team played well in difficult games. The league's toughest opponent was Lakewood, and the girls played well in their two meetings with the Lancers. But the most outstanding game was against the Wilson Bruins. Even though the Panthers were not victorious, Cindy Hunter stated that in this game, the girls really pulled together. The girls also had to battle the wind in their game against Poly. No matter where they kicked the ball, the wind determined where it would go.

Four of the girls stood out as possibles for the All League team: Rosario Valenzuela, Carmen Trujillo, Cynthia Devine, and Cindy Hunter. Hunter was the most experienced player on the team, having played for over ten years.

Male Gymnasts Mix Strength And Hard Work

A good male gymnast must have the proper strength to weight ratio, he must be strong but not heavy, and he must be daring and willing to work hard. Jordan's Boys' Gymnastics team had just such athletes this year.

Coach Jim Mills recognized outstanding efforts by Lance Martin, in floor exercise, Lyndon Cabellon on parallel bars and vault, Giovanni Duenas on the horizontal bar, David Gwennap on parallel bars, and Jose Gonzalez on rings. The most experienced members of the team were Lance Martin, Jose Gonzalez, Jose Zamora, and Erick Aguirre, who have been on the team for three years. Newcomers to the gymnastics team were Roy Williams, Ken Frierson, Ken Toves, Troy Perry, Jeff Davis, Bruce Banares, and Ruben Cazares. According to Coach Mills, Lyndon Cabellon, Ken Toves, and Troy Perry were the team's most promising members.

This year's team was strongest in parallel bars and high bar, but suffered from weaknesses in rings and pommel horse.

Girl Gymnasts Young & Determined

The 1984 Panther Girls' Gymnastics team improved greatly over last year's team. The team was much more experienced and motivated and there were many experienced girls.

In order to be on the gymnastics team, athletes must be in great shape, be well-conditioned, and most of all, be unafraid to learn new moves and try new stunts. This year's most outstanding competitors were Carol Cook in floor exercise, Kellie Edmondson on balance beam, and Pam Stone on parallel bars. The most improved gymnasts were Barbie Angelini and Helene Cavanaugh.

This was Ms. Karen Kane's second year as the team's coach. When Ms. Kane was asked which gymnast was most promising, she commented, "There wasn't any one girl; the whole team was promising. They were young and caught on fast." She added that the team's strongest event was floor exercise but that the Panthers worked toward being a well-balanced team in all events.

Massey Strives To Improve Program

The 1983-84 Boys' Varsity Basketball team has set a particular example for the entire basketball program. That trend is to develop hard working, well-disciplined, fundamentally sound student-athletes on all three levels.

This year's team captains were Robert Willis and Stephen Heard. "They led the team on and off the court," stated Coach Ron Massey. Robert Holt was their "Chairman of the Boards," leading the team in rebounding. James Corbitt, a junior starter, played great defense and had good court awareness.

Girls' Basketball Teams Show Promise

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team had a very successful season. They set the Moore League record for the most points by a team in a single game with 90 points. In addition, Kelly Craven set a Moore League record for most points by an individual with a stunning 42 points. Shaundra McMichael also set a Moore League record for career steals, and the list goes on and on. That's the kind of season it was for Girls' Varsity.

The Girls' Junior Varsity team had a good pre-season but fell off a little during league play. However, the team improved with every game. Led by Denise Foote, Sonja Foster, Yette Blackshear, and Wendy Thomas, the team had balanced scoring.

J.V.'s Build Into Fine Players

The 1983-84 Junior Varsity Basketball team worked hard to become C.I.F. contenders. Coach William Mitchell said, "My main concerns were preparing this group to join Massey's Varsity and to build a complete student-athlete who can handle himself in the classroom as well as on the court."

This year's team placed second in the Moore League because of outstanding players like Robert Groth, Charles Burnham, Bill Bene, Gerald Robinson, and team captain Chris McMichael.

Sophomores Become C.I.F. Hopefuls

The 1983-84 Sophomore Basketball team led the league with a 13 and 0 pre-season record. Coach Ron Hamamoto said, "The team's goal was to capture the C.I.F. title." Tyrone Howard and Jerry Cannon held better than a 10 point per game average. Other prominent players were Troy Stephens, Tyree Crayon, and Denard Wilson. The promise of this year's sophomores bodes well for future seasons on Junior Varsity and Varsity teams.

1. Stanford Williams jumps for a rebound.
2. Terrance Harvey waits for a rebound.
3. Cedric Nance lays it up.

Varsity Tennis Starts Strong

This year's Varsity Tennis team improved greatly over last year's standings in the Moore League, winning every match early in the season. Singles players were also stronger this year. The most prominent Varsity players were Richard Layon, Dung Le, and Hien Le. Coach Ralph Meinhardt commented that Richard Layon, an All-Moore League player from last year, was Jordan's most inspirational player.

"The 1984 Panther Tennis Team had the players it took to have a winning season," according to Coach Meinhardt. Millikan and Wilson provided the Panthers' strongest opposition, but the Panthers kept their strong tradition going despite the tough competition.

JV Tennis Showcases Ability

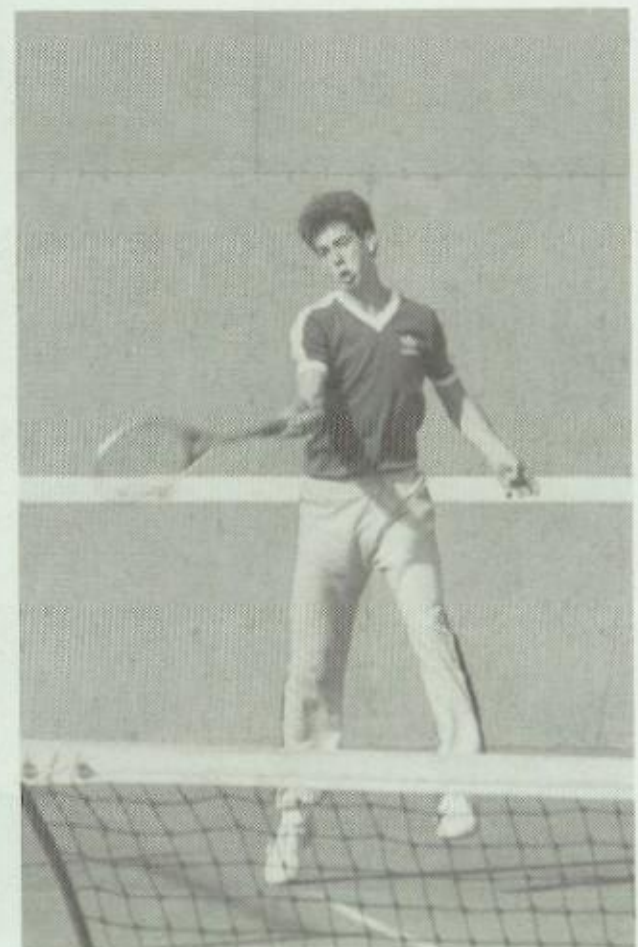

"This year's team had been playing very well and could be one of Jordan's best." That's what Coach Bob Cook had to say about the 1984 Junior Varsity Tennis team. At the time of this writing, the team was undefeated at 4 and 0.

The most prominent players on this year's team were Phu Tran, Eric Waldon, Labarach Leon, and Eric Pestano. Pestano played J.V. tennis last year and with that experience has become a fine player with an excellent, strong forehand. According to Coach Cook, the team's most inspirational player is Chris Wood.

The team is well-organized and plays extremely well. The only league competitor the team has difficulty with is Wilson. On predicting the team's season outcome this year, Coach Cook stated, "We should end the season tied for second place."

Varsity Track Makes A Comeback

This year the Varsity Track team had four returning lettermen. Marcus Turner, John Jones, Kenny Caleb, and John Foley returned to the squad with renewed dedication and spirit. Although the team had its difficulties, hard practice sessions and strenuous workouts helped the Panther track team make a magnificent comeback.

Fine efforts by sprinters Marcus Turner and Terrance Riley and distance runners David Jones and Mike Haugen spurred the rest of the athletes to success. Although the Girls' Varsity Track team lost several sprinters this year, they dedicated themselves to hard practice and had the determination to win. Even though they faced tough opponents, such as Millikan, Poly and Compton, Jordan had several athletes advancing to C.I.F. Competition.

Jordan's Junior Varsity and Sophomore Track teams had many promising members. Kirk Hakala, Keith Olson, Vendon Smith, and Tony Walker were just some of the athletes that made up the successful J.V. team. Outstanding athletes on the sophomore team were Dan Covarubias, Stanford Williams, Tyree Cravon, and Sherman Moga.

Although Compton, Millikan, and Poly provided heavy competition for our Panther track teams, our boys did extremely well. The trackmen worked very hard during practices and strove to better their times. Due partly to the efforts of five different coaches, the team succeeded in developing great skill in the many track and field events.

Mr. Benny Martinez Runs With Olympics In View

On Sunday, February 12, 1984, Mr. Benny Martinez, along with Mr. Hartzel Alpizar, Mr. Tom Clanton, and Mr. Barry Welsch, participated in the Long Beach Marathon. Mr. Martinez covered the 26-mile course in an impressive time of two hours and thirty-two minutes, placing seventh in the race. In order to qualify for the Olympic Track Team he needed a time of two hours and nineteen minutes. Mr. Martinez will run in the famous Boston Marathon, in which he may still qualify for the Olympic team.

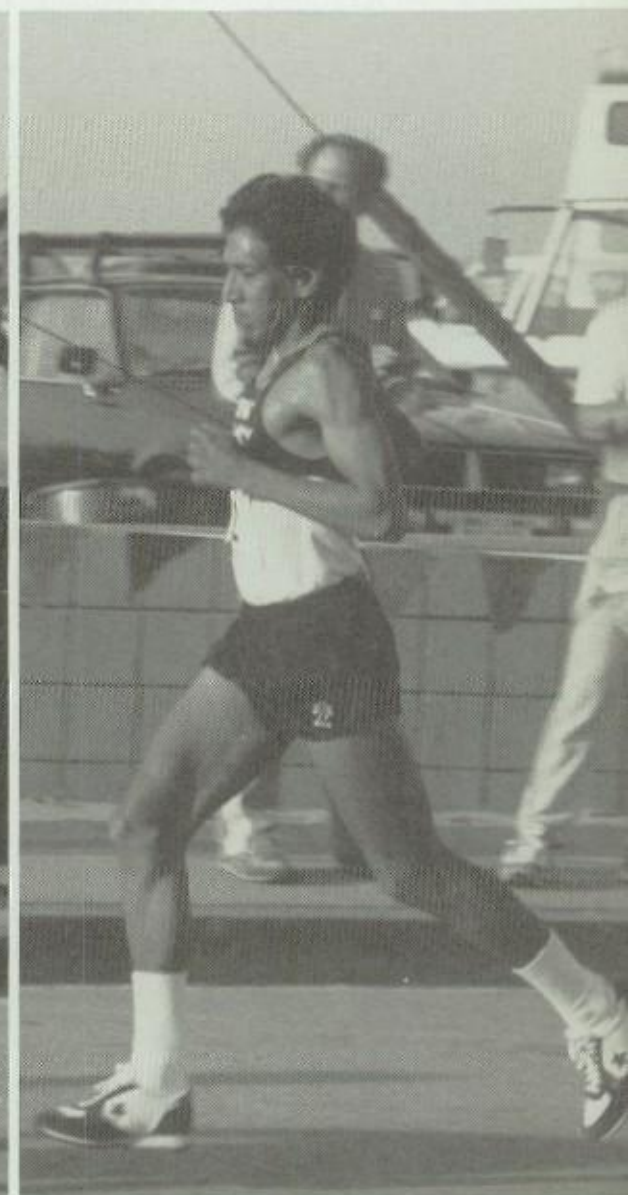

Mr. Martinez started running track in his sophomore year in high school, but he didn't really become a serious runner until he began training for cross country during his senior year. Mr. Martinez first qualified for the Olympic Track Team four years ago when he quit teaching full time in order to spend more time training. Since that time, he has run in the United States Olympic Trial marathon, the Fiesta Bowl Marathon, and the Long Beach Marathon, in which he has run three times.

In preparation for a marathon, Mr.

Martinez averages seventy-five miles a week for a year. An average week consists of running eight to ten miles, maintaining a seven-minute per mile pace on Sunday, Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. On Tuesdays, Mr. Martinez runs "intervals," a series of runs at a faster pace than one would run for a marathon. For example, he might run five one-mile repetitions at an average of 4:15 minutes per mile with a quarter-mile jog/rest between each mile. And on Saturday, Mr. Martinez runs one long run of 18 to 20 miles.

When asked what he thinks about while he's running, Mr. Martinez replied, "I think about what I have to do during the day. I think out problems that I have. I daydream about races I am planning to run, plotting out strategy. Sometimes I let go of tensions and just let my mind wander. Running can be very therapeutic."

All Panthers admire Mr. Martinez's talent and stamina and wish him all the best in his running career.

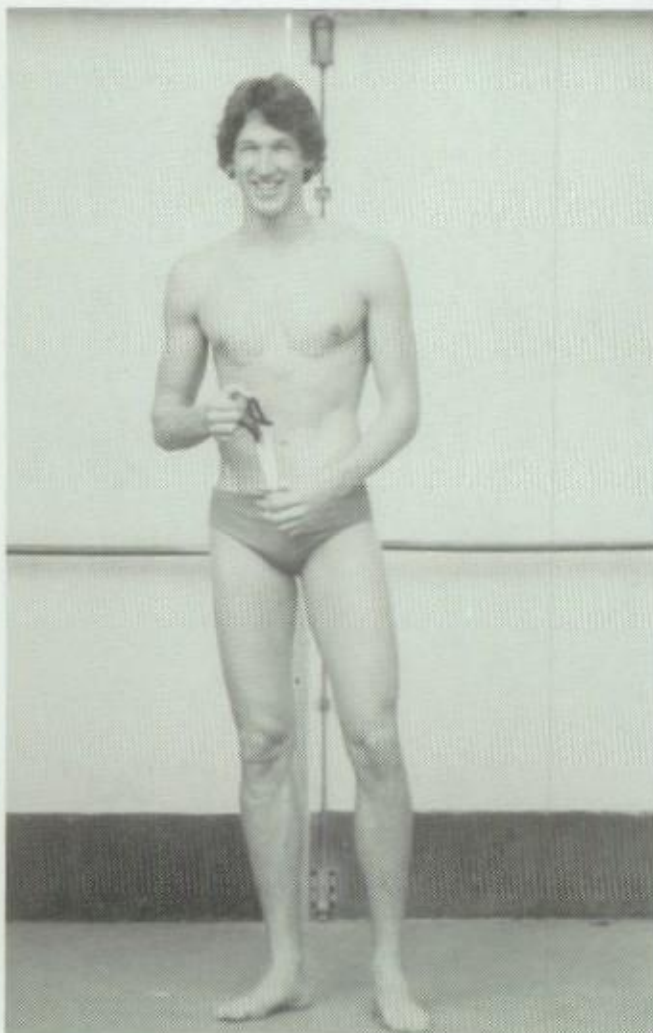

Swimmers Continue To Improve

Jordan's 1984 Boys' Swim team was outstanding. Swimmers with previous Panther experience continued to excel, and a talented group of sophomores will play a large part in the success of the Panther Swim team in the future.

Jeff Witt could be Jordan's first All-American swimmer. According to Coach Richard Peter, "Jeff is highly competitive and is a constant winner in his events who should take a first in Moore League finals. Coach Peter also praised Richard Bowen as the most competitive athlete he has ever coached. Rich holds the sophomore individual medley record and continued breaking the J.V. record meet after meet. Other prominent swimmers were Tom Taylor, Dave Wooten, Jeff Campbell, Adrian Gasparac, James Porter, and Scott Guiselman, with the 4-man relay team of Taylor, Campbell, Gasparac, and Wooten placing high in the Moore League finals.

Girls' Swimming Has Balanced Teams

This year's Girls' Swim Teams had a good balance of experienced swimmers and new talent, which helped build Jordan's girls' swim program. The girls all swam hard to improve their times and to improve Jordan's standing in the Moore League.

Both the Varsity and J.V. teams were made up of very enthusiastic, hardworking girls who proved their motto: "Dedication pays." Returning swimmers were Shelly Anderson, Sheila Foote, Jennifer Tansom, Mechelle Bush, and Cherie Blackwell. The 400 yard free style relay team, composed of Anderson, Bush, Foote, and Tansom was especially strong, and some of the girls have hopes of making college swim teams. The promising sophomore swimmers bode well for future Jordan swim teams. Varsity Coach Carol Lind and J.V. Coach Karen Kaufmann inspired the swimmers to success.

Varsity Softball Looks Forward To Playoffs

This year's Varsity Softball team was shooting for a spot in the playoffs for the third year in a row. The team was led by Debbie Valentovich and Suzanne McCloskey. McCloskey, playing a new position, progressed well at catcher.

Coach Joan White, going out on a limb, stated that she expected her team to make the play-offs and do well. Mrs. White also said that the better teams they faced in tournaments made them a much better team in the playoffs. They played such powers as Edison and Mayfair and did well against them. The Varsity's only possible weakness was the inexperience of the infield, which was anchored by two sophomores at first and third. Mrs. White also said that although the team could have been more aggressive, they worked hard when it counted.

J.V. Softball Faces Tough Competition

The Girls' J.V. Softball team, coached by Mr. Frank Kanarek, faced tough competition this year. As Coach Kanarek stated, "Wins were hard to come by because of the errors that were committed." But he also said that the team slowly reduced these errors and developed well. "Because of the inexperience of the team," he said, "any win we got was well earned."

The starting line-up was solid, and the team was very enthusiastic. The only areas in which the team had weaknesses were in pitching and power batting. At press time, the team was just beginning Moore League and was again facing tough opponents but looking forward to playing well.

1. J.V. Softball ROW 1: Sharmaine Bostick, Mercedes Diaz, Jennifer Katalinas, Rogena Gobble, Denise Dagley, Norma Diaz, Valerie Todd. ROW 2: Pamela Scott, Alberta Murphy, Rosario Valenzuela, Vicki Stanley, Julie Blevins, Angelica Arambula, Lori Piper. 2. Rogena Gobble works at home plate.
3. Coach Frank Kanarek enjoys his job.
4. Denise Dagley hurls a strike over the plate.
5. Jennifer Katalinas gets some wood on the ball.

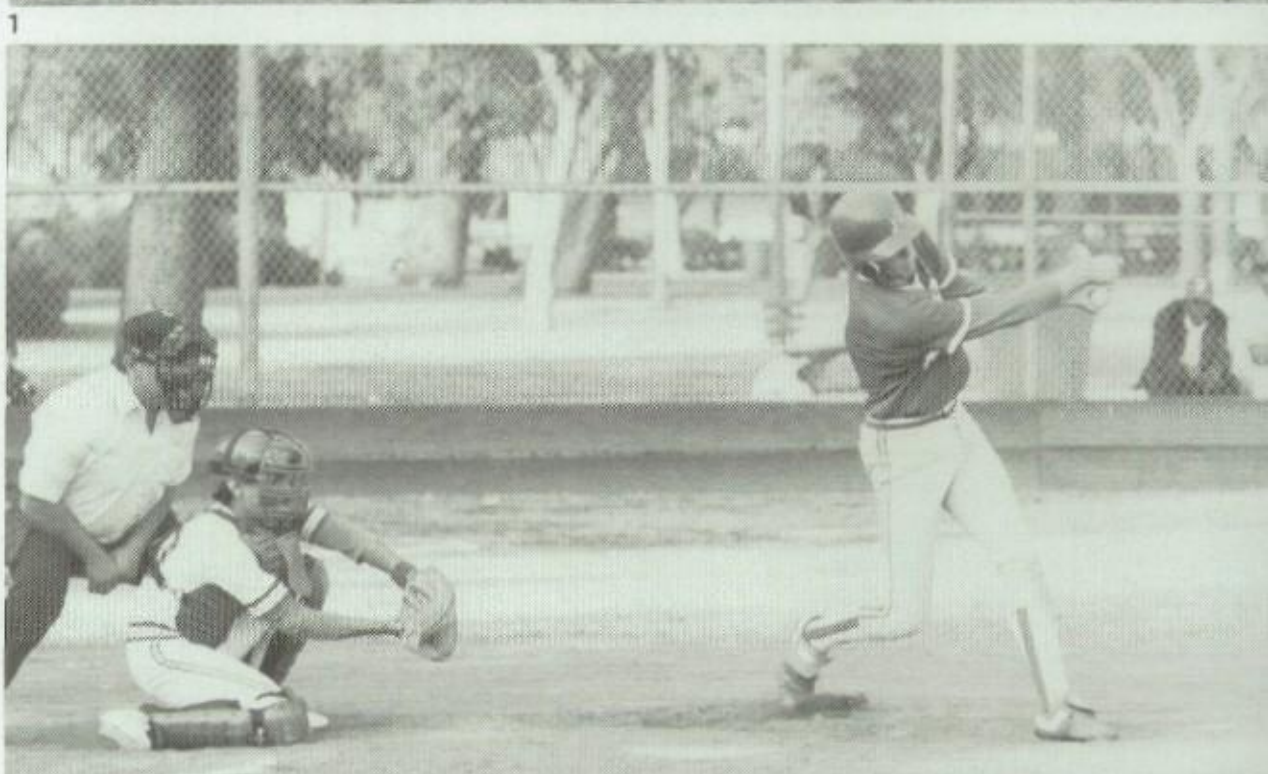

Varsity Baseball Shows Teamwork

Jordan's Varsity Baseball team, coached by Mr. Richard Greene, had high hopes for a successful season. At press time the team had completed three games with a 1 and 2 record. The win came against Pius X, with junior pitcher John Marshall hurling the entire game. In this game the team was led at the plate by Marshall and Raymond Easley, both of whom collected run-producing hits.

As Coach Greene stated, "The Varsity's desire and winning attitude could make the team successful. The team's strong points were pitching and defense, but the hitting could be the key to how well they finish. There were no key players," Coach Greene said, "It takes a total team effort to win."

Coach Greene also said that the Varsity should place very high in the Palos Verdes Tournament, with a possible first place, and they should also finish Moore League play with a C.I.F. playoff berth. The only team that had a possibility of spoiling this was Millikan, last year's C.I.F. 4-A champs.

2. John Marshall connects for a base hit.
3. Tommy Piarino makes a defensive play at the plate.
4. John Marshall gets ready to fire a strike.
5. Joe Woolfork come in to relieve.

J.V. Baseball In A Promising Season

The Jordan Junior Varsity Baseball team, coached by Mr. Jay Hagey, was looking forward to a very promising season. At press time, the team was just beginning Moore League play, and Coach Hagey had hopes for a promising league finish. Coach Hagey did not predict a finish because he did not know what the team could do; however, he did praise the team for their hard work.

The team is expected to be led by returning lettermen John Solomon, Darrell Sharpley, Mike Thompson, Randy Sims, John Shephard, and Robert Growth. Coach Hagey also expected good performances from sophomore pitchers, Fred White and Mike Cox.

Coach Hagey stated that the strengths of the team were pitching and the middle of the infield, but that the corners of the infield could possibly have problems. He also said that the outcome of the season could possibly depend on the performance and nerves of the young pitchers. According to Hagey, "If they do well, we will have a good season."

1. J.V. Baseball ROW 1: Jeff Mayhew, Mike Brown, John Contreras, Keith Huckaby, John Solomon, Mike Cox, Jesse Becerra, John Shephard. ROW 2: Robert Sanderson, Fred White, George Harris, Steve Pearson, Mike Thompson, Tracy Johnson, Darrell Sharpley, Randy Sims, Robert Growth, Nicky Landis.
2. Steve Pearson makes a base hit.
3. Coach Hagey sizes up the opposition.
4. Mike Brown is ready for the pitch.
5. Jeff Mayhew turns the corner at first.

Varsity Badminton Rebuilds Team

The Varsity Badminton team went through a season of reconstruction in 1984. Only two of last year's J.V. players came to the Varsity team this year.

Coach Harriet Sprague characterized this year's Varsity team as dedicated and hard-working. "They have improved a lot with the practice they've had," Coach Sprague added.

This year's outstanding players were Patrel Savant and Tina Robinson in singles, and in doubles Debbie Estrada and Barbara Martinez and Buena Cayetano and Felicia Singleton were outstanding. Buena Cavetano was also the team's most promising player.

The team's strongest Moore League opponents were Wilson and Millikan. "It's difficult to make a prediction about the season's outcome until we see the other teams," said Coach Sprague at press time. "I feel that we just may surprise some teams this year if we continue to improve."

2. Felicia Singleton and Buena Cayetano show their teamwork.
3. Patrel Savant demonstrates her singles skills.
4. Betty Stewart has her opponent's number.
5. Tina Robinson foils her opponent.

J.V. Badminton Challenges League

This year the Junior Varsity Badminton team showed much promise. The most outstanding members of this vibrant young team were Tena Castillo in singles and Sheri Stolze and Alberta Murphy in doubles. With dedication and hard work, the team was a challenge to their strongest opponents, Millikan and Wilson. Since the team is in a rebuilding stage this year, it was difficult for Coach Lori Lindahl to speculate on the team's season finish at press time. She said, "It all depends on the speed of our development."

1. J.V. Badminton ROW 1: Alethea Jared, Martha Veyna, Leann Ivens, Traci Walker, Gina Covington, Cathy En, Min Yi, Ethel Valencia, Xoan Thai. ROW 2: Dorith Fisher, Clytie Gaither, Adrian Markray, Tena Castillo, Coach Lorie Lindahl, Sheri Murphy, Shannon Spivey, Sheri Stolze, Lisa Marcotte.
2. Sheri Stolze makes a miraculous recovery.
3. Clytie Gaither goes after the birdie.
4. Adrian Markray moves quickly.

ACADEMICS

Dear Jordan Students,

A half century ago when Jordan High School opened its doors to its first students, no one could have predicted that so many able citizens and outstanding graduates would receive an excellent education. From Harvard professor James Q. Wilson to University of Arizona coach Darryl Rogers, Jordan has touched the lives of many. You have a proud heritage. We are counting on the students, parents, and staff at Jordan to build on this tradition of excellence during the next 50 years.

DuBois Knows Respect Yields The Best Results

1983-84 was Mr. Jack DuBois' third year as Jordan's principal, but his Panther history goes clear back to 1960, when he was here as an assistant principal for six years. Before that he taught social studies, English, and P.E. at Washington Jr. High, and after that he was an administrator at Stanford Jr. High, Poly, and Millikan.

Mr. DuBois remembers that seventeen years ago the Jordan campus looked much different, with about one-third of the classes being held in eighteen bungalows.

Although Mr. DuBois has known many students over the years, all of us can be proud that he likes being at Jordan more than any other school because he says, "There's no where that people are more appreciative and friendly than they are here." He adds that today's Jordan students are the best young people he has ever worked with. When asked to speculate on what future Panthers will be like, Mr. DuBois says he hopes that their attitudes will be as positive as those of the present students. That hope reflects his philosophy that if you like and respect yourself, you will get the best results.

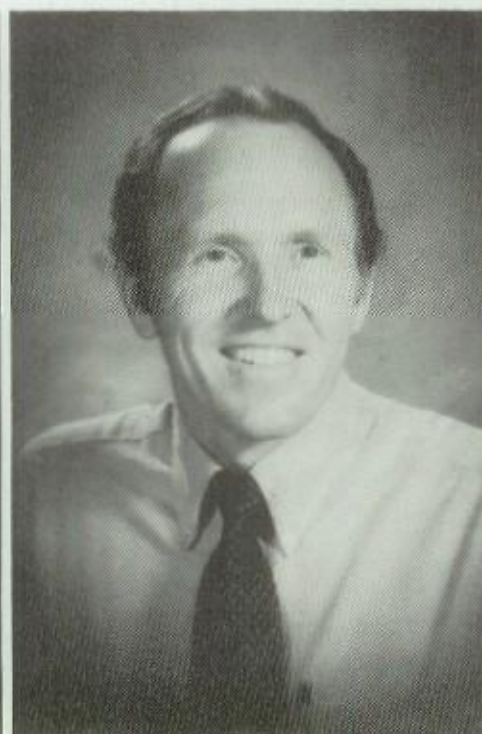

McCants Sees Promising Panther Future

Assistant Principal Mary McCants finished her third consecutive year at Jordan this year; however, she was also here in 1975 as a counselor. In addition, Mrs. McCants taught for six years at Stephens and Jefferson Junior Highs. Mrs. McCants says, "Even back in 1975, Jordan was the friendliest school I'd ever worked in." Mrs. McCants remembers quite a different campus at that time — there was no Media Center and no new shop building.

Mrs. McCants says she really enjoys working at Jordan because the students are friendly, not snobbish, and have respect for one another. Jordan is special to Mrs. McCants because "unlike other Long Beach schools, Jordan is self-maintained." Mrs. McCants also foresees an outstanding future for Jordan. As she says, "Within three years, Jordan will be prominent both athletically and scholastically. Once our school spirit reaches the top, we will be a very, very strong school, and I know we're well on our way." The enthusiasm and dedication Mrs. McCants shows to all Panthers and to Jordan will certainly help us to achieve her vision.

Miss Lamb today.

Lamb A True Panther

Miss Dolores Lamb is a real Panther, having been at Jordan for 24 years. Before teaching, Miss Lamb was in the Air Force. With the business experience she gained, Miss Lamb decided that she could do some good in helping students; as a result, she decided to become a counselor.

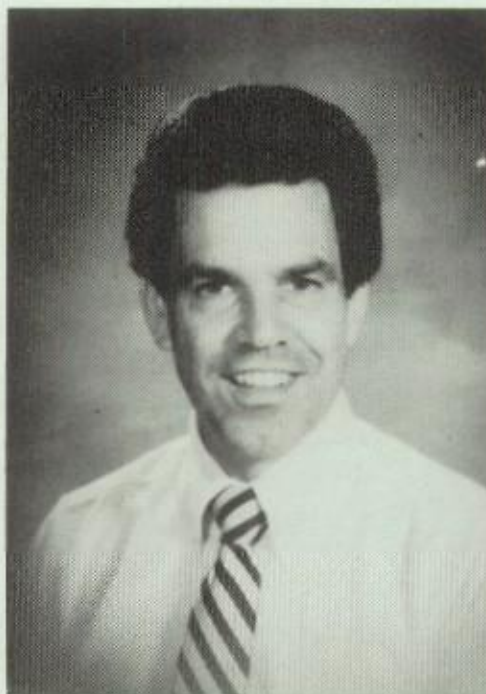

Miss Lamb remembers the old days at Jordan — the days of beehive hairdos for girls and slicked-back hair for boys, typical of the late '50's and early '60's. She also remembers the days when the site of the 950 building was occupied by wooden bungalows.

According to Miss Lamb, Jordan students have reflected changes in society, altering their attitudes as the world has changed. She believes Jordan students are extremely mature, considerate, and compassionate. To Miss Lamb the most important thing about Jordan is its students, and she is very impressed with Mr. DuBois and his innovations. Away from Jordan, Miss Lamb enjoys her house in the desert where she can indulge her other hobbies, golf and bridge.

Everyone who has worked with Miss Lamb over the years, whether as a counselee or as a colleague, knows her as a person who cares.

Price Loves Teaching

Miss Carolyn Price, an invaluable member of the Business Education Department, has been at Jordan for 15 years. Before becoming a teacher, Miss Price attended Cal State Long Beach and worked part time at St. Mary's Hospital as a medical secretary.

Miss Price enjoys teaching typing because she likes to see productive students become involved and get good jobs. "Because I teach in an elective area, I have few disciplinary problems," states Miss Price.

The Business Department is a very closely knit group, lending each other support in all areas. But Business is not all business; as a joke this year, Miss Price and Mrs. Drake toilet-papered Mr. Greene's room in revenge for his "constant harassment."

Miss Price says with pride that in 15 years, Jordan has changed from an apathetic school to a school that cares.

Kids Impress Greene

Mr. Richard Greene has taught in Long Beach for 25 years, including a stint at Avalon High on Catalina Island. However, Mr. Greene has been at Jordan for 14 years, teaching business law and typing and coaching baseball.

According to Mr. Greene, the school buildings at Jordan haven't changed a great deal in 14 years; about the only thing that has changed is the dress code, which, of course, means drastic changes in the way students dress.

Mr. Greene thinks that Jordan students today are very interested in representing the school in many varied areas. He states, "The interests and attitudes of today's students are impressive." Mr. Greene also feels that the students are the most special aspect of the school.

Outside of school, Mr. Greene enjoys playing golf and tennis and listening to music.

Tollstrup Also Learns

Mrs. Marie Tollstrup is an energetic woman who believes that "students can succeed to a greater degree if they are willing to commit themselves to a goal." In her classes, one can find students succeeding by being committed and by being driven by Mrs. Tollstrup. After 16 years of teaching at Jordan, she still finds teaching stimulating and exciting. "Whatever you give out in life, you get back. I learn from my students, and that's exciting to me."

Before coming to Jordan, Mrs. Tollstrup taught in parochial schools. Having taught in an all-white, Catholic, middle-class school, Mrs. Tollstrup finds the variety of people, thinking, and cultures at Jordan a refreshing change.

Mrs. Tollstrup is also the advisor of Jordan's literary magazine, Stylus, for the tenth year. When asked why she does all this excess work, she asked in reply, "Why does a woman have a baby?"

Fielding Takes Cake

Mrs. Lynn Fielding is the smiling, friendly lady who teaches Home Economics and health and who turned herself into a 50th Anniversary cake — complete with candles — for Homecoming!

The staff and "the really special students" make Mrs. Fielding happy to be at Jordan. In 1971 when she was given her choice of schools in which to start a Food Service Program, Mrs. Fielding asked to come here. "And I'm still glad I did," she adds. "Jordan students are great because they know who they are and where they're going."

After her mother died when Mrs. Fielding was still a teenager, she took Home Economics classes to learn how to take care of her family. Her teachers were so helpful that she decided to help others learn to take care of themselves too.

In her spare time, Mrs. Fielding collects cookbooks; rides motorcycles; collects mythical creatures, such as dragons and unicorns; and works with people who want to get well and stay well.

Lifshin Lauds Panthers

Mr. Jack Lifshin has been at Jordan for 17 years. He chose his fields, math, computers, and P.E., because "they just came easy." He too remembers changes in the look of Jordan, but he notes also changes in Jordan students, believing them to have become more cosmopolitan and integrated. He thinks today's students are also more motivated and that especially those in his computer classes are fun, bright, and self-directed. When Mr. Lifshin first came to Jordan, he says the school years seemed to drag on and on, but now they go too fast.

Mr. Lifshin has taught in other districts in both California and Illinois, but he thinks the Jordan teaching staff is the most cooperative he has worked with, especially in athletics. He says, "The coaching staff shares athletes, urging students to participate in all sports." He enjoys the athletes because they want to work and work hard.

McGregor Reminisces

Mrs. Sandra McGregor has been at Jordan since 1966; she was even a student-teacher here. Mrs. McGregor has taught English all of her 18 years here, specializing in Film Analysis since 1971. This was her first year as advisor to the yearbook.

According to Mrs. McGregor when she first arrived at Jordan, students weren't as diverse or tolerant as they are today — virtually the entire student body was composed of "hair girls" and "low riders." She laughs looking back on the days when girls got sent home to change clothes if their skirts didn't touch the floor when they knelt down and when boys' hair didn't dare come below their ear lobes.

Mrs. McGregor is delighted that the rest of Long Beach is finally noticing that important things are happening at Jordan and attributes Jordan's giant steps to students who want to succeed and to an extremely hard-working and dedicated staff.

Breskovich Dances

Mrs. Stephanie Breskovich has been here at Jordan for 13 years and has been involved with our annual dance show for most of that time. Mrs. Breskovich says, "I like working for the students. I get great satisfaction out of seeing people who have never danced before choreograph routines, teach them, and perform the routines after practicing from September to April. A lot of talent is out there; it just has to come to the surface." In the summer, Mrs. Breskovich takes dance lessons from famous dance teachers so that she can bring the steps back directly from those in the business to her students. Her famous teachers include Denon and Sayber Rawls, the choreographers for the film, "Stayin' Alive."

This year's dance show, "Puttin' on the Ritz" was the Jordan dancers and Mrs. Breskovich's very special way of celebrating our 50th anniversary.

Seals Looks Back

Mrs. Barbara Seals loves the French language and has taught French at all levels, from elementary school to L.B.C.C. Mrs. Seals has taught at Jordan twice, once from 1960 to 1962 and again since 1981. When she was here before, Mr. DuBois was a very helpful assistant principal, and she is delighted that he is here again.

Mrs. Seals is a warm, friendly lady who obviously likes people. She says, "I love the students here; even though my job isn't 100% easy, it's never boring, and I enjoy being with students." She also praises Jordan's friendly campus where everyone — students, teachers, and staff — gets along so well.

Mrs. Seals predicts that 50 years from now Jordan will be nearly the same because "people are people and they don't change much." However, she thinks that in the future, students may communicate more with their computers than with their teachers.

Sprague's Seen Change

Ms. Harriet Sprague has been teaching physical education at Jordan for 22 years. She chose that particular subject because she loves sports of all kinds, and she wanted to be involved with them. Her teaching career has also taken her to such varied places as Cincinnati, Ohio, and Japan.

Since Ms. Sprague has been here for quite some time, she has seen some changes on Jordan's campus, including the fences, the Media Center, and some new paint. She feels that Jordan's students comprise a representative cross-section of today's youth. When we asked Ms. Sprague what she thinks is special about Jordan, she replied, "Most of the students here appreciate anything you do for them, and the school is very well integrated."

Outside of school Ms. Sprague pursues a wide range of hobbies, which include camping; cooking; playing tennis, racquetball, and golf; listening to music; and fishing.

Rusty Here Longest

Mr. Iver Rustuen, "Rusty," has been at Jordan for 30 years — the longest of anyone on the faculty. When he started, only about one-half of the present buildings were here. He became interested in teaching metals when he was a machinist.

Mr. Rustuen believes that Jordan is a good school because of the many opportunities for students to prepare for the various vocations it offers and because of the cooperation between the students and staff. He also likes the students, most of whom are friendly, happy, and well adjusted and who show that they are concerned about their futures by getting an education and learning a trade.

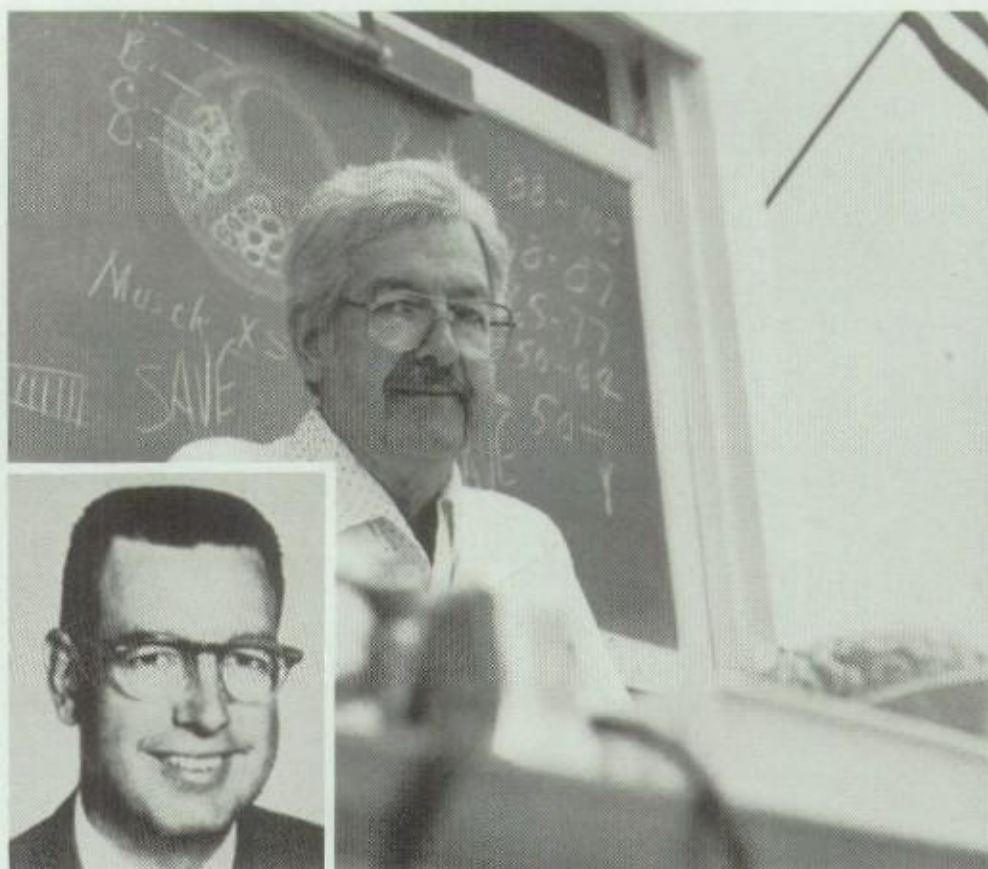

When Mr. Rustuen is not at school, he is busy at the fascinating hobby of restoring carousel horses. Mr. Rustuen also enjoys traveling and camping in the West. He adds that he hopes someday to visit the East Coast and Washington, D.C., again.

Stanley Thinks Back

Mr. Harold Stanley has been at Jordan for his entire teaching career, a whopping 30 years! He chose his field, anatomy, physiology, and human biology, because he is interested in medicine and life sciences.

In Mr. Stanley's early days at Jordan, the campus was quite different with many fewer buildings. He also remembers when there was nothing but a vacant field on the other side of Atlantic and all around the campus, which meant dust storms when the wind blew. He thinks that Jordan students today are much the same except that students in the past were more career-oriented than today's students are.

Away from school, Mr. Stanley works hard as a Shriner, sponsoring the Crippled Children's Hospital. He also enjoys traveling, working on his car, marine fishing and beach combing.

Brooks Keeps Learning

For eleven years, Mrs. Gail Brooks has been adding to Jordan what many think is our most outstanding quality: friendship. She teaches Parent and Child, Clothing Selection, and, for the first time this year, Career Guidance. She enjoys watching her students discover the meaning of responsibility through an exercise that substitutes eggs for babies.

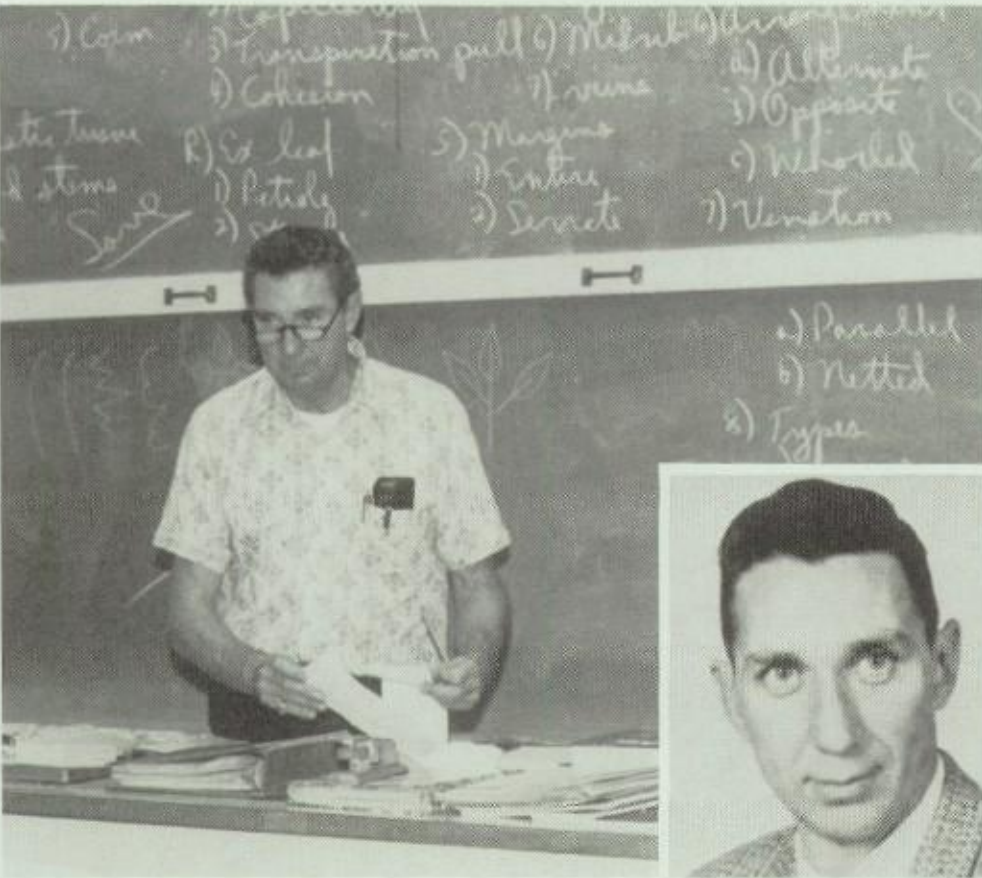

Mrs. Brooks doesn't think Jordan students have changed too much over the years; they're still as friendly as ever, but today's students, she says, are more interested in planning for their futures. She also believes Jordan kids to be special because they present themselves honestly, as they really are.

Mrs. Brooks's work doesn't stop at Jordan, however; she enjoys taking Saturday classes at Cal State Long Beach, studying where learning takes place in the brain. She hopes this study will help her to help her students more.

Blye Likes It Here

Mr. Frank Blye has been teaching biology and zoology at Jordan since 1959. He's never taught anywhere else because he says he likes it here. "The kids are basically good, and they're a lot of fun to teach." The feeling must be mutual because Mr. Blye's students say he's nice to be around and he's enthusiastic about his subject. No one who has ever been in his class will ever forget the famous (or is it infamous?) "Bird Test," for which they claim they had to learn more about birds than they ever wanted to know.

When he's not teaching students about the world's flora and fauna, Mr. Blye is off somewhere pursuing his hobbies: camping, fishing, shooting, and bowling.

Carty Is For People

Ms. Sarah Carty and her third period English class became celebrities this year because of the series of articles about them in the Press-Telegram. She agreed to the series because she wanted Jordan to get some attention and to show that teaching English is a tough job.

Ms. Carty believes that the video generation makes teaching English harder. "TV is a stupid person who doesn't listen to you." Although she feels that students are more academically oriented than when she first came to Jordan, she says it's still hard to get them to do homework.

The outgoing, enthusiastic Ms. Carty has very definite, positive ideas about Jordan and its students. Ms. Carty likes Jordan's cultural mixture. "Jordan is like the world — not narrow. Here," she says, "you feel you make a difference. The students have variety and warmth; they want teachers to care about them, and they have their priorities right: they want to love and be loved."

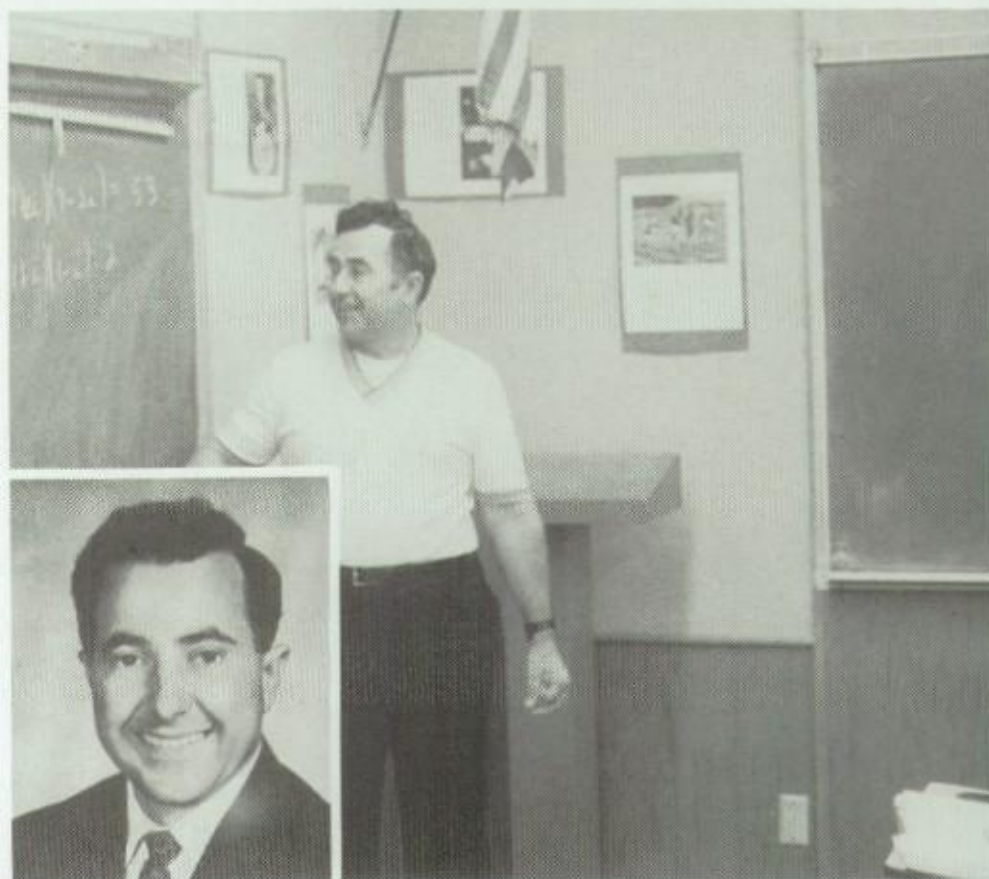

Jordan's "Mr. T"

Mr. Joe Tucciarone, better known as "Mr. T," has been teaching here at Jordan for twenty-one years. Mr. Tucciarone teaches trigonometry, algebra, and computer programming classes. When asked why he teaches these subjects, he simply replied, "I'm good at it."

Mr. Tucciarone remembers that when he first came to Jordan, the students weren't as outgoing as they are now, and the population wasn't as large. He also recalls that the bungalows were portable, made of wood, and infested with termites. Of course, the Media Center wasn't here either, and the old library was noisy and not nearly as nice.

When "Mr. T" isn't here at Jordan, he can be found at Long Beach Community College teaching night classes or maybe coaching some sport. The little time he has left for himself, he might "spend walking through the desert or maybe doing a little fishing here and there."

Anderson Shares

For the past eight years, Mrs. Frances Anderson has been giving her warmth and help to everyone at Jordan — both students and staff. Mrs. Anderson shares her enjoyment of American literature with her English classes and her journalistic experience with her journalism classes. She has been working on publications since she was the editor of the yearbook when she was in high school.

To Mrs. Anderson, Jordan is special because of the friendly attitude of the people and the way her students respond to what she teaches. She enjoys working with her students because they are cooperative, appreciative, and willing to learn.

Mrs. Anderson is so busy with both school and community activities that it's hard to imagine how she finds time for her hobbies: enjoying her grandchildren, knitting, reading, traveling, and relaxing at the family's mountain cabin.

Lucas Sparks Artists

Bouncy, energetic Ms. Sandy Lucas has been at Jordan since 1970. She enjoys teaching Advertising Art, Crafts, and Stage Crew because she loves making things with her hands. Her skill in communicating that love of creating things is apparent from the impressive displays of student art around campus and from the many awards her art students have received.

Ms. Lucas likes Jordan students because they have so many different interests and thinks Jordan is special because of the friendly atmosphere created by kids who get along so well and because the campus is so clean.

When she's away from Jordan, Ms. Lucas enjoys a great variety of hobbies. Her favorite pastime is reading, but she also talks enthusiastically about weaving, racquetball, air brushing, skiing, and making jewelry for gifts.

Goens Going Strong

Although many people at Jordan don't see Mr. Don Goens very frequently, this is his twentieth year on campus. As Jordan's Guidance Program teacher, Mr. Goens' schedule is different from most of ours.

It all started 15 years ago. Mr. Goens had taught Senior English for five years and was asked to start a program aimed at giving students with attendance problems the help they need to get them back on the track of coming to school on a regular basis. And the rest is history — the program is 70-75% effective.

Before coming to Jordan as a student-teacher, Mr. Goens taught English as a second language in Japan for eight years. Outside of school, Mr. Goens' hobbies are collecting and restoring antique clocks, listening to music, reading, and caring for 100 rose bushes!

Mills Looks To Future

Mr. Jim Mills has been at Jordan for 13 years. He coaches the gymnastics team because he was a successful competitor in high school and college himself, and he got interested in German while he was living and working in Switzerland.

He feels that the students now are much the same as they were when he came to Jordan but that "nowadays they have a keener interest in success in school." Mr. Mills predicts that in 50 years, Jordan will have 8th and 9th graders added and that instead of Period 7 athletics, there will only be after school sports, for which students will have to pay an extra fee. He also believes that in the future, students will be programmed into either a college-bound track or a vocational one.

Mr. Mills spends his non-Jordan time raising his two sons, jogging, surfing, and skiing.

Johnson For Openness

Mrs. Teledo Johnson is a warm, friendly lady with a great sense of humor who has been at Jordan for five years. She is a real Long Beach veteran, having taught the previous eleven years at Stephens Junior High.

Originally Mrs. Johnson wanted to be a nurse like her mother, but her mother convinced her to teach instead. Now she realizes that her mother was right because Mrs. Johnson says she hates the sight of blood.

Mrs. Johnson thinks Jordan students are very special because they are less hypocritical and more open than most students. She says, "The sophisticated aura that exists with students on some campuses hasn't tarnished Jordan students yet." In the five years she's been here, she thinks that students have become more aware of what is expected of them and more willing to take responsibility; as a result, they get better grades.

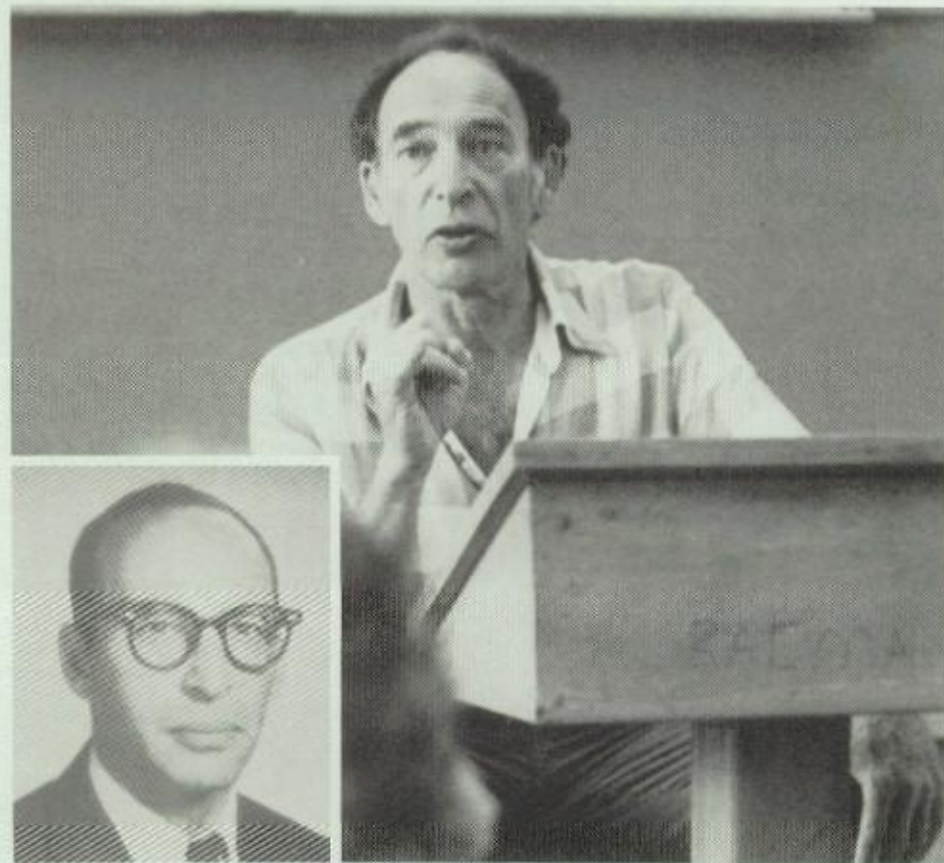

Kalman Is A Traveler

Mr. Robert Kalman has been at Jordan for most of the years since 1960. In 1970, however, he was awarded a prestigious Fulbright Scholarship and spent a year and a half at the University of London doing research in sociology. After his return from England, Mr. Kalman taught at Lakewood for a year but then came back to Jordan where he prefers to teach.

One of Mr. Kalman's former students is Mr. Jim Keck, whom Mr. Kalman remembers as "a nice, serious student, who was very academically and athletically oriented."

An avid traveler, Mr. Kalman tries to travel outside the United States every year. He has been everywhere — the Soviet Union, Europe, Australia, Panama, Indonesia — but he always loves to return to London for "the world's greatest theater."

Hohri Keeps In Touch

Mr. Takuo Hohri has been at Jordan for 21 years, teaching a subject he loves — photography. Before he came to Jordan, Mr. Hohri taught for six years at Poly and for one year at California High in Whittier.

To Mr. Hohri the special thing about Jordan is the fine people who have been in his classes over the years. He cites Dennis Schwartz, student body president in 1970, as a prime example. Mr. Hohri still keeps in touch with Dennis. Another of Mr. Hohri's former students, David Henry, has a national and an international reputation, as the best known person in the photography industry, selling camera equipment world-wide.

Mr. Hohri's hobbies are gardening, investing, and, of course, photography. He took one of his favorite pictures at a college basketball game. The way his flash caught the eyes of a crowd around a coach arguing with the scorekeeper really caught the emotion of the moment.

Former Jordan Grads Now Teach Here

Did you ever wonder what it would be like to be a teacher at Jordan? Former Jordan students, Mr. Bob Cook, Mr. Jay Hagey, Mr. Jim Keck, Mrs. Kathy Lipold, Mr. Bruce Turner, and Mr. Barry Welsch know exactly what it is like. They were all active Jordan students who became active Jordan teachers.

Mr. Bob Cook, Class of '52, was always busy as a student. He was Class Librarian; a Letterman; a singer in Boys' Glee; and in Hi-Y, a Y.M.C.A.-affiliated club which was very active at Jordan. His participation in basketball and baseball foreshadowed his career as a P.E. teacher. The favorite Jordan hang-out in those days was the Clock Drive-In, where Mr. Cook says he went for deep dish apple pie at least once a week.

A 1954 graduate, Mr. Jay Hagey was also very active in student activities. He was Student Body Judge, president of the Future Teachers of America and Boys' League, a member of C.S.F. and Key Club, and on both the varsity basketball and football teams. Mr. Hagey fondly remembers hanging out in the lunch area, sitting on the tables that used to be there. It's hard for Mr. Hagey to see changes in Jordan students. He says, "The changes are so gradual that I don't notice them. It's like watching my own kids grow up."

Mr. Jim Keck's activities before he graduated in 1964 helped prepare him to be our activities specialist. He was Student Body President and a member of the Canteen, what Mr. Cook knew as Hi-Y. He also played J.V. and Varsity football and ran Varsity track. He was happy to come back to Jordan, first as a track coach and later to lead Student Council.

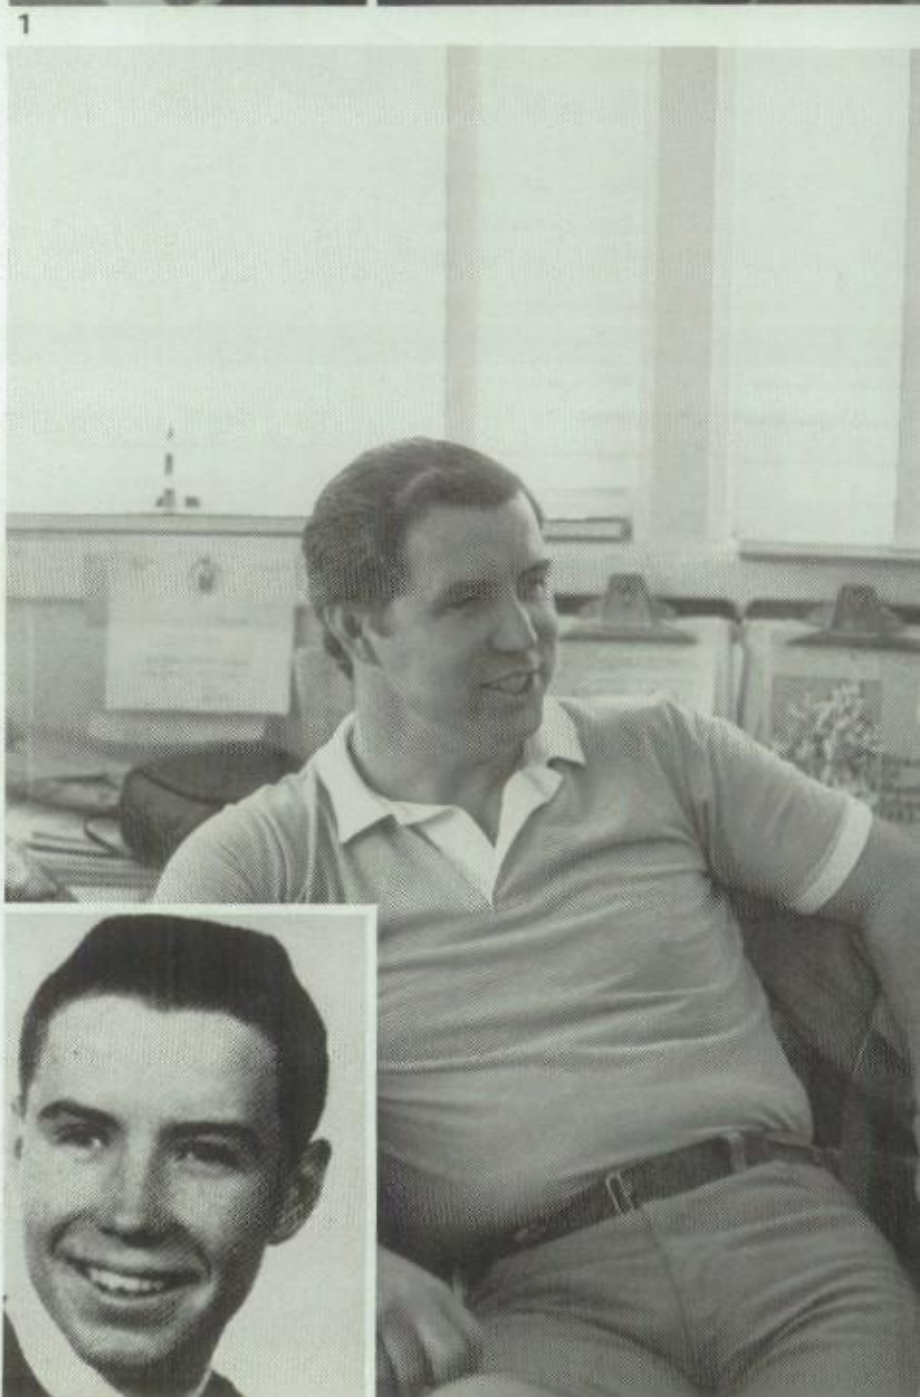

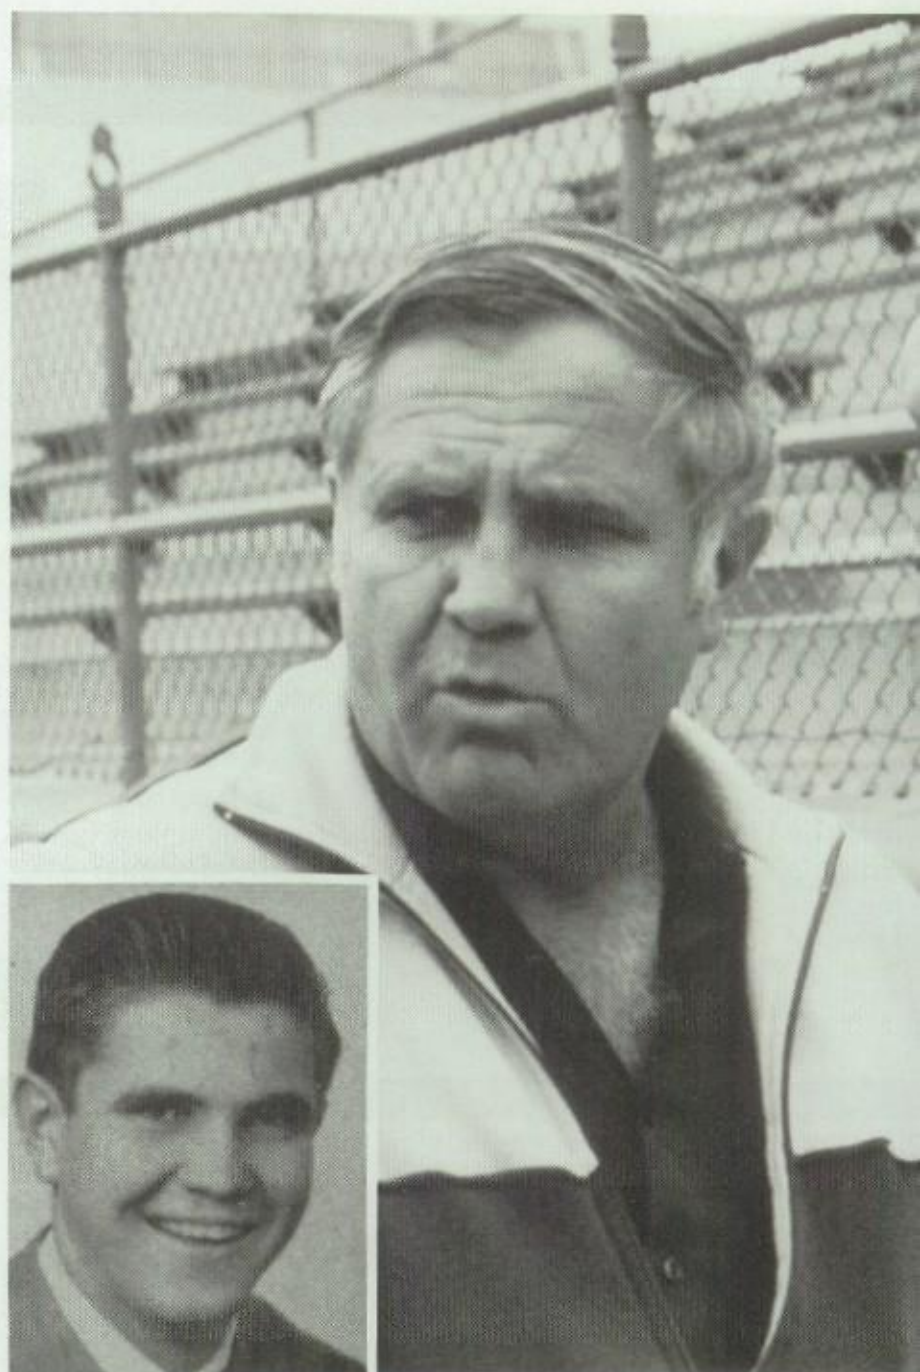

Mr. Bruce Turner was a classmate of Mr. Keck, graduating in 1964. He too was heavily involved in school activities — Casaba, Canteen, House and Senate, and Boys' League. An athlete, Mr. Turner was a Varsity basketball player. Now he teaches Electronics and coaches soccer.

Before his graduation in 1974, Mr. Barry Welsch was active in Jordan athletics as a member of the J Club and Lettermen's Club and a track and cross country runner. He liked the idea of returning to Jordan as a teacher. Although he doesn't see many changes in the students, he does see an improvement in school spirit, which he attributes to Mr. DuBois.

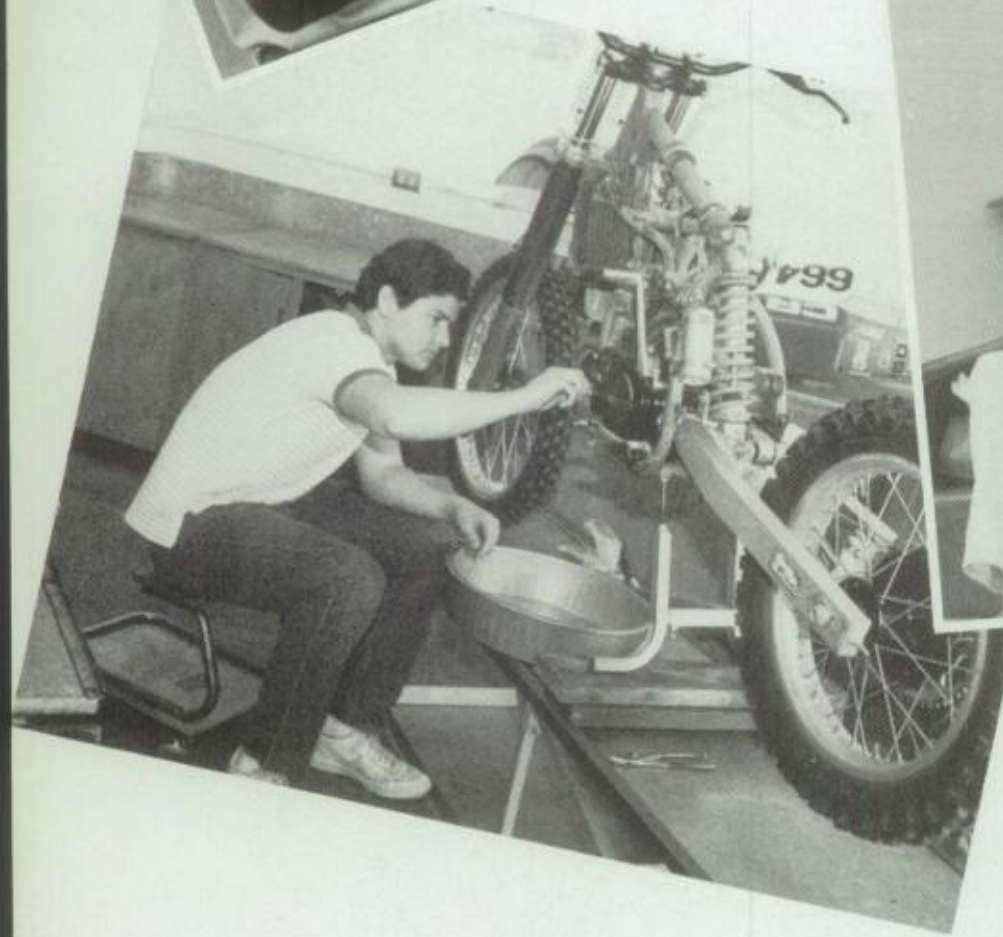

Mrs. Kathy Lipold, a 1975 graduate, remembers long hair, bell-bottom pants, and that everyone had a souped-up car when she was a Panther. She and the other Pepsters hung out at the Round Table. She feels very lucky and thankful to be back at Jordan with her former teachers as colleagues.

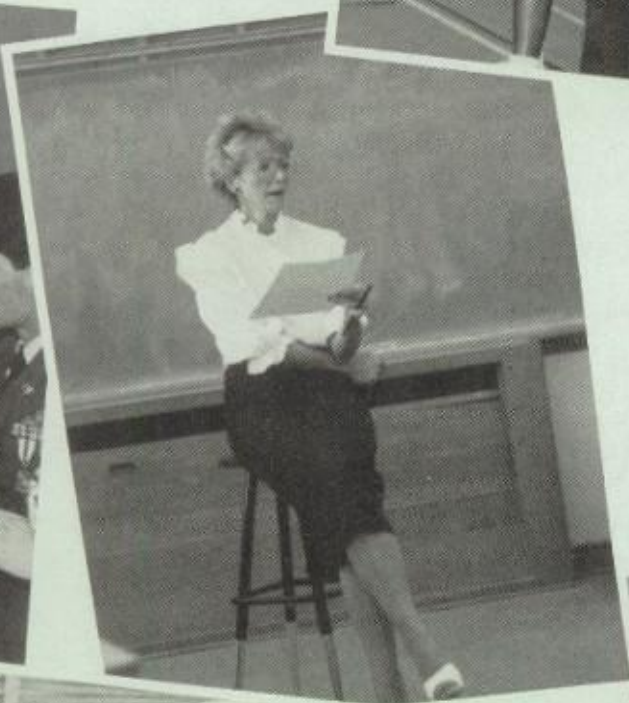

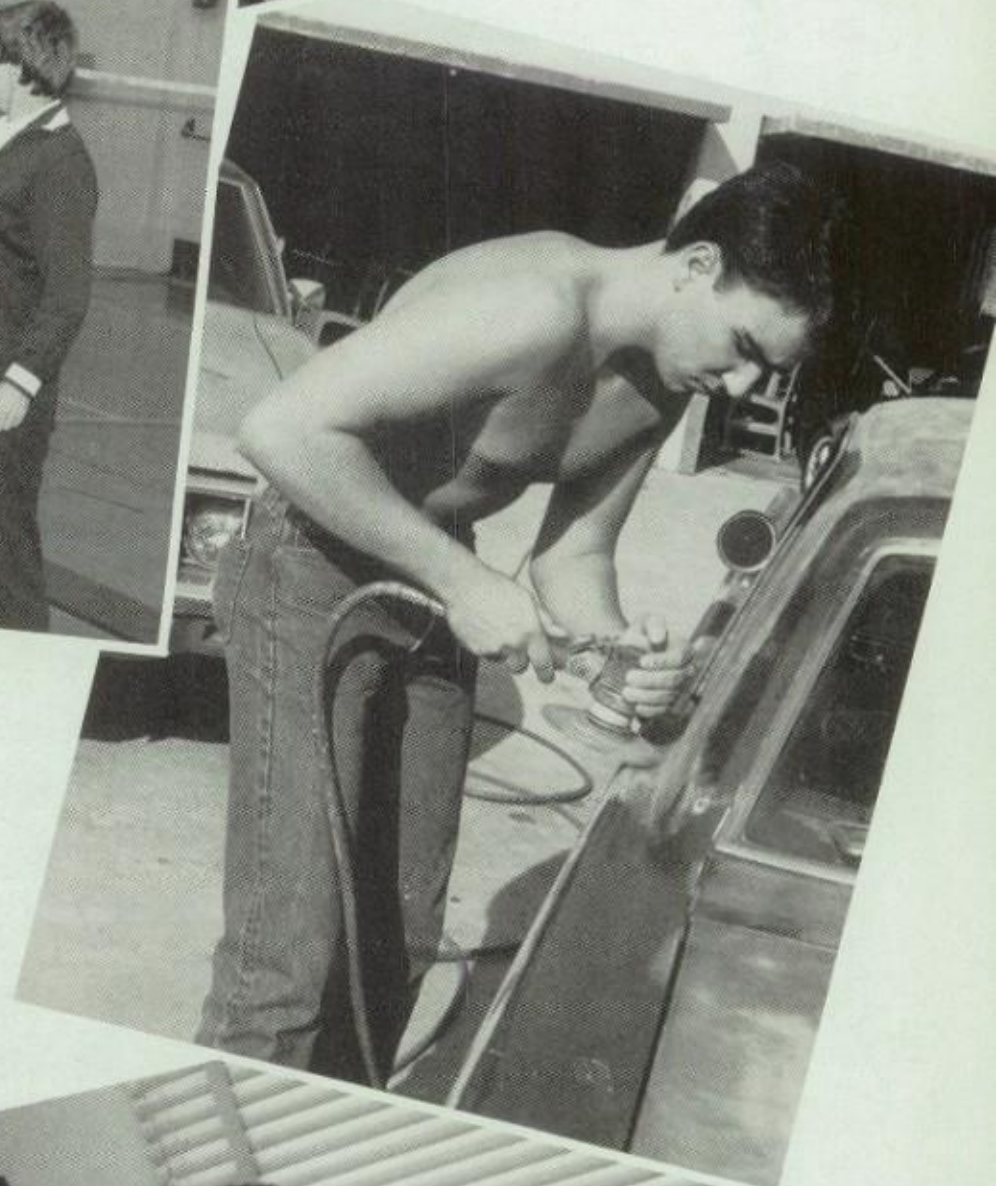

Who knows how many of today's Panthers will be back as tomorrow's teachers?

1. Mr. Bob Cook now and in 1952.
2. Mr. Bruce Turner's smile hasn't changed since 1964.
3. Mr. Jay Hagey looked much more serious in 1954.
4. The Jim Keck of 1964 and the Jim Keck of 1984.
5. Mr. Barry Welsch hasn't changed a bit in ten years.
6. Mrs. Kathy Lipold looks even younger now than she did in 1975.

Darryl Rogers, '52, Named LB's Honor Grad

Each year one alumnus from all the Long Beach high schools is selected to be the Honor Graduate for the district. This year's Honor Graduate was chosen from Jordan's Class of 1952. He is Darryl Rogers, Head Football Coach at Arizona State University.

During his high school career here at Jordan, Darryl Rogers was an active and above average student. He was a member of CSF, Varsity Basketball, Varsity Track, and was also vice president of Boys' League. However, by far Darryl Rogers' most impressive accomplishments at Jordan occurred on the football field. He was a member of the Varsity Football team and was chosen for the All-City and All-Coast League teams and was an All-CIF end.

Coach Robert Cook was a very good friend of Rogers during high school. They spent a lot of time at each other's houses and "hung out" together. Rogers was also best man at Mr. Cook's wedding. They attended LBCC together for two years and still keep in touch.

After leaving Long Beach, Darryl Rogers attended Fresno State University and served in the Marines. Rogers has been a head football coach since 1965. He has coached at Hayward, Fresno, San Jose, Michigan, and Arizona State Universities. At the beginning of the 1983 football season, Rogers' coaching record was 118 wins, 74 losses, and 6 ties. Darryl Rogers has also received the Big 10 Conference Coach of the Year Award in 1977, the National Coach of the Year award from the respected Sporting News in 1978, and the Fresno State University Distinguished Alumnus Award in May, 1979.

Present Panthers can take real Panther pride in Darryl Rogers accomplishments.

1. Darryl Rogers in 1952.
2. Mr. Darryl Rogers today.
3. Panther Darryl Rogers, All-CIF End, 1952.
4. Coach Rogers with Arizona State Players in 1983.

AP English, Honors Physiology Offer Challenge

Advanced Placement English is an intensive course that deals primarily with literature and composition. The small group of students enrolled in the class are prepping for the AP exam, which, if passed, fulfills the English requirement for freshmen at most colleges.

These 14 people are not the average bookworm type. Besides their college prep schedules, these hyper students are involved with activities such as cheer, ROTC, baseball, volleyball, student council, tennis, Trailblazer, Stylus, and a wide variety of clubs.

Although the class is primarily concerned with the classics of literature, you can hear the latest nighttime soap opera plots discussed as part of the reading of the daily bulletin.

This is the first year Mrs. Susan Starbuck has taught AP English. Although planning new lessons and attending special AP conferences have taken their share of Mrs. Starbuck's time, she still finds it rewarding. After having her house toilet-papered by students Steve Van Antwerp, Dana Schuler, and Greg Davis (whom she calls "the iambic elves" after a poetry term), Mrs. Starbuck says she felt much more at home with the class.

This was the first year that Hon- ors Anatomy and Physiology was offered at Jordan, and only a handful of students elected the demanding course, which is new, but familiar to Mr. Harold Stanley, who has taught Anatomy and Physiology in the past.

The major differences in the Honors class are that it is held as a zero period, includes outside research projects, requires more lab work, and has a higher grading scale.

A few of the academic activities of the course included notetaking, research, experiments, microscopic analysis, and, most enjoyable of all, cat dissecting. The cats are raised in special farms for this purpose, and since their anatomy is similar to ours, they are dissected and studied in detail to give students a broader understanding of the human body and its functions.

The students enjoyed their early class, and the hectic 7:00 AM tardy bell didn't dampen their spirits. To compensate for lost time, many of them devoured a doughnut or two during class, and some even arrived in robes with their hair in curlers.

The class involved many hours of work in and out of class, but the students found time to name the anatomical models Mr. Skeleton and Miss Digestive System. Rumor has it that the two are dating.

ROP Courses Offer Hands-On Experience

ROP, the Regional Occupational Program, offers a series of work experience courses designed to provide students with entry level experience for the job world after graduation. The courses, funded by state and federal grants, are offered all around Long Beach — in all five high schools, at L.B.C.C., at local department stores and banks, at local stables, and at the hotel on the Queen Mary. On the job experience is provided in hotel and restaurant occupations, brick masonry, small engine repair, animal care, auto body repair, graphic arts, fashion merchandising, PBX training, data processing, appliance repair and servicing, carpentry, cosmetology, diesel mechanics, hospital health services, landscaping, media occupations, air transportation, and landscaping.

Stage Crew Is Always Working

The Jordan Stage Crew is always busy. From rallies to football games, from assemblies to drama productions, from music department productions to the dance show, during school hours, after school, and on weekends, they are always involved. Stage Crew is responsible for lighting, sound, giving cues, building sets, and all the other thousands of backstage jobs that make the performers' jobs look perfect. Ms. Sandy Lucas, Stage Crew's advisor, says that on an average, students spend 5 to 10 hours a week outside of class time working on shows, and during their busiest time, just before the dance show, the class spends at least 20 hours extra each week working with the dancers.

Besides the Jordan productions, stage crew also works some weekends for pay when various groups rent the auditorium. They have worked everything from Vietnamese concerts to gospel shows.

J.R.O.T.C. Offers Taste Of Military

Besides participating in school functions such as Homecoming, Back-To-School Night, and Commencement, Jordan's J.R.O.T.C. went on several field trips to Camp Pendleton. The J.R.O.T.C. Drill Team and Color Guard represented Jordan in two competitions and performed in three parades. In addition, the rifle team was involved in six competitions among eighteen schools.

All year long, J.R.O.T.C. prepares for the biggest day of their year, the Annual Field Inspection, in March. This year and every year, their goal is to become a Gold Star Unit, an honor unit.

Stylus Is A National Winner

1984 was the tenth year of production for Stylus, Jordan's literary magazine, which features student writing, photography, and art, and which is printed by our graphic arts classes. Under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Tollstrup, Stylus has won numerous All-American ratings from the National Scholastic Press Association, which evaluates student publications from high schools throughout the United States. The All-American rating is awarded to only 10% of the literary magazines submitted for judging.

This year's co-editors were Karen Feest and Mona Mottin, whose responsibilities included overseeing the staff which selects the student work to appear in Stylus and prepares the work for printing.

Entries submitted to the Stylus staff included poems, essays, short stories, drawings, and photographs, which were judged by a staff of eight student and teacher judges. This year's judges were Ms. Sarah Carty, Ms. Karen Kaufmann, Mrs. Joan White, Mrs. Marie Tollstrup, Steve Van Antwerp, Seanne Brutsche, Huguette Pelletier, and Chip Krolik.

Drama Prowls On Stage Purr-fectly

Drama this year was a highly versatile and energetic group. They presented two plays and a musical. In November, Drama performed Finders Creepers, a horror-comedy about two young boys who spend a terrifying night in a morgue. In February, they performed a serious drama, Whose Life Is it Anyway?, about a paraplegic who considers suicide rather than facing life in a wheelchair. Planned for spring was a musical, The 1940's Radio Hour, which recaptures the early '40's when the world was at war, television was something from science fiction, and pop music meant "The Chattanooga Choo-Choo." The musical was performed by the advanced drama students, and credit for a major portion of its success is due Directors Tracy Peoples and Gina Collinge.

The drama classes are under the inspired direction of Mrs. Barbara Wheat, whose philosophy it is to push students toward the college theater life. Mrs. Wheat tries to get the best out of her students by making them do much of the work on plays. In addition to regular classroom activities, Mrs. Wheat also brings in speakers and takes students to plays at such places as Cal State Dominguez Hills. Mrs. Wheat is herself active in community theater as an actress, singer, and composer. In order to bring new experiences to her students, she is working with Mrs. Tollstrup's Creative Writing classes to create student-written plays for the drama classes to perform. Jordan truly has a gem in Mrs. Wheat.

Cat's Purr Stirs Up Spirit

Jordan's student newspaper, The Cat's Purr, is published about every two weeks by the Advanced Journalism class and the Jordan R.O.P. Offset Print Shop.

The staff is headed by co-editors Laurie Robbins and Brenda Vis. They are responsible for publishing fifteen issues of the paper during the school year, including special Homecoming and spring issues.

Laurie and Brenda, with a lot of help from Ms. Linda Kaufman, led the staff for two months while Mrs. Anderson was hospitalized. "We really missed Mrs. Anderson's help; it was hard for us to get along without her," commented Laurie.

This year's page editors are Robyn Thomas, News Editor; Dennis Brown, Editorial Editor; Julie Teson, Feature Editor; and Tommy Piarino and Marcus Turner, Co-sports Editors.

Laurie, Brenda, and the rest of the staff have worked very hard to equal the success of last year's first-rate paper. All of us at Jordan are proud of their accomplishments.

Winning attitude shows at Jordan

by Tommy Piarino

There is a new feeling in the air here at Jordan this year. A winning attitude has aroused students into participating in many of the school ed to be the crowd favorite. It brought almost the entire audience to their feet.

My feelings towards all of this and school spirit are. "It's about time!"

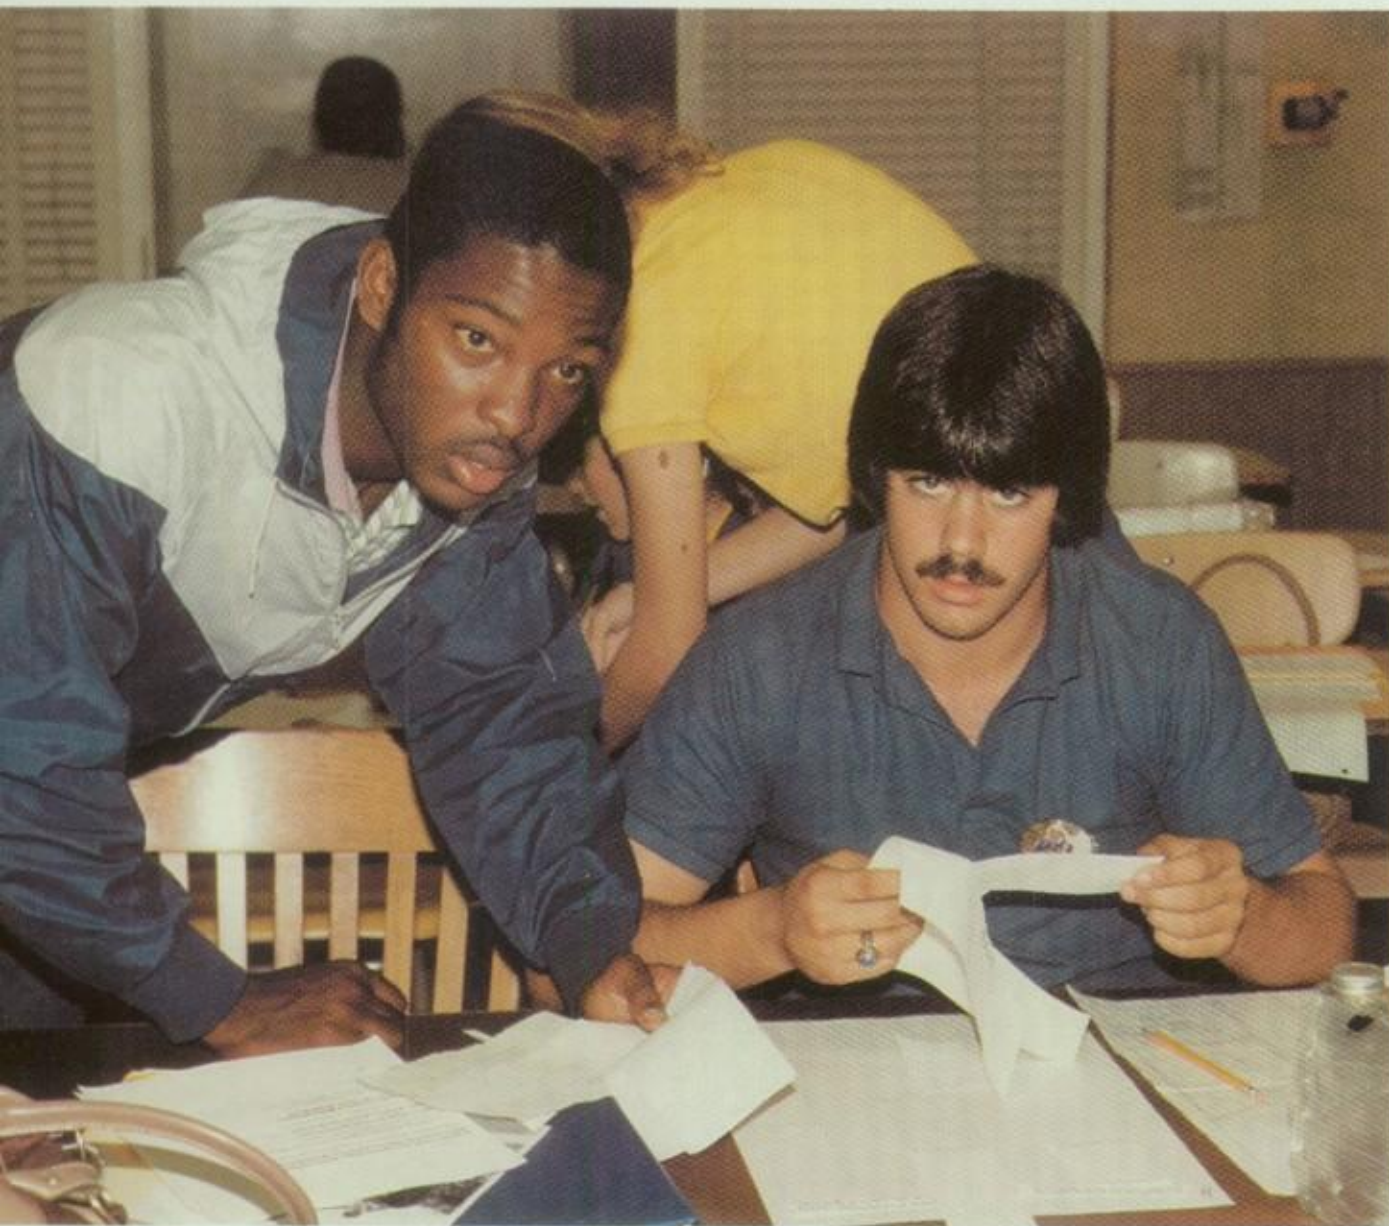

I think it is great to be back, to see all the old school days.

I wonder if you'll be here 50 years, (If the school survives) students should teach their work and was a real hour student.

Trailblazer Looks Back On 50 Years

This year's Trailblazer staff had a special challenge: to commemorate Jordan's 50th anniversary with a special historical issue. To meet this challenge, the staff had to dig through early editions of the yearbook and find pictures that reflected Jordan's history. These were added to the new pictures to form a historical record of Jordan. Also included in this year's Trailblazer is its new advisor, Mrs. Sandra McGregor. Mrs. McGregor and the staff had little experience, so they had to learn quickly. This year's Co-editors were Dana Schuler and Greg Davis. Section editors were Sheri Stolze, Seniors; Chris LaRiviere, Underclasses; Laurie Robbins, Activities; Steve Van Antwerp, Academics; and Tommy Piarino, Athletics.

Choirs Perform For School And Community

This year's Jordan choral groups had a wide range of successful engagements. They performed in the annual fall concert in October and in the Evensong concert at Christmas. Besides their performances in these school activities, our choral groups also performed in the Long Beach City College Invitational Concert in April.

Each of the choral groups has its own personality and a literature of music to fit its voices. Vocal Ensemble is a select group of twenty talented singers chosen by audition only. Their repertoire consists of a balance of madrigals and vocal jazz. Cecelian Singers is composed of all treble voices. The Concert Choir, formerly called the A Capella Choir, is a four-part group of sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses, who sing without musical accompaniment.

The choral groups are under the skillful direction of Mr. Alan Caddick, who is himself an accomplished musician. Mr. Caddick has twice traveled to Europe, singing with the prestigious William Hall Chorale, one of the most famous products of Southern California. In addition, he has toured the United States and Canada with the world-famous Norman Luboff Choir.

“Putting On The Ritz” For A Special Show

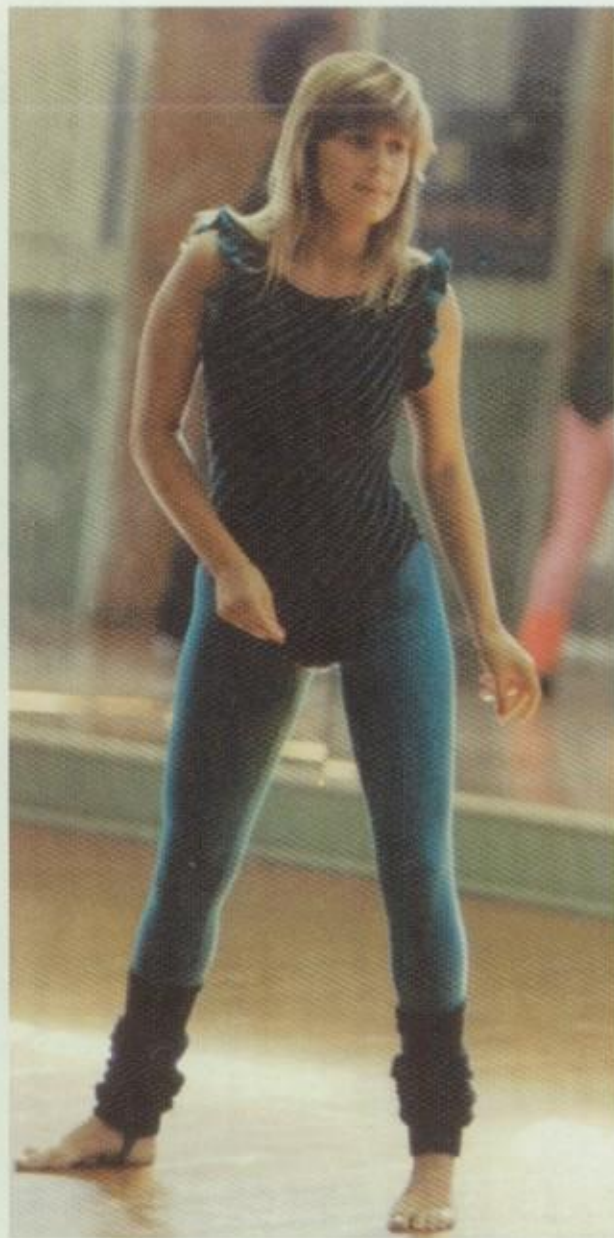

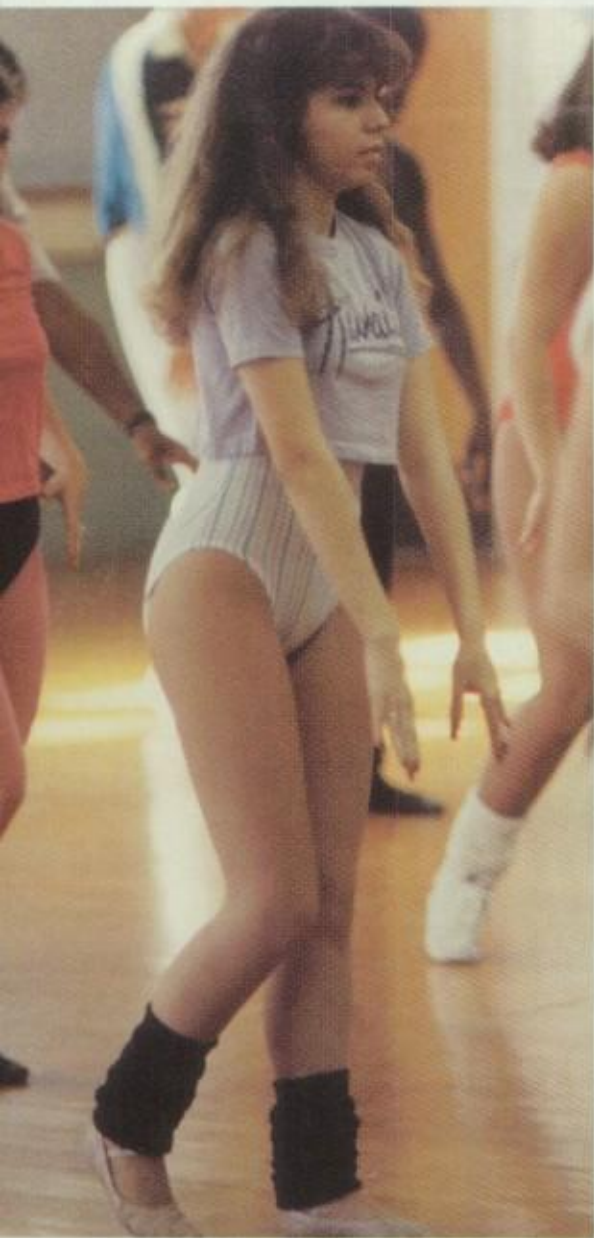

Jordan's Dance classes did an extra special performance for the 50th anniversary. The show featured student-directed numbers performed by students. First the student-choreographer had to demonstrate the dance and have it accepted; then the choreographer taught the dance to classmates; and finally dancers auditioned for a part in that dance. In addition, the dance show featured special guest soloists from past dance shows.

Rehearsing began at the very beginning of the school year with the rehearsal hours lengthening as the show approached. This year's directors were Julie Sipos, Alice Baslow, Roxie Myers, and Julia Lopez.

According to Gena Dake, who has been in the show for the past two years, it is really a neat experience because of everyone's energy and because of the support the dancers give each other. Mrs. Stephanie Breskovich is the driving force behind the show, and we are all grateful for her hard work.

Shaundra Is A Winner

Shaundra McMichael is a very determined young athlete. She has been on Jordan's varsity basketball team for three years. In her sophomore year, she was named best player. She was also chosen to play all-tournament at Gahr High and played for Far West, a Converse League. During the summer, Shaundra was in Arizona for the Converse All-Stars. She is also on Jordan's varsity track team and holds a long jump record.

Shaundra admits that all these athletic endeavors interfere with her school work, but she can handle it by stopping her practice at 6:00, leaving four hours a night for her homework.

It was a real thrill for Shaundra when U.C.L.A. recruited her because she has always wanted to go there, but now she is also being recruited by other colleges which she is considering. Her future plan is to go to college and major in sports medicine with a minor in sports psychology.

Tara Gallogly Future Actress

After six years of acting, Tara Gallogly, an exceptional drama student with a vivacious personality, is waiting for a chance to star in a major drama and to change her name to "Tara O'Neil." Until then, her shorter range goals include excelling in dance and "making the best of life."

Gallogly has acted in many of Jordan's plays, such as Ramshackle Inn, in which she played an FBI agent, and Whose Life Is it Anyway? When asked what kind of role she'd like to play in upcoming productions, Tara replied that she thinks it would be fun to play a stereotyped role in a comedy or a very serious part in a dramatic play.

Tara says, "I was always a shy person until I took Drama. Now I have the ability to talk constantly without even thinking — as anyone knows who has had an English class with me."

Her future plan is to go to Cal State Long Beach and major in Drama. Maybe we'll be seeing Tara on television or on the movie screen in a few years.

John Foley, Athlete

John Foley, an all-around athlete, is the second person in Jordan history to have earned four varsity letters in a single year and is the all-time high varsity letter winner with an amazing 10. This was John's third year on varsity football; he placed seventh in CIF last year in wrestling; he is an award-winning shot putter; and he is on the varsity swim team "just for conditioning." John is also one of six students in Long Beach on the Youth Olympic Organizing Committee which works to promote young people's interest in the 1984 Olympics.

John hopes to go to B.Y.U. "because it has a good agriculture program, is a good football and wrestling school, and is always ranked high in the number of good-looking girls attending." After college, John plans to go into ranching with his father near Palm Springs.

Tammy's A Beauty

Jordan senior, Tammy Hauswirth, competed successfully in the Miss Continental Beauty Pageant in 1983 and is now in pursuit of the coveted title of Miss California.

Tammy began competing in pageants only a year ago when her sister found an ad in the local newspaper. In that one year Tammy has competed against some of the most talented girls in California and has emerged as one of the few to place at the top. Besides beauty, success takes being able to handle a busy schedule, a good grade point average, and modeling talent. In the competition, Tammy models formal wear, sportswear, and bathing suits.

Other interests for Tammy include cheerleading, being a member of student council and dance club, and working a part-time job. Her future plans are to study fashion merchandising and dance at a university.

James Earhart: Artist

James Earhart, one of this year's school mascots, also enjoys and excels in the field of art. He first discovered his interest in art when he won a contest in second grade, which placed his project of arranged rocks in the window of the North Branch Library. At Hamilton Junior High, he was presented with the Art Achievement Award.

James prefers drawing cartoons and portraits, which all of his friends enjoy. He intends to go to Amarillo State College in Texas, where he will live with his uncle, and study graphic arts and computers. Actually, however, his real ambition is to become a comedian and act in motion pictures.

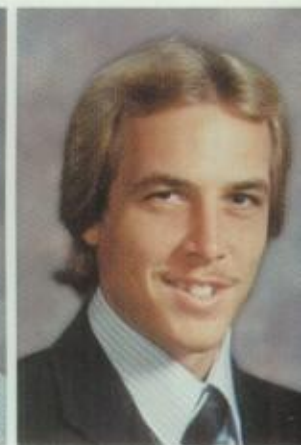

Changing programs is always a problem.

Carol Casanova Finds New Experiences

Carol Casanova is an 18-year-old exchange student from El Salvador, who came to the United States to gain independence and new experiences. Carol lives with a Dutch-American family, who she says is much like her own.

Carol also spent six months in the United States three years ago, living with her family in San Jose and taking English as a Second Language in school. This year at Jordan she took dance, zoology, U.S. Government, Student Council, Film Analysis, and U.S. History. Carol says the classes were hard because of her problems with English, but those who know Carol know that her English is quite good and is getting better every day.

Although Carol isn't politically involved, she would like to talk to President Reagan and tell him that the situation in her country, El Salvador, isn't as bad as America thinks from exaggerated stories in our press and on television.

In the future Carol wants to study medicine at a university in El Salvador and to specialize in pediatrics because she loves children.

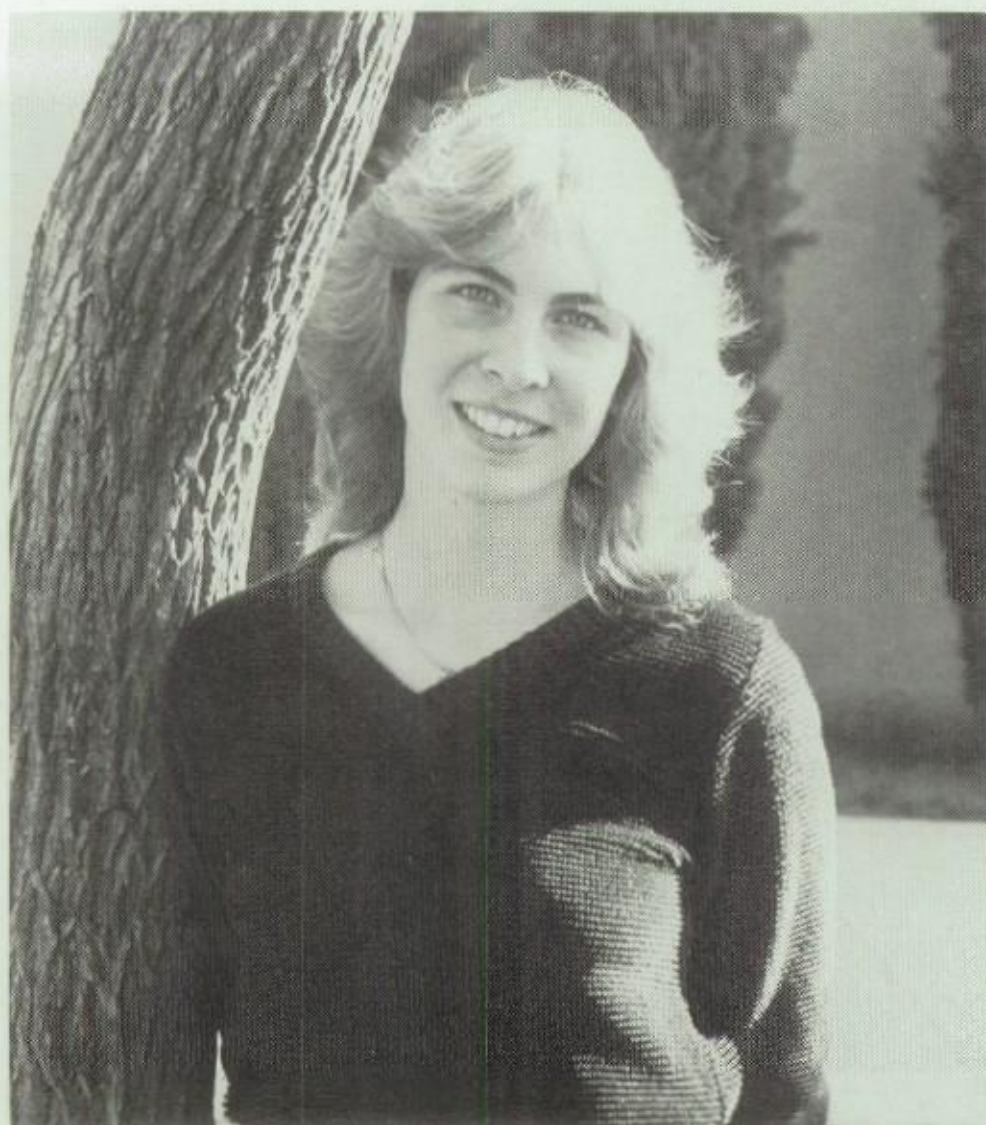

Romeo Banares Competes For Jordan

Romeo Banares was a member of this year's gymnastics team and a member of Jordan's Varsity Yell Competition Squad. His good friend, Tammy Hauswirth talked so enthusiastically about competition cheerleading and the partner stunts involved that Romeo decided to try out for the squad. The competition squad made up cheers that included cheer moves, gymnastics, dancing, and pyramids, and with Romeo's gymnastics experience, he was a valuable addition.

Last year Romeo took P.A.C.E. classes at Poly, but because he wanted gymnastics and cheerleading and because his job interfered with his studies, he decided to concentrate his efforts at Jordan this year. However, Romeo still pursued his academic endeavors because he plans a future in medicine, which he'll embark on next year at U.C. Irvine.

Romeo spends his free time writing, dancing, working on his bug, and going to Junior Kababayan meetings.

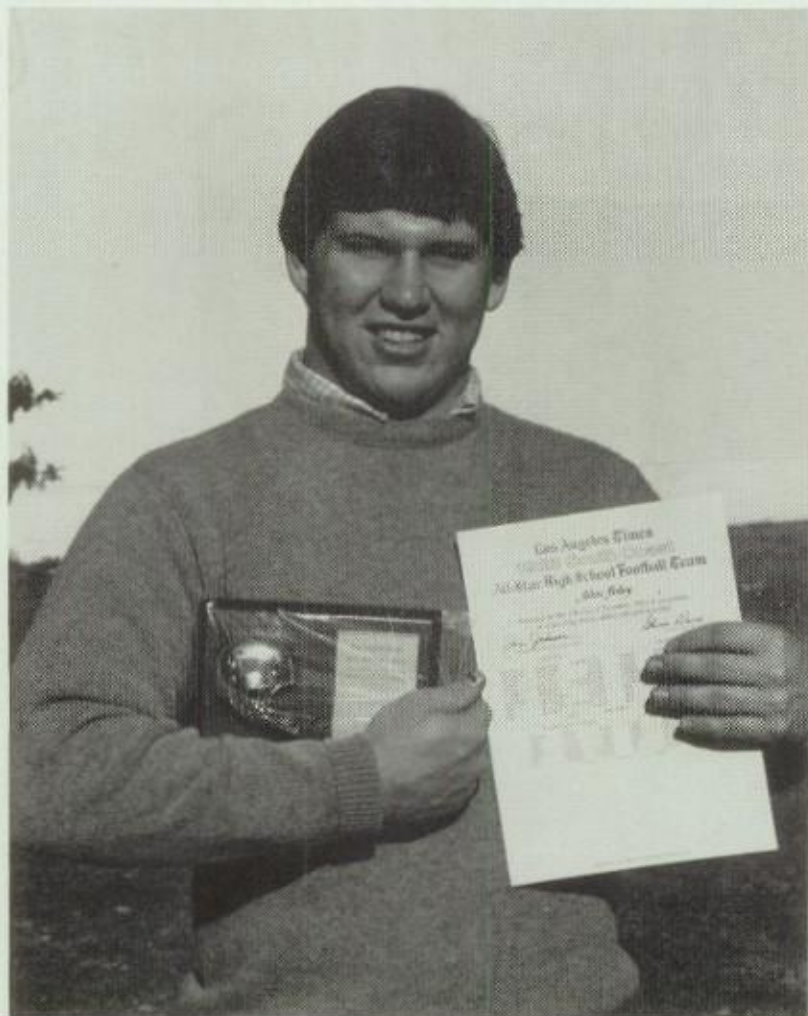

Deana Veith Is A Backstage Star

Deana Veith always wanted to be an actress, but she found out that a successful actress needs to know what goes on behind the scenes. As a result, she took Stage Crew and found her real interest.

In the time Deana has been in Stage Crew, she has really learned a lot — how to hang and focus lights, how to make props and build scenery, and how to set up and operate sound systems. She and the other Stage Crew members have worked on all school productions, but her talent and experience have also earned her paying jobs away from school. She worked on the show at the Spruce Goose as well as on productions of "The Music Man" and "The Nutcracker." One time she even met Bob Hope backstage at one of his shows.

In the future Deana plans to go to L.B.C.C. for two years and then transfer to Cal State Long Beach to study stage, acting, and computers, since most of the stage equipment will be computerized in the future.

John Foley proudly displays his awards for placing on the L.A. Times' All-Star High School Football Team.

6 Seniors Keep 4.0's

Debra Valentovich, Huguette Pelletier, Ngoc Bui, Jules Bourgeois, Mona Mottin, and Edward Sanchez have achieved the scholastic ultimate: a 4.0 grade point average throughout their three years at Jordan.

However, the Senior 4.0's not only kept up with schoolwork; they were also involved with a variety of activities. Debbie was actively involved in softball and volleyball and participated in NHS, CSF, and Friends United. Huguette played softball, volleyball, and basketball and held the position of Stylus judge/editor. Trissy (Ngoc) managed to both hold a part-time job and study for her classes. Jules enjoyed competing in tennis matches. Mona gave spirit to JV Yell and Song, while spending her spare time working as Stylus co-editor. No, they were not always glued to their books.

Congratulations are due these scholastic giants. We know they'll be giant successes in the future too.

Michelle Magsaysay Leads Juniors

Michelle Magsaysay, this year's Junior Class President, ran for office because she wanted to be involved in Student Council and to work with Mr. Keck because he is "a neat man." She finds student government especially exciting this year because of the 50th anniversary and is delighted that the junior class is finally coming out of its shell.

Magsaysay is also Keywanette president and a J.V. yell leader. However, her homework in such classes as Honors Physiology, Honors History, and Computer Programing give her little time for other activities.

After high school, Magsaysay would like to become an attorney because she is persuasive, enjoys speaking to groups, and says she loves to argue — especially with Mr. Welch.

Michelle is ably assisted by Dianne George, vice president; Lydia Sanchez, secretary; Virginia Valles, treasurer; and Marina Martinez, representative at large.

Junior Class Secretary Lydia Sanchez.

Junior Class Treasurer Virginia Valles.

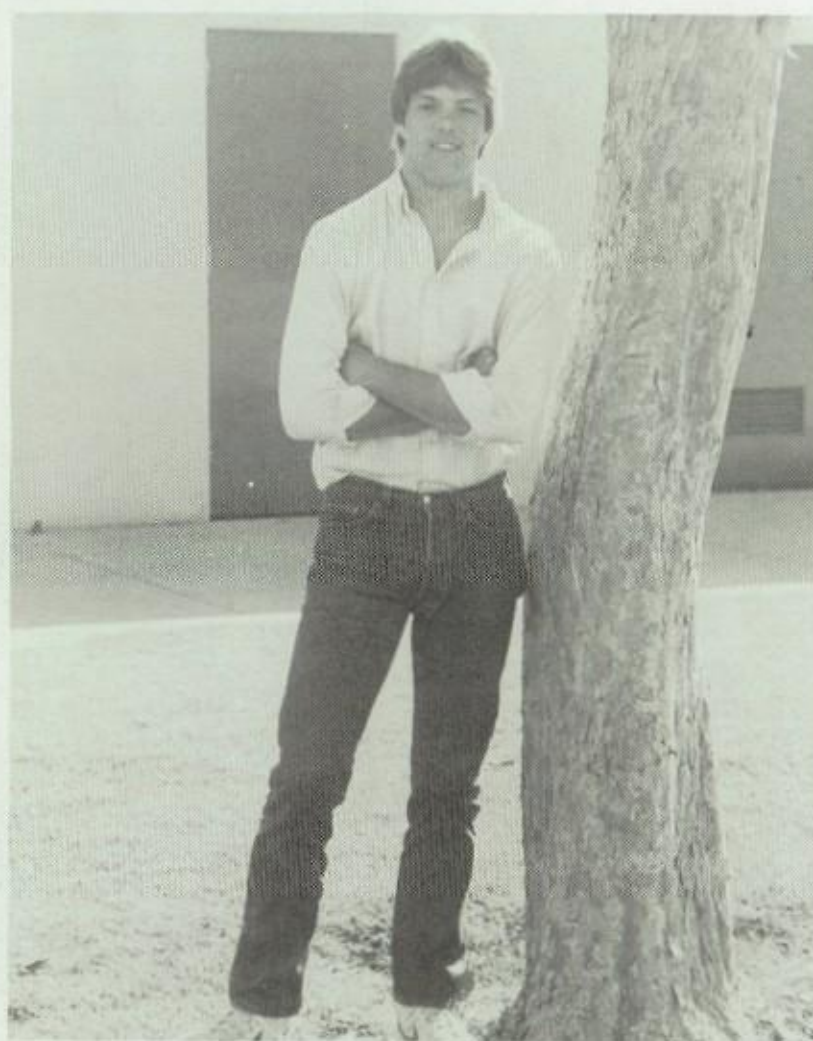

Representative-at-large Marina Martinez.

Jay Makemson Class Varsity Athlete

Jay Makemson is best known for his participation in varsity sports here at Jordan; he excels in both football and baseball. Makemson had an excellent season in football this year and is looking forward to taking a leading role in next year's promising varsity team. But Makemson is not just an athlete; he also knows he must keep up his grades to go to the university of his choice. As a junior he challenged himself with biology, American Literature, and U.S. History. Makemson is hoping his academic success will enable him to attend Arizona State University. His favorite teacher is Mr. Turner, and he enjoys playing on the sports teams because of the friendliness of his teammates.

Outside of school, he enjoys snow skiing and perfecting his stereo system, the latter revealing his love of music. His well-rounded interests make Jay a very popular person on campus. If you don't already know Jay, he is not difficult to get to know; his friendliness constantly shows through. Meet Jay Makemson; you'll like him.

Crystal Lehner Sets Standards High

Although Crystal Lehner is still a high school student, her classes are equivalent to those of a college student. In addition to the regular classes, Drill Team, Honors History, Honors English, and Spanish 9-10, she took Honors Physiology during 0 Period. This emphasizes her desire to one day become a cardiologist, a brain surgeon, or an neurologist. Lehner's arduous schedule did not prevent her from maintaining her 3.95 grade point average.

School work is not all Lehner thinks about. She was also captain of the Pantherettes. Her hobbies include dancing, water skiing, and swimming. She has done much traveling and has also received numerous awards for her scholastic and extra-curricular achievements. In addition she is a member of C.S.F., Keywanettes, and the Principal's Advisory Council. Lehner is enthusiastic about Jordan's school spirit and about the atmosphere of the school. Lehner's admirable standards should be an inspiration to everyone.

Dana Cuartero Competes Statewide

Dana Cuartero is a very hardworking Panther with many facets. Not only is Dana captain of the Pantherettes, she also took Pre-Calculus, Honors English, and Chemistry. Besides the drill team competitions she and the Pantherettes participated in for Jordan, she entered on an individual basis, the prestigious 1983 Miss Drill Team U.S.A. competition, in which she demonstrated her versatility by performing a dance routine, modeling, and making a speech.

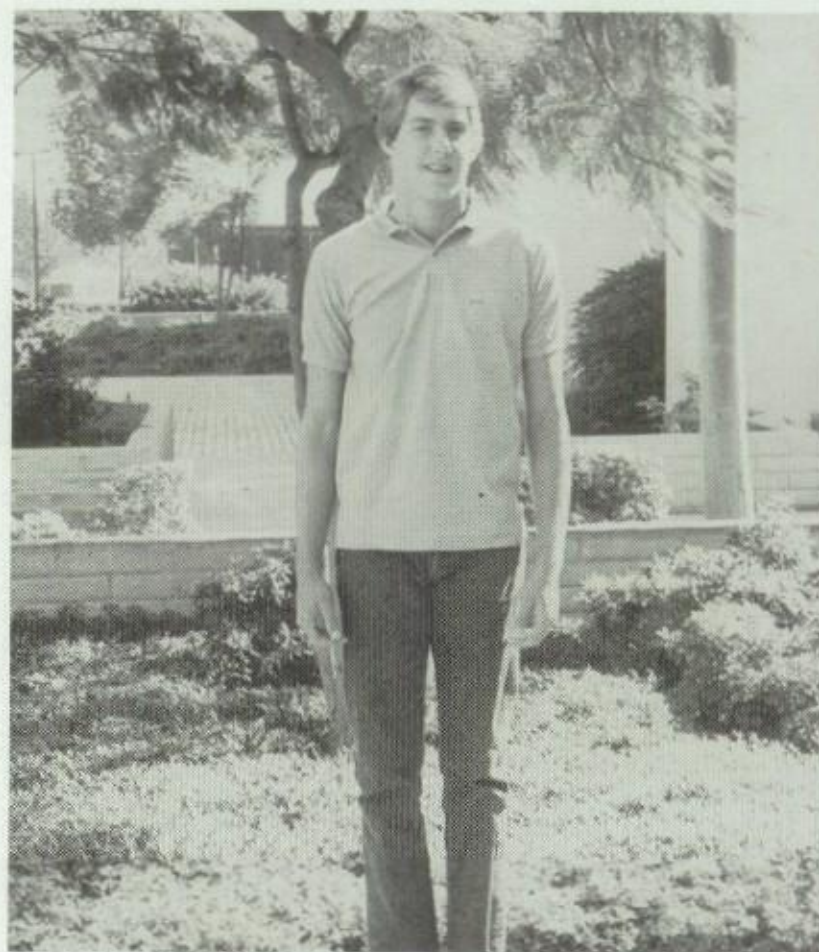

Cuartero also is a member of CSF, Keywanettes, the Spanish Club and was one of the Junior Homecoming Princesses. In addition Cuartero was on the Principal's Honor Roll, was a Medal of Merit nominee, and was a Principal's Advisory Council member. However, despite all these activities, Dana still upholds her 4.0 grade point average. Her favorite things are the people at school, her friends, and the friendliness of the football team. If you're looking for an example to follow, seek out Dana Cuartero.

John Marshall All-Around Athlete

His many friends know him as John Marshall, but the majority of the school knows him as Number 11, Jordan's varsity football quarterback. Not only was John the very successful quarterback, but he was also a starting pitcher on the varsity baseball team. As a first-year football starter, he made mistakes as expected, but he also had some outstanding games.

Marshall thinks Jordan is getting better all the time because we have more school spirit than ever, and we're improving our school-wide grade point average and attendance. His interests outside school are going to the beach and to funny and scary movies.

Marshall has a 3.0 grade point average and is currently considering furthering his education at a major college. The college most interested in recruiting John is Stanford University, but it is most certain that John, with his size and ability will be considered by many other colleges as well. For any college looking for a good student-athlete, John Marshall is certainly a promising prospect.

"I'll never forget the time the J.V. baseball team broke Lakewood's 25-game winning streak."

Six Juniors Maintain Perfect G.P.A.'s

Six Juniors, Samuel Balimbin, Dana Cuartero, Jeannie Gasparac, Jade Kalambakal, Manh Van La, and Randy Sims, maintained perfect 4.0 records after the first semester. This is extremely impressive considering the fact that the majority of their classes consisted of such difficult courses as Pre-Calculus, Advanced Creative Writing, and Chemistry. Not only are they good students, but many of them pursue outside activities such as baseball and Pantherettes. Congratulations to these outstanding students.

4.0's Sam Balimbin, Randy Sims, and Manh Van La. Not pictured: Jeannie Gasparac, Dana Cuartero, and Jade Kalambakal.

Marina Martinez Is One Of "Keck's Kids"

Junior Marina Martinez participated in a very diverse and interesting group of activities at Jordan this year. Not only was she a member of the Junior Varsity Volleyball team, she also was an active member of "Keck's Kids," better known as the group of students who are in Student Council. Her most dedicated participation was in Friends United and the Principal's Advisory Council.

Included in the classes Marina took were French 3-4, English 5-6, and history. She has a respectable grade point average but hopes to raise it even more before her graduation next year.

After departing from Jordan, Marina plans to attend U.S.C. to study psychology.

Connie Lee Pursues Many Interests

Junior Connie Lee came to the United States seven years ago from her native country, Korea. Connie states that there was no specific reason for their coming to America; her family just decided to emigrate. In addition to speaking Korean, Connie speaks exceptionally fluent English and is taking French.

Connie's classes this year also included Pre-Calculus, English, and chemistry. These are classes which are tough even for native English speakers, but Connie wasn't intimidated, as her 3.6 grade point average attests.

Connie's hobbies reveal her diverse interests. She enjoys dancing and was a member of Pirouettes and likes listening to music and making most of her own clothes. Her goal is to attend Cal State Long Beach and major in interior design. With her many talents, Connie Lee will certainly attain her goals.

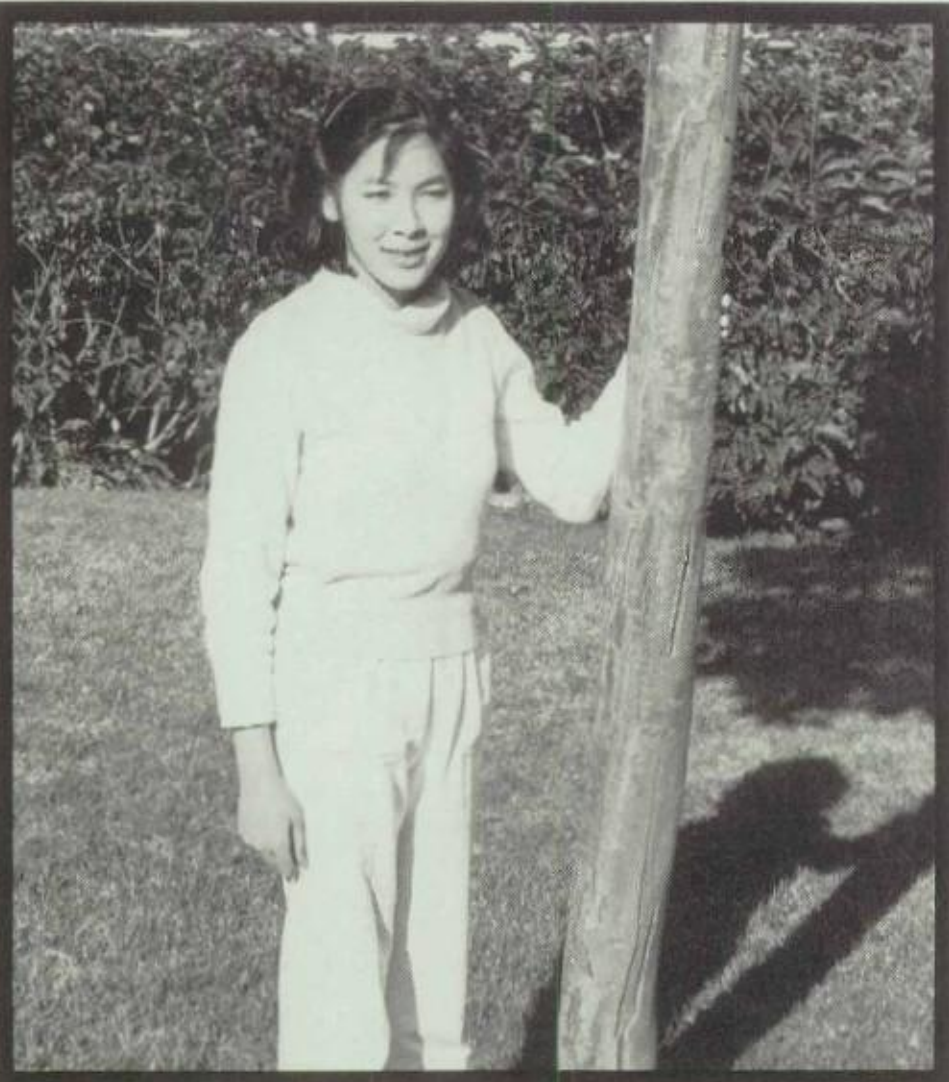

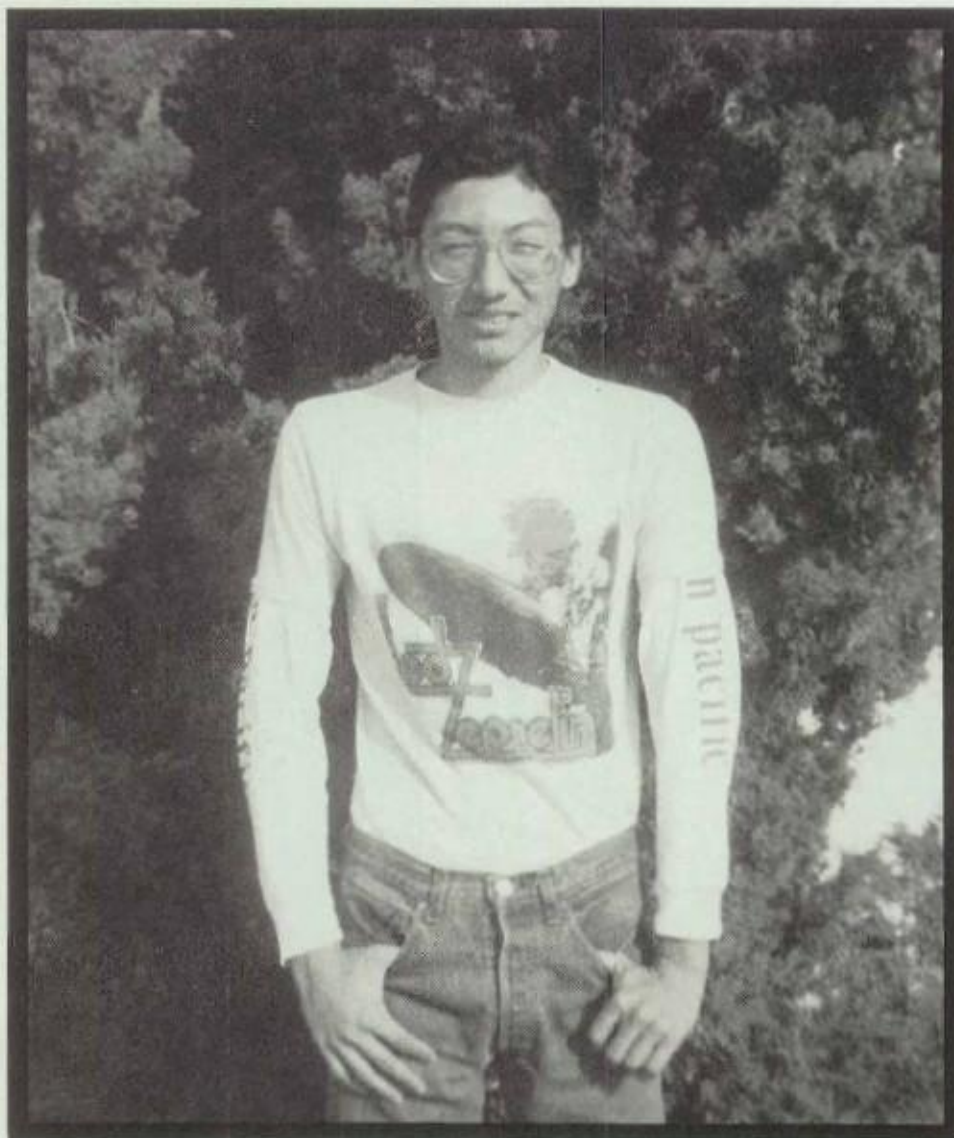

Marty Martinez Is An Individualist

Junior Marty Martinez is an individual who isn't concerned about what other people say about his appearance. The earring in his left ear is deceiving; he doesn't just go along with the crowd. Marty is a very intelligent individual who devotes at least three hours a night to his homework in Pre-Calculus, Spanish 5-6, and Honors English. Marty states that he has even more homework to conquer some weekends.

Marty likes it at Jordan even though he doesn't have time for clubs. He especially likes the people, including Mr. Spande, who he says is "cool."

His intelligence also carries over to pursuing his favorite hobby, playing the game known as "Dungeons and Dragons," a game that requires a good mind, intense concentration, and a vivid imagination. He also likes to listen to music by The Police and Rush.

After he graduates, Marty plans to take a vacation of at least six months before continuing his education at U.C.L.A. With his sharp mind and personality, Marty should do well in whatever field he chooses.

War Forces Trinh Tran Out Of Vietnam

Junior Trinh Tran has only been living in the United States for eight years. She came to this country from Vietnam because of the war. Despite living here for only a short time, she has learned English very well. Not only does she speak English, she is, of course, fluent in Vietnamese and is also learning French in the P.A.C.E. program at Poly.

Trinh states that being in P.A.C.E. kept her on her toes and she never got bored. The only drawback to being in this style of program was that she had to stay up long hours doing her homework in such classes as Pre-Calculus, Advanced Placement European History, and Computer Programming. The two classes she took at Jordan were Chemistry and R.O.T.C. Being in R.O.T.C. was also time consuming for Trinh. In addition to being the assistant supply room officer, she had to perform extensive drills with the Women's Drill Team.

When Trinh has time, her hobbies are listening to music, reading, and jogging. She also keeps in touch with her relatives back in Vietnam. Trinh is a welcome addition to the student body of Jordan High.

Sophomore Vice President Kari Cuartero

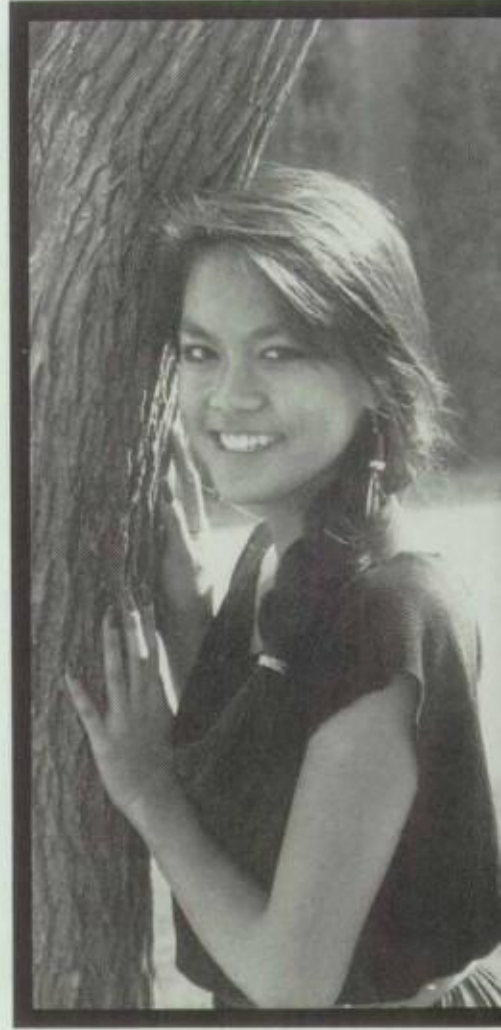

Nikki Bianco Governs Sophomores

Nikki Bianco decided to run for sophomore president in order to get involved and to have an exciting first year at Jordan.

As a member of student council this year, Nikki contributed her own ideas, listened to those of others, and helped plan for the senior rom, among other projects. Nikki's duties consisted of planning and putting together the sophomore booths for Homecoming and Spring Fling and helping out with the various sophomore activities.

Nikki hopes that all the sophomores had as great and memorable year as she did and looks forward to a terrific junior year.

Sophomore Secretary Rowena Gallardo

Representative-at-large Helene Cavanaugh

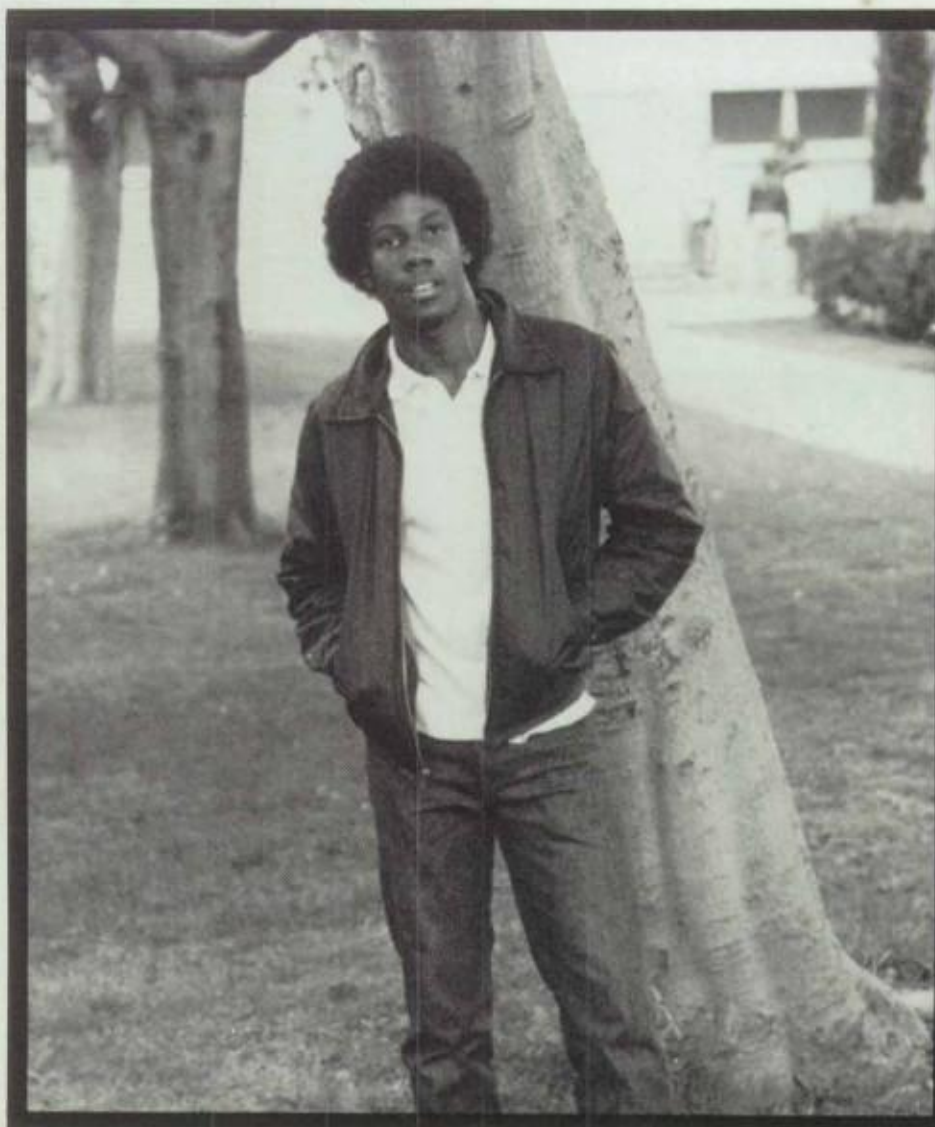

Sophomore Treasurer Lisa Daniels

Strong Adjusts Well To Jordan Life

"Scared and very nervous, but after a couple of days it was easier." This is how Sophomore Kinyatta Strong felt about coming to Jordan. It was easier because Kinyatta got involved in school activities quickly. Not only was he a member of the very successful Sophomore basketball team, he also had classes, such as English 3-4A and Spanish 3-4, which required a large amount of classroom participation, including speaking in front of the group. This too helped Kinyatta adjust to a new school. Because he believes that Jordan teachers treat students with more respect than junior high teachers do, he was especially glad to be here.

Kinyatta's future goals include attending a four-year college, hopefully on a scholarship. His long range career goal is to become an attorney. Kinyatta Strong has all the right tools—personality, intelligence, and perseverance—to be successful in whatever he chooses to pursue.

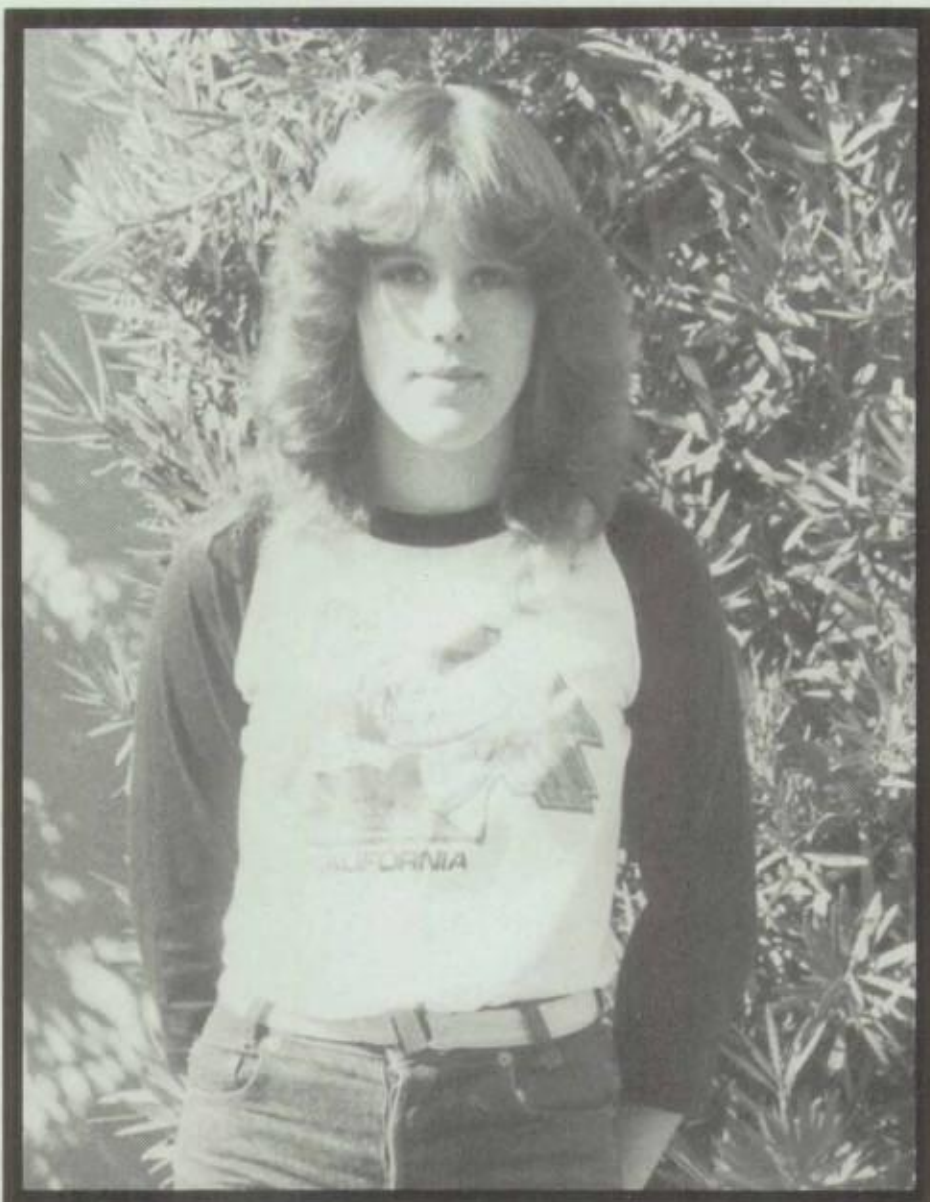

Bianco Represents Sophomores Well

Nikki Bianco, a sophomore, came to Jordan reluctantly because the school is so big, because many of her friends had gone to a different school, and because she felt she didn't know anyone. However, that rapidly changed because she began getting involved in school activities. Not only was Nikki a member of the award-winning Pantherettes, the Principal's Advisory Council, and Keywanettes, she was also the sophomore class president during her first semester at Jordan. All this involvement with Jordan life made school fun. Nikki adds that the people at Jordan make her feel wanted and the great school spirit here is inspiring.

Nikki's hobbies include cheerleading, snow and water skiing, and horseback riding. With these timeconsuming hobbies and classes such as biology, trigonometry, and English 3-4A, she doesn't have much other free time.

In the future, Nikki would prefer to attend a four-year university to further her studies in the field of design. With her enjoyment and understanding of the life of the school, Nikki Bianco should have a promising future both at Jordan and beyond.

Kim Doty, Model Student

When it comes to good students, Kim Doty qualifies as a perfect example. Of the six classes she took this year, five of them are academic classes, including Honors English. She studies an average of three hours every night for these classes. Kim hopes that one of these classes, biology, will possibly help her in a career in the field of zoology.

Other than studying, Doty likes to do ceramic painting, ride bikes, and swim. Things she especially likes about Jordan are the friendly people and the nice teachers. Over the year she has grown to like all her teachers, and judging from her personality and her academic success, it would seem that the teachers will grow to like her over her three years at Jordan. We are proud that Kim Doty is a Panther.

Jennifer Feest Strives For Success

As a sophomore, Jennifer Feest immediately got involved in the Jordan life. Jennifer is a member of the Pantherettes and was enrolled in such academic classes as Honors English, Trigonometry and Creative Writing. The latter emphasizes her desire to be a writer after college. Some of her goals are to attain a 4.0 grade point average and to become a varsity cheerleader. Feest also likes to work with people and is a special volunteer at Pacific Hospital in Long Beach. She recently received the "Volunteer of the Month" award from the hospital.

Feest enjoys going to football games and being friends with football players. What impressed her most about Jordan is that the teachers help the students as individuals, not just as a class.

After high school, Jennifer plans to attend a four-year university and is currently considering U.S.C. and U.C.L.A. Her academic achievements and her warm personality insure Jennifer Feest's success wherever she goes.

Buena Cayetano, one of this year's 4.0's.

14 Sophomores Earn 4.0

Fourteen sophomores achieved a straight A grade point average their first semester at Jordan. Obviously, as they take more classes, it will become harder and harder to maintain this high accomplishment. However, this select group of sophomores is truly outstanding. We all applaud them and look forward to seeing their pictures on the 4.0 page two years from now.

Rowena Gallardo: Activities Expert

Rowena Gallardo is an extremely outgoing person. This year she served as sophomore secretary, was a member of Keywanettes, and was an active drill team member. Rowena is also a hardworking student, enrolled in difficult classes. Besides the time she spent on her most challenging class, Honors English, Rowena also spent an additional two hours a night studying for other hard classes, such as Trigonometry and Spanish. Rowena hopes that the classes she takes and the activities she is involved in will help her in her career as a newscaster.

Rowena is also busy outside of school. Her hobbies include snow skiing, playing the piano, and reading. But her biggest hobby, as is the case with many other Panthers, is shopping. Being involved in so many activities, both here at Jordan and away, qualifies Rowena Gallardo as "The Activities Expert."

Charles Burnham: First Year Success

Charles Burnham, a 6'3" sophomore, was one of the few sophomores on the varsity football team this year. Charles devoted many hours of time and effort to his sport and a great deal of support to his teammates. Charles says that being on the varsity football team made him feel important and proud, and added that the older players didn't treat him any differently than they treated each other. According to Charles, Jordan's school spirit is one of its most outstanding attributes.

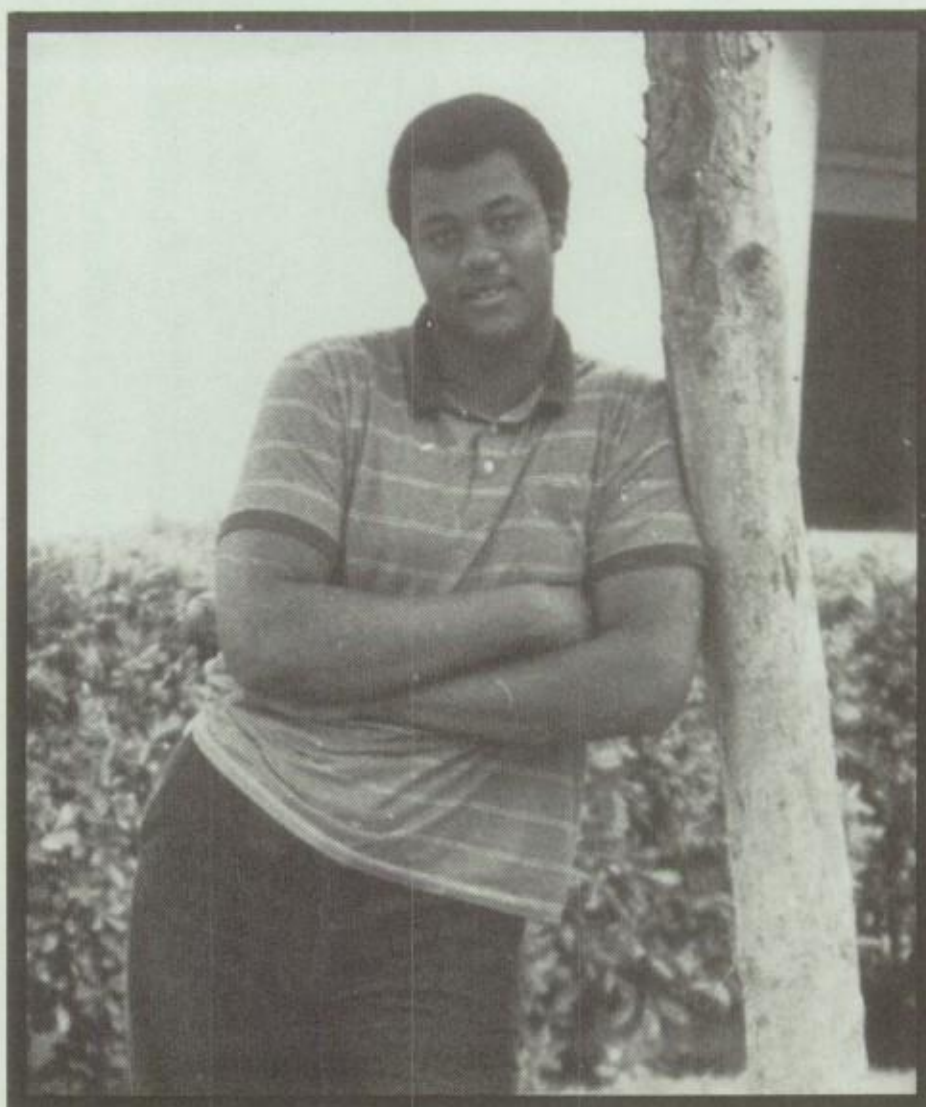

Besides football, Charles dedicates himself to his school work. He was enrolled in Spanish, English, and geometry this year. He realizes the importance of his grades and hopes to win a football scholarship to U.C.L.A. When Charles isn't busy with school or sports, he likes to spend his time eating and reading. He also enjoys watching girls and T.V.

Dennis Brown Joins Jordan With Style

Dennis Brown approaches school activities by way of the Jordan Memorial Stadium. Dennis exploded onto the Panther sports scene by excelling on the varsity football team. He showed he had the promise and determination required to be an excellent football player by winning places on the All-League, All-Southern-Section, and All-City football teams. "Ever since my friends saw that I could play football, they started showing me respect," Dennis comments. Dennis is hoping that his academic and athletic abilities will land him a college scholarship.

Dennis has many hobbies that he spends his spare time on; however, his favorite is making model cars. This hobby takes many hours of hard work and concentration, and such diligence is what makes Dennis Brown a person admired by both his friends and his coaches.

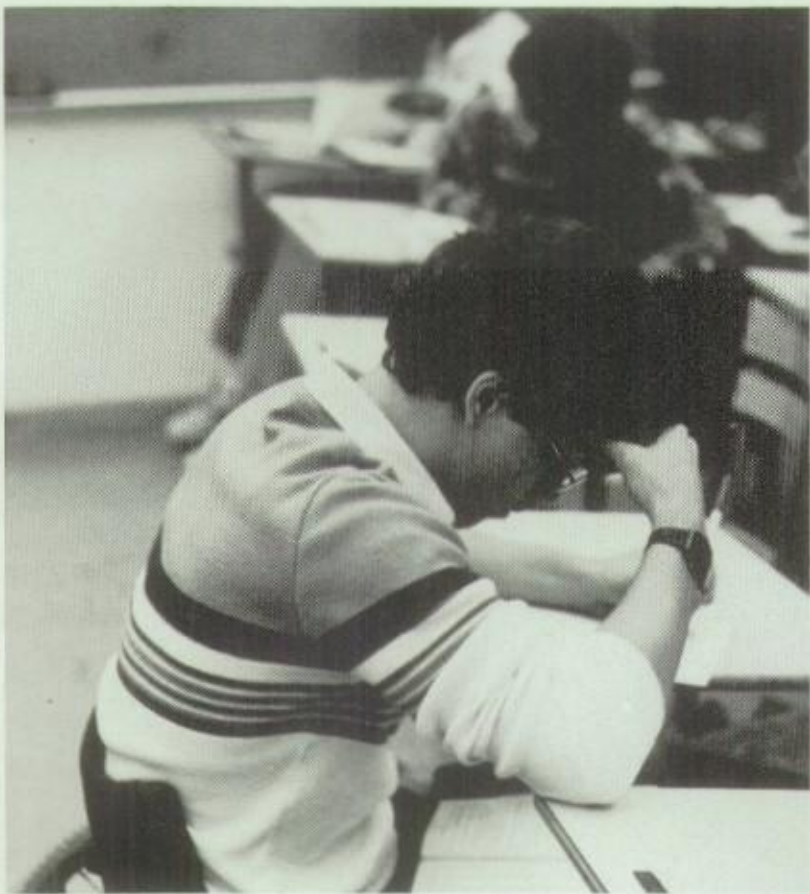

Ruby Guillen Shows Promise In Cross Country

Sophomore Ruby Guillen finished her first year on the varsity cross country team in great fashion. Ruby made excellent progress and shows real promise for her future seasons as a Panther.

Not only is Ruby an active athlete, she is also a great student. Her classes this year included geometry, Honors English, and biology. Ruby knows that in order to keep her place on the cross country team, she must study hard and keep up her good grades.

During her first year at Jordan, Ruby also took an active part in Student Council. Outside of school, Ruby enjoys going to parties, studying science, and participating in sports. Ruby Guillen is a definite asset to Jordan.

Does Brad Jones have his "thinking cap" off?

Nancy Calzada is ready for class in a simple fur and pearls.

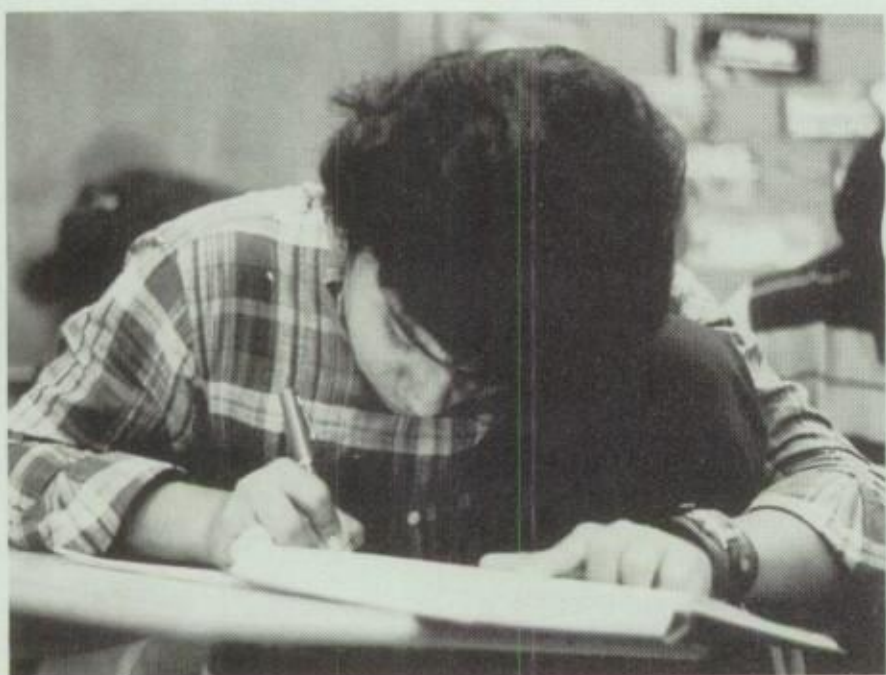

Lori Welch is in a world of her own.

Sue Bernas has so much homework she even has to work at lunch.

Typical Jordan students are fascinated by their teacher's lecture.

Ed Rubi gets right down to work.

Diane Vaardahl concentrates on her English assignment.

Lisa Daniels is all dressed up for '50's day during Homecoming.

Santa's helper, Wendy Souza, is sure to get an "A" on her test.

Olympic Gold Shines On L.A.

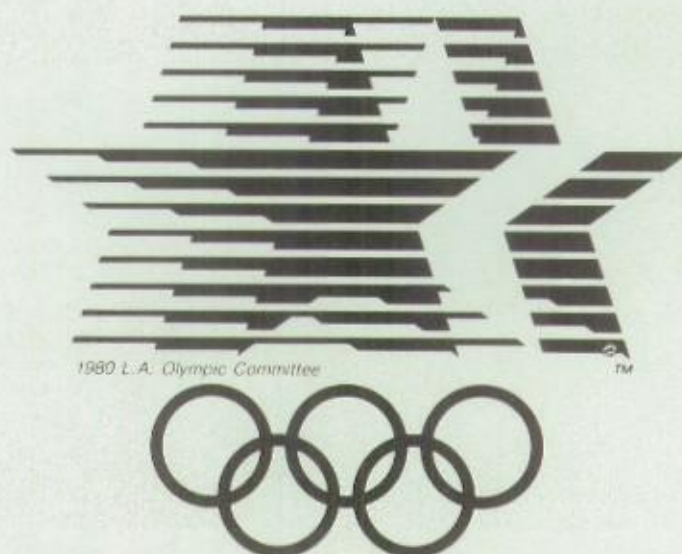

The modern Olympics have come to Los Angeles twice in their history. The first time was in 1932, a year before Jordan was founded. The Olympic Games have grown considerably since then. About 2.5 billion viewers world-wide will watch this year's games, compared to only a few thousand who saw the Games 51 years ago.

The Olympic Games will promote feelings of friendship and pride that will unite people from all over the world — especially those in the 37 nations whose athletes will contribute their skill and excellence. The Olympic mascot and symbol represent these ideals. "Sam, the Olympic Eagle," mascot for the 1984 Games, shows the friendly optimism of the Olympic spirit, as well as embodying the Olympic motto, "Swifter, higher, and stronger." The "Star in Motion" logo, the symbol for this year's Olympics, exhibits stars, which represent both mankind's highest aspirations and the swiftness of the competitor. Of course, the stars and stripes in the logo are also symbolic of the United States.

This year the United States is, as always proud of its outstanding competitors. Carl Lewis is said to be the greatest all-around athlete since Jesse Owens, the star of the 1934 Olympic Games in Berlin, Germany. Carl's sister, Carol Lewis, is the second-best American woman long jumper of all time. Other athletes who seem destined to be medalists include Mary Decker, queen of the middle distance in running, and Julie Brown, a champion in long-distance running.

The results aren't in yet, but one thing is certain: more will be gained from the Games than gold medals. The friendship and togetherness that is matched by no other event will be remembered by those lucky enough to be a part of the 1984 Olympic Games.

1. The United States men's volleyball team will compete in the Long Beach arena.
2. Julie Brown paces herself to run the distance.
3. Carol Lewis leaps in an attempt to surpass her record of 22 feet 8 inches.
4. Helen Stephens and Jesse Owens display the friendship they formed during the 1934 Olympics.
5. Heroes of this year's Olympic Games may well be Carl Lewis and Mary Decker.
6. Carl Lewis shows his winning form.
7. The determined Mary Decker strives to be number one.
8. Basketball star, Cheryl Miller is on her way to being the best woman player.

War Years Brought Changes

World War II, the Korean War, and the war in Vietnam had a large impact not only on the world but also on Jordan students, killing a staggering 1,499,766 people.

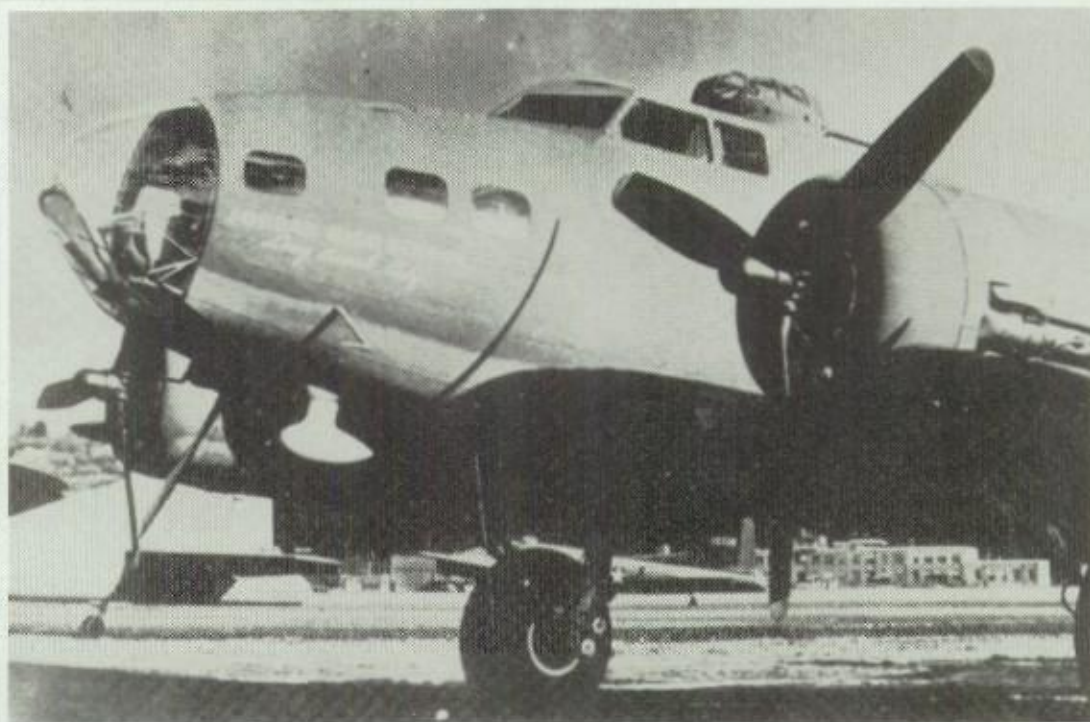

World War II crushed the promising dreams and hopes that existed after the Depression. The 1944 Trailblazer stated, "We are not warlike in nature, nor are we trained to be aggressive toward the people of other countries, but as we resumed our high school careers in the fall of 1943, our community was a part of a great national effort to preserve our American way of life."

During the war years students trained at school for home front defense jobs and worked in defense plants after school. In 1943, with the combined effort of the entire Jordan Student body, the "Jordan High School" B-17 was purchased. In addition, teachers and students bought war bonds to support the war effort.

The dropping of the atomic bomb on the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan, ended World War II, but started the nuclear arms race that has left the dark shadow of nuclear Wars in Korea and Vietnam have also caused death and destruction, and many lives were lost last year in Lebanon, but perhaps our efforts can bring world peace so that the devastating results of war will never again touch our lives.

In the 1944 Trailblazer, the background photograph on these pages was dedicated "to the Jordan students who gave their lives in the service of their country in order to maintain an era of permanent peace."

1. The Flying-Fortress "Jordan High School" B-17 was purchased by the Jordan Student Body in 1943.
2. An atomic bomb ended World War II on September 2, 1945.
3. Jordan students and teachers worked in defense plants after school during World War II.
4. This drawing appeared in the 1944 Trailblazer.
5. The 1943 Trailblazer was dedicated to students who lost their lives in defense of our country.

Crystal Bay

Cooing sea gulls glided with the blue wind at Crystal Bay.

Sweetened salt filled the air,
sharp to the lips,
sweet to the nose.

The silky sand,
unable to seize the teasing sea,
felt warm beneath my feet.

Imprinted cameos
traced my unknown path,
swept away by the booming tide.

Greg Davis

Windsong

Before the dawn of Time was born,
when still the Earth was young and cold,
a child was sprung from Master's hands to walk the world, so it is told.

With golden locks and ruby lips,
a spider's web to clothe soft flesh,
bright blossoms glittered in her path;
her fragrance floated sweet and fresh.

Small footprints fell on sandy shores,
soft laughter filled the silver surf;
as Time began, she wandered still from sea, to wood, to meadow turf.

Down from tall, rocky cliffs she gazed into the blue, majestic sea;
its music called; wild wind did blow;
headlong she fell Eternally.

Ever the dawn of Time goes on;
from waves she rises, crisp and cold,
to whisper endless through the trees and move the world, so it is told.

Seanne Brutsche

A Young Man's Winter

His sparkling eyes
no longer glow with slivers of silver moonlight.

His golden hair
no longer shimmers
in the morning sun.

Daisies that once blossomed
beneath his feet
are covered by moss.

Tiny animals that danced around him lie dormant
in their winter caves.

The songs he used to sing
now lie silent beneath brown leaves waiting to be raked away.

Life that had once filled his body sleeps peacefully buried deep within this frigid, harsh ground.

If only I could speak
to him one more time.

If only his eternal sleep
could be disturbed.

I would speak to him of luscious fields
and springtime.

best ever 50th Anniversary class!
Jack DuBois
Principal

Bubba,
May your life hold only good things. You're still the greatest!
Love,
Mom and Dad

Pantherettes:
You're the BEST! I love you all and want to thank you for your dedication and effort in making 1983-84 such a FANTASTIC year.
I'll remember you always.
Miss Kane
P.S. Go out in life and "make it great."

To all my friends, especially Kim
R.:
I love you. Thanks for being there when I needed you. Take care and good luck always.
Love,
Dave G.
Gymnastics '83-84

Dear Baby T:
These years with you have been so very special to me. Thank you for all your love and understanding. Through hard times and many happy times, only the happy ones remain in my memory. I hope you'll always know how much I love you.
Your Angel

Babe,
You have brought us much happiness the past 17 years. We're proud of your many accomplishments. We hope for your continued happiness and success.
We love you. Your brothers said,
"We love her too—but don't tell her."
Love always and God bless you.
Dad, Mom, Rob, Brian, Misha,
Nosey, and Moose

Dana—
Just a little note to say thank you.
And I love you. I think I always will.

John

To Laurie, thanks for everything, and to my friends, Rerun, Inch, Mooch, Wick, Toddler, Winston, Twiggy, and everyone else, thanks a lot.

Dirty
(Mike)

Congratulations, Darla:
Proud, Panther, Positive!

Love you,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations and Good Luck,
Class of 1984!
Especially you Bible, Brit., and American Lit.-ers!
Judith Olmsted Powell

Julie,
To our favorite apricot. We are very proud of you. Have a great time in Hawaii.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, and Michael

Thanks, Mike D. (#64)!

Mom and Dad

P.S. We love you.

B.J.
A little dab will do ya!

We love ya,
Dad, Mom, Holly, & Robert

To J.V. Yell:
Thanks for a wonderful year. Have a wonderful everything. God bless you all.

Love,
Cindy Barley

Diana,
We love you because you're you.
Congratulations, 1984!
Your Dad, Mother,
Darrell, & Daniel
